CASE NARRATIVE

REPORTING OFFICER

269 \ PICKARD, CATHERINE, M,

DATE / TIME WRITTEN

09/20/2006 20:45

09/20/06, I responded to [redacted] at [redacted] to interview a suspect in a vandalism case (2006-36980). [redacted] was named as a possible suspect in the destruction of clothing belonging to her ex-boyfriend, and I was going to take an out of custody statement from her. I had made telephone contact with VI- [redacted] earlier in the week, and we were scheduled to meet at 1600 hours, which we did.

Upon arrival, VI- [redacted] came out to meet me at my patrol vehicle in the parking lot of the [redacted]. I took an out of custody statement from VI- [redacted], and at that time explained based on the lack of evidence putting her at the scene, I did not think the District Attorney would prosecute her for vandalism. VI- [redacted] seemed relieved, and said she had already had a bunch of drama with the police, and she had spoken to a District Attorney about an officer harassing her. I asked if there was anything I could do, and VI- [redacted] explained she was going to call Robert Dekas on Friday because a San Leandro Police Officer had come into her apartment and sexually assaulted her. VI- [redacted] said she even had bruises on her arm from the cop grabbing her. VI- [redacted] lifted the sleeve of her shirt, and I saw a bruise on the inside portion of her left upper arm, just under the biceps muscle. Based on the visible injury and the verbal allegation, I felt it was my responsibility to determine if immediate reporting of the incident was necessary, so I asked further what had happened.

VI- [redacted] told me the following:

VI- [redacted] works at the front reception counter of [redacted] and she has met several police officers who work out there. A uniformed officer came to the front counter a month or two ago, and spoke to VI- [redacted]. The officer said he worked the area, and knew VI- [redacted] closed by herself. The officer also said there were a lot of strange people in the area, and he handed VI- [redacted] his work business card. The officer had hand written his personal cell phone number on the back of the card, and told VI- [redacted] a if she needed anything to call him. VI- [redacted] never called, and actually misplaced the card. VI- [redacted] saw the officer patrolling from time to time, but she never made contact with him on or off duty.

Monday, 09/11/06, VI- [redacted] was working at the front desk when the same officer came in near closing time. VI- [redacted] asked the officer if he could sign off a fix it ticket. The officer said, "sure" and VI- [redacted] explained the ticket actually belonged to her boyfriend. The officer asked if VI- [redacted] still had his business card, and when VI- [redacted] said she did not, he took out another card, hand wrote a phone number on the back, and handed the card to VI- [redacted]. The officer told VI- [redacted] a to call anytime and he would come by and sign off the ticket.

The name on the business card is Greg Cannedy, and the phone number hand written on the back of the card is [redacted].

Wednesday night, 09/13/06, SU-Cannedy went into [redacted] around 2300 hours and spoke to the front receptionist, [redacted] and asked if VI- [redacted] was working. VI- [redacted] happened to be speaking to VI- [redacted] and SU-Cannedy asked if she wanted him to come by and sign off the ticket. VI- [redacted] said "sure" and thought it would take at least fifteen minutes for SU-Cannedy to arrive. VI- [redacted] walked to the front door and saw a police vehicle pulling into the parking lot. It had only been a few minutes, and VI- [redacted] was surprised the officer arrived so quickly. VI- [redacted] waived to the officer, who pulled his vehicle in front of [redacted]. VI- [redacted] a went inside to get the ticket, and walked back to the door and SU-Cannedy was already at the threshold. VI- [redacted] handed SU-Cannedy the ticket and said she had to use the bathroom. VI- [redacted] went into the bathroom, and when she walked out, she saw SU-Cannedy had entered the apartment and was standing in the kitchen. VI- [redacted] a stood in the living room with a counter top between her and SU-Cannedy. SU-Cannedy asked if anyone was home and said he had signed off the ticket. VI- [redacted] said no one else was home and walked around the counter to the kitchen to get the ticket from SU-Cannedy. VI- [redacted] said "thanks", and SU-Cannedy said, "Is that all? Can't I at least get a hug?". VI- [redacted] said, "What? No.", and started to walk back towards the living room hoping SU-Cannedy would leave. SU-Cannedy grabbed VI- [redacted] upper right arm and pulled her to him into the kitchen. VI- [redacted] a tried to pull away, but SU-Cannedy swung her around and began to kiss her neck and cheek. VI- [redacted] backed up against the wall as SU-Cannedy grabbed her hand and used it to massage his groin through his pants. SU-Cannedy had his other hand on VI- [redacted] buttocks and was rubbing up against her. VI- [redacted] a could not believe what was happening and thought she was going to be raped. VI- [redacted] a told SU-Cannedy her girlfriend was coming home in a few minutes and he had to leave. SU-Cannedy told VI- [redacted] to call her friend and tell her to wait twenty minutes

2331 CLARK, RONALD, C. - SGT.

SUPPLEMENTAL NARRATIVE

On 09/20/06, about 2040 hours, I was told about an investigation into the actions of one of my officers, Gregory Cannedy. Lieutenant Overton told me that there was an allegation of on-duty criminal conduct with a [redacted] and the victim was currently being interviewed. I told Lieutenant Overton that Officer Cannedy had approached me at the end of last week reporting an incident that sounds related.

On Thursday morning, 09/14/06, Officer Cannedy had asked to meet with me as he needed to talk about something. Some time later I met with him and we stood outside our cars while we spoke. Officer Cannedy started by telling me that he needed to tell me something and that he considers me his friend. Officer Cannedy had received some disturbing phone calls on his cellular phone and thought he needed to give me a "heads up." Officer Cannedy proceeded by telling me that he had a moment of weakness and he thought he may have made a mistake.

Officer Cannedy said the other night he was driving through the Pak'n Save parking lot and drove past when he saw an acquaintance employee inside. Officer Cannedy went inside to have a conversation with this female employee #1. I get the impression that this employee was talking on the phone to another female employee #2 who was not currently working. Employee #1 was relaying conversations back and forth between Officer Cannedy and employee #2. The conversation included Officer Cannedy being told that employee #2 was waiting for him at home in her underwear, and Officer Cannedy saying he would go to her house to sign off a ticket. Officer Cannedy told employee #2 via employee #1 that he would be right over. I gathered that the tone of the conversation was familiar and flirtatious in nature.

Officer Cannedy arrived at employee #2's apartment at [redacted] Officer Cannedy said when he arrived, employee #2 was dressed and standing in the door to the apartment wearing very short shorts. I gather from Officer Cannedy that they had a conversation and flirted back and forth in a mutual fashion. Officer Cannedy told me at one point employee #2 thanked him for coming by and Officer Cannedy said, "What do I get?" Employee #2 motioned him toward her for a hug and Officer Cannedy gave employee #2 an embrace. Then Officer Cannedy told me that they mutually kissed. All of a sudden, employee #2 pushed Officer Cannedy away and said that someone was coming and he needed to leave. Officer Cannedy thought her behavior was strange, but said "okay" and left. Officer Cannedy said it was as if employee #2 felt guilty because of her boyfriend.

I asked Officer Cannedy when this happened and he said it was the other night. Officer Cannedy said he left employee #2's apartment to respond to the alarm at Tuffy's Building Supply that Officer Fischer and I responded to. I remembered this alarm because Officer Cannedy was dispatched primary with Officer Fischer as cover. I was just around the corner and arrived on scene first. Officer Fischer and I checked the perimeter and then spoke for a few minutes afterwards and Officer Cannedy never arrived on scene prior to our leaving. (Incident #2006-36508 09/12/06 @ 2313 hours)

Officer Cannedy explained that when he was driving to work the following evening, employee #2 had left voice mails on his cellular phone. The voice mails were a complete reversal of how employee #2 had been with Officer Cannedy in the past. She said things like, "she had told her boyfriend about what happened" and "she was afraid to live there anymore" and "she didn't want him coming to her apartment anymore." I asked Officer Cannedy if he had called her back and he told me that he didn't even have her phone number and that she is the one that's been calling him. Officer Cannedy said his stomach was in knots and he has been unable to eat and constantly feels like he's going to vomit. Officer Cannedy was afraid of his wife finding out.

The impression I had from Officer Cannedy was that he was the subject of flirtatious behavior from employee #2 and that he inappropriately gave in to the advances. I verbally reprimanded Officer Cannedy, told him how "stupid" his behavior was, and that he placed himself in a very compromising position subject to receiving a complaint. Officer Cannedy said that he hoped that if he had told me about what had happened and if she had called to complain that I could be discrete so no one (his wife) would find out. I advised Officer Cannedy to avoid all contact with employee #2 and notify me if she continues to call him. On Tuesday morning, 09/19/06, I met Officer Cannedy for coffee and I asked him if employee #2 (I referred to her as his "stalker" in conversation) had continued to call him. Officer Cannedy had not received any additional calls from employee #2.

INVESTIGATION:

Wednesday, 20 September 2006

Approximately 1830 hours, I received a phone call from San Leandro Police Department Communications at which time I was advised to call Sergeant Spirou as soon as possible. I called and spoke with Sergeant Spirou who immediately handed the phone to Lieutenant Overton.

Lieutenant Overton told me that there was an allegation of misconduct on behalf of one of our officers while on duty. He went on to say that the victim, later identified as [redacted] was with Officer Pickard. I asked Lieutenant Overton if he could share with me the accused officer's name and he told me it was Officer Cannedy. I told Lieutenant Overton that I would be responding to the Department as soon as possible.

When I arrived, approximately 1920 hours, I met with Sergeant Spirou and Lieutenant Overton in the Sergeant's Office. They briefed me on the allegations and advised that the victim was upstairs in the Criminal Investigation Division with Officer Pickard. I walked upstairs, along with Sergeant Spirou, and met with Officer Pickard and [redacted] in the interview room. Prior to meeting with [redacted], I had Officer Pickard further brief me on the details she'd learned from [redacted].

Approximately 2010 hours, Sergeant Spirou and I met with [redacted] in the interview room. This interview room was equipped with both audio and video recording capabilities, which I utilized to memorialize my interview with [redacted].

Once I introduced [redacted] to Sergeant Spirou, I told her that I wanted to speak with her about her allegations. I asked [redacted] to tell me why it was she had contacted the San Leandro Police Department this evening. [redacted], in essence, told me that she had been harassed by a San Leandro Police Officer named Greg Cannedy and that she'd told some of her friends about it. Although initially she didn't want to contact the authorities regarding the incident, some of her friends convinced her that following up on it was the best way to handle it.

[redacted] said that some of her friends advised her to file a lawsuit against the San Leandro Police Department for monetary gain. [redacted] told Sergeant Spirou and me that she wanted neither money from this incident, nor to handle it criminally. [redacted] told us that she just wanted "the Officer" to leave her alone.

I asked [redacted] how it was she had come into contact with Officer Cannedy. [redacted] said that approximately one to two months prior to this incident, she was working the morning shift at [redacted] 01. It was approximately fifteen minutes after she'd opened, around 0515 hours, when she first came in contact with Officer Cannedy.

According to [redacted] Officer Cannedy walked into [redacted] while in police uniform. Officer Cannedy introduced himself and told [redacted] that he hadn't seen her before. [redacted] a told Officer Cannedy that she was working for someone else that morning; that she normally works at night. Officer Cannedy took out one of his business cards, wrote a phone number on the back, then handed it to [redacted]. Officer Cannedy told [redacted], "Call me if you need anything." At the time, [redacted] a didn't think Officer Cannedy's actions were suspicious.

The second time [redacted] had contact with Officer Cannedy was sometime in August, 2006. [redacted] said that she, her friend [redacted] - who also worked at [redacted] - and [redacted] twelve-year-old brother, [redacted], were walking out of K-Mart on [redacted]. [redacted] saw Officer Cannedy driving through the lot, at which time they acknowledged one another by saying hello. Their conversation was brief.

The third time [redacted] had contact with Officer Cannedy was possibly Monday, 11 September 2006, around 2200 hours. At that time, [redacted] said that San Leandro Police Department Officers were dispatched to [redacted] regarding a disturbance. [redacted] said that Officer Cannedy was the officer who responded to deal with the call for service. While there, Officer Cannedy spoke with [redacted]. During their conversation, [redacted] asked Officer Cannedy if he'd be willing to "sign off" a fix-it ticket for her. Officer Cannedy asked [redacted] if she still had his business card and phone number. [redacted] said she lost it. Officer Cannedy wrote a phone number on the back of another one of his business cards, handed it to [redacted] and told her to call him when she was ready to have the fix-it ticket signed off.

I searched the San Leandro Police Department Records program for calls for service (Incidents) at [redacted]. I located a "415 PC - Disturbance" call at [redacted] on Monday, 11 September 2006, at 2118 hours. Officer Cannedy and [redacted] were dispatched to that call. The incident [redacted] indicated the call was "adjusted" at 2203 hours.

The last time [redacted] had contact with Officer Cannedy was possibly the next day, Tuesday, 12 September 2006, in the evening. According to [redacted] she was talking on the phone with her friend, [redacted] z, who was working at [redacted]. Officer Cannedy walked into [redacted] and spoke with [redacted] about membership possibilities for a co-worker. [redacted] was evidently continuing her telephone conversation with [redacted], when Officer Cannedy asked [redacted] who she was talking to. When [redacted] told Officer Cannedy she was talking to [redacted] Officer Cannedy told her to say hello. Officer Cannedy also asked [redacted] to ask [redacted] if she still needed her fix-it ticket signed off. [redacted] said she did, so Officer Cannedy told her he would drive to her apartment and take care of it. [redacted] said her boyfriend, [redacted], got the ticket for not having a front license plate. [redacted] thought he'd received the ticket while in the city of Oakland, however she couldn't be sure. She also said that [redacted] car wasn't even at the apartment when Officer Cannedy signed off the ticket.

During part of their phone conversation, [redacted] told [redacted] that Officer Cannedy asked her some personal questions about [redacted], such as her age and whether or not she lived alone. [redacted] thought Officer Cannedy's questions were strange and she shared her feelings with [redacted]

[redacted] thought it would take more than a few minutes for Officer Cannedy to arrive at her apartment, however she walked outside after she ended her conversation with [redacted] in order to open the security gate, allowing Officer Cannedy inside. When she walked outside, [redacted] saw a marked police car entering the complex. [redacted] figured that Officer Cannedy had a key to open the gate.

As the police car entered the complex parking lot, [redacted] waived her arms, attempting to get Officer Cannedy's attention to guide him to her apartment. Officer Cannedy arrived moments later.

[redacted] walked back inside her apartment and retrieved the fix-it ticket, meeting Officer Cannedy at the threshold of her apartment. [redacted] handed Officer Cannedy the ticket and after a brief conversation, she excused herself, telling Officer Cannedy that she had to use the restroom. When she turned and walked towards her bathroom, she left the apartment door open because she didn't want to be rude.

[redacted] said she was inside her bathroom for approximately one minute. When she walked out of the bathroom, Officer Cannedy was standing inside her kitchen. [redacted] said that she did not invite Officer Cannedy inside. Officer Cannedy told [redacted] that he had signed off the ticket.

[redacted] thanked Officer Cannedy for signing off the ticket at which time Officer Cannedy said something to the effect, "Is that it? You mean I don't even get a hug out of it?" [redacted] responded, "Are you serious?" At some point, [redacted], who was standing in front of Officer Cannedy, turned away from him in order to put down the aforementioned ticket.

As [redacted] turned away from Officer Cannedy, he grabbed the upper portion of her left arm, near the biceps/shoulder area, and turned her towards him. Officer Cannedy pulled [redacted] towards him, pressing her body up against his. At some point, Officer Cannedy made a comment similar to, "The first time I saw you, I thought you were so pretty."

Officer Cannedy started to kiss [redacted] on her cheek and neck area, while reaching around and grabbing her buttocks. [redacted] said that she couldn't believe what was happening. [redacted] said she thought Officer Cannedy was going to try and close her apartment door. [redacted] said at that point, she felt as though Officer Cannedy was going to rape her.

While still pressed up against [redacted], Officer Cannedy grabbed one of her hands and forcibly placed it against his groin area, over his pants. Officer Cannedy then said something to the effect, "You're just so beautiful. You make me horny." At some point during the incident, Officer Cannedy also said, "I'm glad you're twenty-one. I thought you were seventeen."

Fearing she was going to be sexually assaulted, [redacted] told Officer Cannedy that it was "movie night," and some of her friends were coming over to her apartment. Officer Cannedy told [redacted] to call her friends and tell them to come over twenty minutes later. [redacted] then told Officer Cannedy that her boyfriend was also on his way home and would be there any minute.

Officer Cannedy said something to the effect, "Are you scared?" and "You don't think I'm attractive, do you?" [redacted] just wanting Officer Cannedy to leave, said, "No, no. That's not it. I'll call you, I'll call you." Officer Cannedy asked, "You'll call me?" [redacted] said yes. Moments later, [redacted] was able to move away from Officer Cannedy and walk towards the door. Officer Cannedy followed, then left the apartment.

[redacted] stated she called [redacted] immediately after Officer Cannedy left her apartment. When [redacted] a told [redacted] what had just occurred, [redacted] said she didn't believe her.

[redacted] a text messaged [redacted] and when he called her back she was crying [redacted] didn't want to tell [redacted] all of the details because she didn't want [redacted] to get upset. [redacted] told [redacted] that "an officer" made a pass, or "hit" on her. [redacted] told [redacted] he didn't understand why she was crying so much. [redacted] never told [redacted] all the details of the incident.

[redacted] a said she couldn't sleep at all that night and the next day, Wednesday, 13 September 2006, she called Officer Cannedy's cellular phone number that he'd provided. Officer Cannedy did not answer the phone, so [redacted] left two separate messages on his voice mail. On one of her messages, [redacted] told Officer Cannedy that he "scared the shit out of her." Fearing he may return, [redacted] also told Officer Cannedy that she was moving. She went on to tell him that she wasn't going to tell anyone what happened because she was afraid he would kill her.

In the days following the aforementioned incident, [redacted] spoke with a friend of her's from [redacted], whose name she did not remember. When [redacted] told this friend that she wasn't going to do anything about the incident, he told her she either needed to contact the San Leandro Police Department or the Alameda County District Attorney's Office. [redacted] knew a Deputy District Attorney named [redacted] from the Hayward Office. At the time of this interview, [redacted] thought [redacted] last name may have been something like [redacted]. There was a D.D.A. at the Hayward Office named [redacted] at the time of this writing.

[redacted] called [redacted] and explained the situation to him. [redacted] told [redacted] to contact a friend of his, who worked for the San Leandro Police Department, Robert Dekas.

On Wednesday, 20 September 2006, [redacted] was to meet with Officer Pickard at [redacted] regarding a separate matter. Once they dealt with the other issue, [redacted] disclosed the incident involving Officer Cannedy to Officer Pickard. Officer Pickard contacted her supervisor, Sergeant Spirou, at which time the Watch Commander, Lieutenant Overton was notified.

[redacted] also told us that [redacted] mother had a friend that either lived or worked in Dublin associated with a law enforcement agency. When this unidentified officer was advised of the incident, he advised [redacted] to contact the police if the situation continued.

Thursday, 21 September 2006

Approximately 1045 hours, I drove to [redacted], to speak with [redacted] regarding this incident. When I arrived, [redacted] met me at the front door and told me [redacted] was still in the shower and would be a few minutes. While I stood on the landing in front of their doorway, I asked [redacted] if her ex-boyfriend, [redacted] was home. [redacted] told me that [redacted] 1996 [redacted] was parked in the rear parking lot, which indicated he was probably home [redacted]. While we talked, [redacted] looked over my shoulder and said, "There he goes now." [redacted] pointed towards a male who was walking west through the parking lot, towards the aforementioned [redacted]. I told [redacted] I needed to speak with [redacted] and asked her to have [redacted] wait for me to return.

I walked through the parking lot and made contact with [redacted]. I told [redacted] that I needed to talk to him about his fix-it ticket, at which time he became apprehensive. I told [redacted] that he was not in any trouble and that all I needed to know was whether or not his car was in the parking lot when Officer Cannedy signed off the ticket. [redacted] told me his car was gone at the time because he had it at work with him. I asked [redacted] if he was still in possession of the signed ticket and he stated he wasn't sure. He went on to tell me he needed to go somewhere, but when he returned, he'd look for the ticket and call me back. I gave [redacted] my business card and asked him to call me as soon as possible with that information.

I walked back to [redacted] and [redacted] apartment, at which time I was met by [redacted], her younger brother, [redacted] an unidentified female, as well as a little boy. I asked [redacted] if she'd be willing to furnish a statement regarding what had transpired with [redacted] and she agreed. I told [redacted] that I'd prefer to conduct the interview in my parked car, which was in front of the apartment, so we could speak freely. [redacted] agreed.

At 1100 hours, I started my audio recorded interview with [redacted]. She related the following:

[redacted] and [redacted] had been friends for approximately one year and had worked together at [redacted]. I asked [redacted] if she knew why I wanted to speak with her and she said it was because of "Officer Greg." I asked her to describe Officer Greg and asked her if she knew his last name. [redacted] said that she didn't know his last name and described him as a tall white male, with his hair combed back. She went on to say that he had a "friendly, goofy" personality and had some type of tattoo on his arm, which was visible just below the short sleeve of his uniform.

[redacted] told me she first met Officer Greg while she was working at [redacted] approximately two months prior to this interview. She was opening up the business, when he walked in and identified himself as the beat officer. Officer Greg told her that he knew all of the employees that opened up [redacted] were female and he wanted her to know that he was available if they needed any help in the future. [redacted] didn't think anything was strange about Officer Greg's visit. She felt that he was being proactive, making himself accessible to the business and its employees.

The next time [redacted] remembered seeing Officer Greg was approximately one week prior to this interview. She couldn't remember whether it was Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday of that week (9/11, 9/12 or 9/13). [redacted] said that the San Leandro Police Department was called for a disturbance involving one of their members. Officer Greg was the officer that responded. When checking Records for [redacted], I located the disturbance call in question. That call was on Monday, 11 September 2006, at 2118 hours (incident # [redacted]).

The CAD call indicated that Officers Cannedy and [redacted] were dispatched to the call. The last entry of this call was at 2203 hours, with a disposition of ADJ (adjusted).

During that contact, [redacted] said that she and [redacted] were at the front counter of [redacted] when they had a conversation with Officer Greg. This conversation took place after the disturbance was adjusted.

[redacted] remembered [redacted] asking Officer Greg if he'd be willing to sign off a fix-it ticket for her. Officer Greg asked [redacted] if she still had his cell phone number at which time [redacted]

At 1510 hours, I called the phone number and spoke with a female that identified herself as [redacted]. I asked [redacted] if she knew why I was calling and she said yes. I asked her if she'd be available to meet with me on Friday, 22 September 2006, so I could take a statement from her and she agreed. Although [redacted] worked from 0800 to 1730 hours, she told me she'd arrange for some time away from her work, in [redacted] to meet with me. I told [redacted] that I'd call her back before noon and schedule an appointment to meet with her.

Friday, 22 September 2006

At 0910 hours, I called [redacted] and confirmed that she was still available to furnish a statement. She said she was and we agreed that I would meet her at her workplace in [redacted] as soon as possible. Prior to my meeting with [redacted] I assembled a lineup depicting six DMV color photographs. Officer Cannedy's photograph was placed in the number two position.

I arrived at [redacted] workplace approximately 1010 hours. She escorted me back to her office, where I was to conduct the taped interview.

Prior to the interview, I read [redacted] the Photo Line-Up Admonition. [redacted] told me she understood the admonition. I placed the aforementioned photograph line-up on her desk in front of her. Without hesitation, [redacted] said, "Number two." I asked her to confirm with me that the subject depicted in photograph number two was the police officer that she and I had previously discussed and she said yes.

I had [redacted] write her initials above the photograph that she identified.

I asked [redacted] to explain to me how it was she was made aware of [redacted]'s contacts with Officer Cannedy. [redacted] asked [redacted] if she would be willing to talk to the police about what happened and she said yes. [redacted] then forwarded [redacted] information to me.

I asked [redacted] how many times she'd been contacted by this officer, whom she referred to as Greg. [redacted] told me that she'd had been in contact with Greg on three separate occasions, then her roommate saw Greg once after that.

I asked [redacted] to describe the first time she came in contact with Greg. She told me the following:

Sometime in 2005 ([redacted] could not remember the date), [redacted] had just parked her [redacted] on (Ca. license [redacted] on [redacted], just south of her residence on [redacted]. A police officer knocked on her door and when she answered, the officer asked [redacted] if the [redacted] belonged to her. [redacted] told him it did. [redacted] said the officer referred to her by her name, even though the two of them had never met. [redacted] figured that the officer obtained her name off of her vehicle registration. The officer, who subsequently furnished [redacted] with a San Leandro Police Department Trading Card, warned [redacted] about parking her car in a red zone. On the back of the trading card, the officer had written a cell phone number. [redacted] walked out to her car and noticed that it was only in the red zone by inches. Although the officer didn't ask her to move it, [redacted] did move it after the officer left. [redacted] didn't think that there was anything suspicious about the officer's contacting her for a parking situation.

The second time [redacted] saw Greg, she had just returned from Eden Hospital. Her son, [redacted], who was eleven years old at the time, had injured himself earlier in the day and they didn't get home until approximately 2330 hours.

[redacted] drove up in front of her residence and parked her car facing southbound on [redacted] along the west curb. [redacted] said that as she parked her car, a police officer drove up, north in the southbound lanes of [redacted] stopping his car "nose to nose" with [redacted] car. This maneuver startled [redacted]

[redacted] said she recognized Greg as the officer who was in the police car. Greg, still seated in the driver's seat, said, "Hey, how you guys doing?" Once [redacted] told Greg about the trip to the hospital, Greg told them a story about how he hurt himself when he was younger and the fact that he'd received forty stitches in his chest as a result. [redacted] said Greg also made reference to her being a single parent, even though she'd never discussed that with him.

During their conversation, Greg told [redacted] that the cell phone number he'd provided the first time they'd met was for personal conversation or if [redacted] had any problems.

The third time [redacted] had contact with Greg was in the early morning hours, unknown date. [redacted] had just got off of work at her second job, the [redacted] used westbound Interstate 580 as her route to get home to San Leandro.

Around 0030 hours, just as she was preparing to take the Benedict Drive exit, [redacted] saw emergency lights behind her. [redacted] not wanting to pull her car over on the freeway, continued onto the off-ramp with the police car following. [redacted] said she wanted to stop her car in an area that was well lit, so she turned north onto Benedict Drive, then northwest over the Grand Avenue overpass. After the stop sign at Sybil Avenue, [redacted] turned west onto Sybil Avenue, then north onto Evergreen Avenue, where she pulled her car over to the curb.

The officer in the police car behind her got on the public address system and said, "Get out of the car." [redacted], following the officer's directions, got out of the car, leaving the engine running. While out of the car, the officer said, "Why didn't you pull over?" The officer had the patrol car's spot light illuminating [redacted]'s car, so she was initially unable to see him. The officer ordered [redacted] to turn around. I asked [redacted] if the officer wanted her to turn away from him, or make a complete 360 degree turn. [redacted] told me she turned all the way around.

The officer started to walk towards her and when he got close enough to [redacted] she recognized him as Greg, the same officer she'd had contact with the two previous occasions.

Greg asked [redacted] "What are you doing out so late?" [redacted] told Greg that she was coming home from work at which time he asked her, "Where do you work dressed like that?" [redacted] had earlier told me at the time of the stop, she was wearing a white tank top and blue Capri pants.

[redacted] asked Greg if she could get back in her car and he said no. [redacted] asked Greg why she was pulled over and he told her that he wanted to talk to her. I asked [redacted] if Greg asked her for her driver's license, registration and/or proof of insurance at any time during their encounter and she said no.

[redacted] said Greg walked up to her open driver door as they talked. [redacted] was up against the "V" of the door as Greg had his left hand on the open door and his right hand against one of her windows. According to [redacted], Greg told her that she had a "beautiful body" and that she had "big breasts." [redacted] said she was feeling very uncomfortable while Greg made these comments to her. [redacted] sat on the driver seat of her car, at which time

I brought [redacted] back to the office and read her the Photograph Line-Up Admonition, which she stated she understood. I then placed the photograph line-up in front of her. I had both women separately place their initials under the photograph they chose. These line-ups were later submitted into the Property Section as evidence. Prior to that, I'd made copies of them, which I attached to this report.

Before we left [redacted] handed me three company forms with the heading: Contact Register. [redacted] explained that these forms were used to track guest passes, using a log-type format. [redacted] told me that the last entry was the entry for Greg (Officer Cannedy), when he obtained a guest pass for San Leandro Police Department. The entry showed 12 September 2006 at 2257 hours. of the admonition regarding changing hair styles and facial hair. At that point, [redacted] placed her thumb over the lower part of Officer Cannedy's photograph, covering his facial hair on his chin. I asked [redacted] if the subject to whom she was referring was the officer who came over their apartment one morning looking for [redacted]; and she said "yes." I then asked [redacted] to write her initials above the photograph she identified.

Approximately 1317 hours, I initiated the recorded interview with [redacted]. She related the following:

[redacted] said the man she identified in the photograph line-up came to her apartment, located at [redacted] one morning, looking for [redacted]. [redacted] described his clothing as black sweat pants and a long sleeve turtleneck shirt. [redacted] told us she realized it was the police officer [redacted] had told her about. When we asked how she knew it was the same officer, [redacted] told us she had seen the officer's police department trading card, which had his photograph on it.

[redacted] said it scared her when this officer showed up to her apartment, especially in street clothes. She said she'd seen this officer drive by their apartment, slowly down [redacted] looking towards the apartment complex. [redacted] remembered these slow drive-bys of their apartment occurring during daylight hours.

[redacted] also told us that in the past, [redacted] had called her to tell her this officer had contacted her. Because [redacted] was scared of this officer, she'd tell [redacted] to stay on the phone with her until she arrived home, fearing this officer would follow her home. I asked [redacted] how many times situations like this happened and she told me, "More than two times, but less than ten times."

[redacted] indicated she lived with [redacted] from approximately October, 2004 thru March, 2005. She and her husband then moved out to [redacted] California, with their kids.

I asked [redacted] if she or [redacted] had ever been scared of or scared by police officers other than the one identified in the photograph line-up and she said no.

[redacted] told us she thought the first time [redacted] was contacted by this officer was when [redacted] parked her car along the curb on [redacted]. That's when the officer warned [redacted] about parking in a red zone. [redacted] wasn't sure if that was the incident where the officer left his trading card.

[redacted] was en route to her apartment, approximately 2300 to 2330 hours, when she called Officer Cannedy's cellular phone to tell him she'd arrived safely. Officer Cannedy's cellular phone went to voice mail, so she left him the message.

When [redacted] arrived at her apartment, she decided to go to bed. [redacted] changed into pajamas and went to bed.

Approximately 0030 hours, about an hour after she arrived home, [redacted] cellular phone rang. Due to the late hour, [redacted] didn't answer it. Her phone rang again, minutes later. [redacted] decided to answer the phone the second time. It was Officer Cannedy on the other end.

Officer Cannedy said he was calling to make sure she'd arrived home safely. [redacted] said that Officer Cannedy was talkative and at some point during their conversation, he asked [redacted], "Which unit is yours?" [redacted] remembered it being Christmas time and she had a red bow mounted to her front door.

Officer Cannedy asked [redacted] "Is yours the one with the red bow?" [redacted] indicated she was shocked to hear Cannedy ask that, and she asked him where he was. Officer Cannedy told her he was at her front door. Officer Cannedy then said, "Just come to the front door. I want to make sure you're alright."

[redacted] said that her outer screen door was unlocked and when she opened her interior front door, Officer Cannedy was standing in the threshold holding open screen door. At the time, Officer Cannedy was not in police uniform. [redacted] said she thought Officer Cannedy may have been wearing jeans and a sweatshirt. Due to the time, [redacted] figured Officer Cannedy's shift must have ended around midnight.

[redacted] said she told Officer Cannedy that she was fine. At some point, Officer Cannedy asked her if he could have a hug. [redacted] was confused as to why Officer Cannedy wanted a hug, but she felt if she agreed, she'd be able to get him to go.

Officer Cannedy hugged [redacted] while standing in the threshold of her apartment. While hugging [redacted], Officer Cannedy leaned over and began kissing [redacted] neck. [redacted] tried to push Officer Cannedy away, however he continued hugging her, refusing to let go. Officer Cannedy guided the two of them inside [redacted] apartment, against her will.

Once inside [redacted] apartment, Officer Cannedy continued kissing her neck, then placed one of his hands on her groin area, rubbing back and forth. In a forceful manner,

Lieutenant DeCoulode furnished me with copies of Officer Cannedy's schedule, as memorialized on the San Leandro Police Department scheduling software, Speedshift. The schedule report ranges from 7 July 2003 through 1 January 2006.

This report reflects the following:

Officer Cannedy's schedule in 2003 was the 4/10 Swingshift. This particular shift was Monday through Thursday, from 1400 to 2400 hours. indicated in her statement that Officer Cannedy arrived at her residence approximately 0030 hours, possibly on a Friday morning. This time frame would be consistent with working the above mentioned schedule, taking into consideration that Officer Cannedy would have completed his shift at 2400 hours, thirty minutes prior to arriving at residence.

Officer Cannedy's schedule on 30 May 2005 was the 4/10 Midnight Shift. This particular shift was Monday through Thursday, from 2100 to 0700 hours. During that shift, the schedule report reflects that Officer Cannedy was working Beat 2.

's visit to Eden Hospital, as previously indicated, was on 30 May 2005. 's residence at the time, [REDACTED] was located on Beat 2. indicated in her statement that Officer Cannedy drove up to her and her son, approximately 2330 hours that evening. This time frame and location would be consistent with working the above mentioned schedule and Beat.

Lieutenant DeCoulode also furnished me with copies of Employee History City of San Leandro forms, in regards to Officer Cannedy. These forms cover Officer Cannedy's financial records from 1 January 2002 through 15 August 2006 and itemize his Hours/Units and salary. I made copies of the aforementioned schedule report and financial records and attached them to this investigation. I submitted the originals into San Leandro Police Department Property as evidence.

Approximately 1000 hours, I drove to Eden Medical Center to pick up medical report from 30 May 2005. I brought the report back to the San Leandro Police Department, where I duplicated it for this supplement.

I also printed out the six digital photographs taken by Officer Pickard. The photographs depicted victim [REDACTED], showing the bruise she sustained to her upper left biceps area. Officer Pickard also took photographs of the kitchen area of [REDACTED] apartment (apartment [REDACTED]), which showed the entryway as well as the countertop that separates the kitchen from the living room. Approximately 1545 hours, I drove to [redacted] apartment to pick up a copy of her cellular phone bill. I had previously spoken with [redacted] regarding this document and asked her if she could furnish me with a copy that would include the date of her incident - 12 September 2006.

When I arrived, [redacted] was standing outside of her apartment with the aforementioned bill in her hand. She handed me the paperwork which consisted of eight pages. The first page heading read: Sprint Together with Nextel. The statement date was 27 September 2006 and the billing period was 24 August - 23 September 2006. The account number was [redacted]

While looking through the packet, [redacted] pointed out page five, which detailed call numbers 601 through 615, all of which were made on 12 September 2006. [redacted] told me that call number 614, which indicated was made at 2301 hours, was a call she made to [redacted]. That call lasted approximately thirteen minutes, which would have ended approximately 2314 hours. According to her earlier statement, it was when Officer Cannedy arrived at [redacted] apartment to sign off the fix-it ticket when that call was terminated.

Call number 615, which was made at 2319 hours, was, according to [redacted] the next call she made to [redacted] after Officer Cannedy left her apartment.

In reviewing San Leandro Police Department Detail Call For Service Report # 2228, dated 12 Sept 2006, the following was noted:

In referring back to [REDACTED] cellular phone bill, she pointed out the two calls she made to Officer Cannedy's cellular phone the following morning. Those two calls – numbers 622 and 623 – were made at 0823 and 0905 hours respectively, 13 September 2006. [REDACTED] told me that it was during those two phone calls that she left Officer Cannedy messages, sharing her confusion, anger and fear with what had transpired the previous evening.

I duplicated [REDACTED] cellular phone bill and attached it to this report.

It should be noted that Officer Cannedy had furnished me with his personal cellular phone number a few years prior to this incident. The phone number he furnished me matched the one written on the back of his business card and subsequently given to [REDACTED]. That cellular phone number also matched the two calls [REDACTED] made on 13 September 2006, as mentioned above. The number in question was [REDACTED]

- 1 Q. Oh, yeah.
- 2 A. No, I live there too so, yeah, I was at the party.
- 3 Q. Okay. Um, I know that you've had a, plenty of time to sit down with Officer Pickard and she
- 4 uh, for starters - I want to apologize because everything that she asked you that you two talked
- 5 about, I'm going to have to talk
- 6 A. Yeah.
- 7 Q. You about it again.
- 8 A. That's okay.
- 9 Q. Because she is a Patrol Officer. She takes the initial report and then as a Detective I take
- 10 A. That's fine.
- 11 Q. I do the follow-up questions. Okay?
- 12 A. Uh-huh.
- 13 Q. And that's, let's see, just for the record the case is 06-37694. Let's see, it's uh, Wednesday,
- 14 September the 20th, 2006. It's about 2013 hours. And let's see, you go by [REDACTED]
- 15 A. Uh-huh.
- 16 Q. So I'll call you [REDACTED] during our conversation. And your last name is [REDACTED] is it pronounced
- 17 [REDACTED]
- 18 A. [REDACTED]
- 19 Q. [REDACTED] and that's [REDACTED]
- 20 A. Yeah.
- 21 Q. And it's [REDACTED]
- 22 A. Yeah.
- 23 Q. [REDACTED] do you have a middle name?
- 24 A. [REDACTED]
- 25 Q. How do you spell that?
- 26 A. [REDACTED] I never use it.
- 27 Q. Okay. And what's your date of birth?
- 28 A. [REDACTED]
- 29 Q. [REDACTED]. Okay. And you live at [REDACTED]
- 30 A. Uh-huh.
- 31 Q. What apartment is that?

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]
PAGE 3

- 1 A. You could put, it's [REDACTED] but I'm really at I mean that's who I've been staying at my mom's
2 apartment and that's [REDACTED]?
- 3 Q. Okay.
- 4 A. So, like I was (unintelligible) at my friend's place.
- 5 Q. Okay.
- 6 A. But we have sort of a multi (unintelligible)
- 7 Q. No problem, no problem. That's just for records purposes. Okay. And like I said, you've had a
8 lot of time to talk to Officer Pickard and uh, I'm not trying to re-hash anything or put you
9 through any extra stress; however, it's important that the 3 of us have a change to talk about what 10 has transpired. These are very serious allegations and I hope you understand that the San 11 Leandro Police Department takes these types of allegations very seriously, which is why we're 12 here at 8:15 at night. Right?
- 13 A. Yeah.
- 14 Q. Okay. So before we get into what has transpired over the past 30 days or so, why don't we go 15 into what brought you to the Police Department tonight?
- 16 A. What brought me here? Okay.
- 17 Q. I'm sorry. Well, let me rephrase that question.
- 18 A. (unintelligible)
- 19 Q. How did you come into contact with us tonight?
- 20 A. Okay. When this happened um, I was really not going to tell anybody, whatever I told -
21 obviously I told my friends this - why wouldn't I? And I told, there's this guy I went to, he, he's ^{on my job}
22 a trainer but he's also a priest or like a pastor. Right?
- 23 Q. ~~Yes~~ o.k.
- 24 A. So I came to him, no he came to me. He's like, he worked days off so I end up telling him
25 everything. I started breaking down crying to him and he's like, "This is not right." And he's ^{lik}
26 "You should do something about it." And I was still like, "No." I'm like scared and he was like,
27 "Well, you shouldn't be scared. I'm here for you, and you came to a priest." You know, like, I
28 don't know what what, (unintelligible), I went to a priest or whatever, but anyway, but um, I was 29 still like sort of no about it, but like he kept asking me like, "You need to do something. Are you
30 going to do something?" And I'm like "No, no." And then he's like, "You just need to, [REDACTED]
31 He's like, "You know whatever you told me that going to have to tell somebody else." And I'm 32 like, "Okay." So I know [REDACTED] because of the whole [REDACTED] thing. So I call [REDACTED] and I'm like, "I

- 1 know this has nothing to do with the [REDACTED] thing, I know like but I need your opinion on 2 something."
- 3 Q. And, and who is [REDACTED]
4 A. [REDACTED] the D.A. He's always at the Hayward place.
5 Q. At the D.A.'s Office in Hayward?
6 A. Yeah.
7 Q. Do you, by chance, know [REDACTED] last name?
8 A. [REDACTED] or something?
9 Q. [REDACTED]?
10 A. I, I don't know his last name.
11 Q. That's okay.
12 A. [REDACTED] (unintelligible). I don't know his last name but uh, so I called him and I asked him. I'm 13 like, I told him about it and I was like, "I want to know your opinion. I don't know what to do."
14 So I told him and he goes "Let me call you back." And so he goes had a discussion with the 15 other (unintelligible) D.A. I don't know his name.
16 Q. Okay.
17 A. And then um, and then he called me back and he goes, "Okay. First of all, you, I know why you
18 came to me cuz you know me, but you know like, you may need to report it or something. I
19 don't know what you want to do. If you're trying to report it," and I said, "I don't want it, cuz," I
20 was like "I just don't want him around me." I, and then he's like, "Are you trying to sue him?"
21 Like, "No, I'm not, don't even want a dime like some people." My friend, you know, they're all
22 my age so they're like "Well, you know, you're going to get like millions of dollars over this,"
23 and I'm like, "I don't care. I don't want anything, not even a penny. I want him not to ever
24 really come around me." And then like, [REDACTED] was like, "Okay." And then he gave me, was that
25 you [REDACTED]
26 Q. Uh, no, uh
27 A. Oh,
28 Q. Uh, uh, [REDACTED] used to work the desk that I work right now.
29 A. Okay.
30 Q. He's actually now a, one of the Watch Commanders and he works the weekends.
31 A. I don't know. Well, yeah, he gave me his number
32 Q. Okay.

- 1 A. And told me to call him on Friday at 2:00 o'clock. So then, she came, uh, [REDACTED] came earlier and 2 left a (unintelligible) and then I told her I just I was like "I'm just glad this isn't a, like, it's just
3 another thing, you know." And I'm like, "I'm already dealing with this whole other cop
4 situation," and she's like, "Well, do you want to talk about it?" And I was like, "No, not really."
5 And I was like, "I already talked to somebody," so like I ended up telling her and then she was
6 just like, I ended up telling her and then she, I thought she was like, like, like everybody keeps
7 telling me, "You know cops. You don't really believe in them." Like, whenever so like
- 8 Q. And this is the woman
- 9 A. She goes
- 10 Q. This is the woman that works a [REDACTED] with you? Is that the person, the person you're talking 11 about?
- 12 A. No, no, like everybody, like I told some of my trainers and so just cuz like they were all like 13 seeing like, like they seen me crying over, to my friend, and they're like, "Oh, what happened?"
14 And like, and people keep asking about my bruise too and I'm like, you know. So then um, um,
15 she goes, "Tell me the name." And I was just like, "No, I can't." [REDACTED] told me I can't say no
16 names." And then she was like, um, "Well," she's, "Like between me and you," she's like, "If 17 this really happened I would love to help you." She's like, "That shouldn't happen." Uh, she's 18 like, "You know, you probably think that all cops are bad and probably keep telling me I'm going
19 to go," you know like whatever. And I'm like, I'm like I end up telling her. She was just like "I
20 think," seriously, I'm glad that she took it this seriously cuz seriously after he did that I seriously
21 thought of you guys like you know, which one am I supposed to like really talk to or not talk to 22 cuz there's this other cop that comes into my job and I, I will say "hi" to him too, like I'm not 23 saying "hi" to him either in the morning. He might take it like I want him to like touch me or 24 something, you know. So I end up telling her. I'm so glad that she did take it seriously like you
25 know, I was talking to the priest again and then I told him about it and he's like, "Well, that's 26 good you went to the right one," and I was like, "I found someone who actually, finally you 27 know, but" That's why I'm here.
- 28 Q. Okay. Okay.
- 29 A. That was long.
- 30 Q. And you know what? I was jotting down some notes so I apologize. The friend that you were 31 just talking about, the female friend.
- 32 A. [REDACTED]

RE: CASE NUMBER 06-37694

- 1 Q. [REDACTED] I didn't get her name. So, and if, does [REDACTED] also work at [REDACTED]
- 2 A. Yeah.
- 3 Q. Do you know [REDACTED]'s last name?
- 4 A. [REDACTED]
- 5 Q. [REDACTED]
- 6 A. Uh-huh.
- 7 Q. When did you have this conversation with uh, [REDACTED]?
- 8 A. Right after he left like
- 9 Q. Last week?
- 10 A. The same day it happened. I told her about it and she was like, "You're lying. You're lying."
- 11 I'm like, "No, I'm not." And then she was like, "Are you serious?" And I was like, "I swear to
- 12 you, man,
- 13 Q. This is right after the incident?
- 14 A. Yeah, and then I was just like telling her, I was like how he hugging and grabbing me and stuff
- 15 and she like "You're lying, you know." It's like, "No, I swear." And she ended up finally
- 16 really believing me and then um, well, yeah. I was just like, I was just telling her about it and then I
- 17 had texted my ex-dude with um, all the (unintelligible) and then he called me like at 1:00 in the
- 18 morning. And I was telling him about it but I didn't tell him the same way because I, I was like
- 19 I'm not trying to have him go around and try to find the cop and like I wasn't trying to start a
- 20 whole new thing and so to him I basically sort of told him but I didn't say he came in the house
- 21 anytime, none of that. I didn't even tell him that he touched me cuz I already, cuz and then he
- 22 was like, he was just like, "So why do you keep crying? Why do you keep crying if he didn't do
- 23 anything to you?" And I was like, "It's nothing. All right." You know, "I shouldn't have even
- 24 told you anything." So like I didn't really even tell him what happened just cuz I didn't want to
- 25 start a whole new thing with that.
- 26 Q. Right. Does he know now?
- 27 A. No.
- 28 Q. Okay.
- 29 A. No, he doesn't. But after, you know, like I don't know if you guys asked him that if I, you know,
- 30 texted him and I called. Hopefully he's not mad enough he'll tell you guys.
- 31 Q. What, what's his name - your ex-boyfriend?
- 32 A. [REDACTED]

- 1 Q. How do you spell that?
- 2 A. [REDACTED] and his last name is [REDACTED]
- 3 Q. Okay. So you texted him and then you're able to have a conversation with him? Was that
- 4 A. Like at 1.
- 5 Q. In person or on the phone?
- 6 A. On the phone. When he came home, like at 3, I believe, he was asking me about it again, but I
- 7 was all acting like I was sleepy cuz I didn't really want to bring it up to him.
- 8 Q. Okay.
- 9 A. And ^{then} um, he tad told me that he was stepping outside to go to the gym and he's like "I just seen a
- 10 cop come in here." And he goes, "The cop that was over that, he signed my ticket. Did he look,
- 11 he was" I go, "Is he like a skinny white guy with like little sparkly like going back here,"
- 12 and I was like "Yeah." And he was all like "I'm pretty sure that was him in here." And that
- 13 scared me even more. He said, "What the heck is he doing here?" But people were like "Well,
- 14 you know, officers come in here to patrol." And I'm like, "Well, maybe, you know, but I don't
- 15 know." So,
- 16 Q. Okay. Well, now let's go ahead and go back now to the first, your first encounter with the
- 17 officer. Okay? First of all
- 18 A. First time ever?
- 19 Q. Let, let's get this out on the table. What's the officer's name?
- 20 A. Um, I always call him Gary. I don't know why. Greg. I don't know if it's last name Kennedy,
- 21 Canary, one of them.
- 22 Q. Okay. And the first time you had contact with Officer Cannedy?
- 23 A. Once I, about a month or two ago I was walking to the gym to open it and I opened it, and then
- 24 he came in like right after. Around like 10 or 15 minutes after I opened it. And he goes, uh, he
- 25 was like, "Are you the new girl that opens the gym?" And I was like, "Oh, no, I'm just covering
- 26 for [REDACTED]." And he goes, "Oh, yeah. I know, I met [REDACTED] oo," or whatever and I was like, "Oh,
- 27 yeah. She's the new girl, not me." I was like, "I work here nights" and then he ^{was all like} goes, "Oh, like,
- 28 okay." And then he gave me his card and then he put his number on the back and he said, "Call
- 29 me if anything every happens. If you get, when you open in the morning, you know, cuz I work
- 30 from 7:00 to 6 or 5 or something like." So I was like, "Okay." And then he left. I didn't see him
- 31 for about a month.
- 32 Q. Okay.

1 A. No, I quit. About a month and then me and my little brother and my friend were coming out of
2 K-Mart and I guess something was going on at K-Mart so he was there. And he, and he just said
3 (2) "Hi," to me and I left. And then again, that was the second time and then the third time was um,
4 last week, either Monday or Tuesday night, some lady was going crazy at the gym so we called
5 that non-emergency number and he came. And he like he handled it or whatever, and then I was 6 (3) like "Oh, I have a fix-it ticket. You think you could sign it for me or whatever?" And then he
7 was like, "Oh, yeah." He's like, "Oh, I could do that for you" and then he goes, "Do you still 8 have my card?" And I was like, "Oh, no. I lost it." So he gave me another one and then he said, ^{was all}
9 "Well, call me and let me know." And I was like, "Well, I know . . ." I was like "It's probably 10 going to be like at 5 in the morning" cuz when I come work out." And he said "Well, just call 11 me and let me know." I was like, "Okay." So I'm pretty sure that's like two days after that my 12 (4) friend, I was on the phone with my friend [REDACTED] and I was like around 10:30, 10:40 at night and 13 I was on the phone with her, and he came in. And he was like, that he wanted two more guest
14 passes for um, his cop friend or something that he was trying to get in the gym or something like 15 that. So then he goes, "Um, who are you talking to? Why don't you, you know, get off the 16 phone," cuz she was doing the the thing. She goes, "Oh, it's [REDACTED]" And he goes, "Oh, tell her I
17 said 'hi,'" and then, and then he goes, "Does she still want me to sign her fix-it ticket for her?"
18 And then she was all that, and I was like, "Oh, tell him yeah." And then he was like, "When?"
19 X And I was like "It will probably be around like around 5 in the morning at the gym." And then
20 um and then she then he goes, "Well, I'm not doing it. You know, now she wants me to like stop 21 by." And I mean like I didn't think anything of it so I was like "Oh, that's fine." You know, it's 22 * like I'm not doing anything right now. And then I'm like, "Tell him I'm gong to run to the gate,"
23 because we have like a gate right there. And then um, it went from like ^{telling him} (unintelligible) or 24 whatever to like they, they were just like talking about the whole membership thing while I was 25 still on the phone or whatever. And then my friend told me too cuz that he was asking her like 26 my age and um, oh, and that he was, 'Oh, she's home alone?' Like why is she home alone and 27 then my friend was like (unintelligible) what stays out until 4 in the morning working. So that's 28 why I got even more suspicious that he knew that. (REPEATED) And then um. he was all like "Okay. Tell her
29 that I will be over there," so I was still on the phone with my friend and then um, I thought he 30 was going to take like a minute to get there so like 5 minutes out, well he did take about that
31 long. I go to go outside and then like I see him. You know how you ^{guys have the key} (unintelligible) the little 32 thing at the gate or whatever

1 Q. Uh-huh.
2 A. So I see him right there opening that gate so I'm like, "Okay. Good. I rather that him come in
3 here anyway. I won't have to walk all the way over there." And um, so I, I waived to him cuz I
4 was like right there, and then he came up and then he goes, he goes, "Oh, hey, [REDACTED] And I
5 was like, "Oh, hi." And he's like, "Who you on the phone with?" I'm like, [REDACTED] still." He's 6 like "Damn, you guys talk the whole time?" I'm like "Yeah." And then he goes, "Well, get off
7 the phone so I could um, do your ticket thing," and I was like, "Okay." I gave him the ticket and 8 he's like reading it or something. I don't know. I ran inside and I'm like "All right. I'll be back.
9 I'm going to grab something," and I ran inside. When I'm coming back out he's like in my 10 kitchen and he's like, "Oh, um, here's the ticket. I already signed it for you." I'm like, "Oh, 11 thank you," or whatever. You know, and then I was like, "Okay. I'll see you around." And he 12 goes, "Is that it?" And like his whole attitude changed. And I was like, "Okay." Like I didn't 13 think anything of it then, you know. He goes, "Is that it?" And I'm like, "What do you mean 'is 14 that it?'" And he goes, "Can't I get a hug?" and I'm like "Are you serious?" And then he goes,
15 "Yeah." And I'm like "No." And then like you see how my ex-boyfriend's thing is set up like
16 he goes like right here or whatever, and I was like when I got the ticket and I put it down and I
17 was like knowing I went to like turn around by the door, that's when he grabbed me right here
18 and pulled me towards him. And I was like, "What are you doing?" And he goes, "Oh, you
19 know the first time that I seen you I thought that you were so pretty. That's the only reason why
20 I came into the gym. It's like I don't give my number to um, people in the mornings just you
21 know, whatever." And I was like "Okay." He goes "and then when I seen you again I just think
22 you're so beautiful." Whatever. "And I'm glad you're 21." And I was like, he said, "I thought
23 you were only like 17 years old." And I was like, "Okay." And then he's like, "um," he's all
24 like hugging me and stuff and then he's like, he's like, "Oh, you're making me horny," and, and 25 all these things and then in my head I'm just like he's about to rape me. You know. I'm like oh,
26 my God. And my eyes started getting watery and I was like, just listening to him, you know, and 27 in my head I'm like you know thinking about moving to somewhere. He's about to rape me but 28 won't say so and then like and then uh, I was like um, you know ^{I was like} my friend --- "My friend is 29 about to come over here right now. We're watching a movie." And he said, "Well, why don't 30 you call her and tell her to come back in 20 minutes." I'm like "No." And then he grabbed my 31 hand and he started making me rub his thingy or whatever, and then

- 1 Q: Now, I'm not trying to embarrass you but just so we're clear as to what we're talking about here.
2 when you say he grabbed your hand, and he placed your hand on his "thingy," what are we 3 talking about here?
- 4 A. His penis.
- 5 Q. Okay. And again, I'm not trying to embarrass you
- 6 A. No, I understand. No, I, I
- 7 Q. What, what
- 8 A. I've done this before.
- 9 Q. What you may, what someone may perceive as a "thingy" it could be
- 10 A. Yeah. It could mean anything.
- 11 Q. Absolutely.
- 12 A. Yes.
- 13 Q. And I just want to make sure you, I'm not --- regardless of what kind of questions I ask you, you 14 understand I hope that the two of us are not trying to ask you any questions to embarrass you.
15 We just want to
- 16 A. I know that.
- 17 Q. Get a picture of what has, what transpired.
- 18 A. Okay.
- 19 Q. And so we're all
- 20 A. I'm fine.
- 21 Q. Okay.
- 22 A. I'm fine. So and then in my head the whole time I'm like, "You know, he's going to probably try
23 to rape me." So then, I started acting like "Okay, no. I'll call you. I'll call you. I'll call you but 24 my friend's coming right now." And like from the beginning he had asked me like, "Oh, you, are
25 you alone," and I said, "Yeah, but my friend's coming like in 20 minutes cuz we watch movies
26 all the time." And then um, he was like all right. And then I was just like, "Okay, okay. You
27 know. I'll call you. You need to leave. You need to leave." And he was like, "Well, I ain't 28 leaving without um, getting no kisses," and then he was just like kissing me right here and just 29 like grabbing my butt and I was just like "Oh, my God." And I was just like all shaking and then 30 he goes "Are you nervous?" And I was like "No." And he's like "Are you sure you're not 31 nervous? You don't like me? You're not attracted to me?" And I was like "It's not that," and 32 then uh, he's like "Are you sure you're not attracted to me?" I was like "It's not that." And then

- 1 I was like "You just got to go cuz my brother lives next door and then my friend's sister is about 2 to come," and then he was just like "All right. All right. But you're going to call me, right?"
3 And I was like "Yeah. Yeah. I'll call you." You know and then he was just like "Okay." Well,
4 like if like left or whatever but it was still weird. [I mean I didn't I felt like if I didn't act like I
5 was going to call you, he probably would have sat there. Oh, and he wanted to close my door
6 too. He wanted towards my door to close it and I went to go, and I was like, "Don't close my 7 door," cuz, ^{before} I was like I know everybody here you know like "So don't close my door." And he 8 was just like, "Well call your friend," and that's when he was like "Call your friend. Tell her to 9 come in 20 minutes." And I was like "No." But then I like felt like you know if I didn't sit there
10 and tell him I was going to call you, call you, or whatever and let him grab me that he was just 11 going to like sit there, rape me himself, you know. I was like his tone of voice has changed
12 completely from the 3 times or whatever, 3 times that I seen him and I was just like uh, I don't 13 know. It was it was gross really.
- 14 Q. What I'll do is I'll back up a little bit and just ask you some kind of follow-up questions because 15 I can't ^{will} right as fast as we're talking but I wish I could sometimes.
- 16 A. Yeah.
- 17 Q. It would make things a lot easier. All right. So your first contact, you said roughly with Officer
18 Cannedy, was roughly between a month and two months ago. Sometime in that time frame and 19 about a month goes by without you seeing or hearing from him. ^{when} After the first time when he 20 meets you which is when you're opening up and again stop me if I'm wrong about any 21 of this --- you're opening up [REDACTED] one morning. About what time was that do you think?
- 22 A. 5 in the morning.
- 23 Q. About 5 in the morning. And he drives by. Sees you opening up the [REDACTED] Were you alone at 24 the time
- 25 A. Well, like no. He uh, he just drove, I was already opened.
- 26 Q. Okay.
- 27 A. And he probably came in like 10 or 15 minutes after I opened. I guess he just he said that he 28 came in because he noticed like a new girl and he said that he suppose to give his number when
29 he sees a new girl or whatever. But I mean I don't know. I got to ask the other girls that opens 30 there at 5 but and that's why he said he came in.
- 31 Q. Okay. So he gives you his card the first time you two meet, the first time he meets you.
- 32 A. Uh-huh.

- 1 Q. Does he ask you, that that first time, does he ask you to call him on like on a personal level?
- 2 A. He said, no.
- 3 Q. Or just call me if you need anything?
- 4 A. He said just call me if you need anything.
- 5 Q. Okay. And then the next time you actually see him is when the police were called because of a a
- 6 disturbance inside of [REDACTED]
- 7 A. K-Mart.
- 8 Q. I'm, I'm sorry. Oh, you saw him at K-Mart. I apologize. So
- 9 A. But it was like a, it was like he was pulling up in his cop car at K-Mart and I was coming out and
- 10 I seen him. It was like, "Oh, hey." I called him Gary cuz that's what I thought his name was,
- 11 and then he was like "Oh, hi, [REDACTED] He didn't say my name. He just said "hi." And um, and
- 12 we just left or whatever. My little brother is like "Oh, you know that cop?" And I go
- 13 (unintelligible) (laughter)
- 14 Q. Okay.
- 15 A. And then he goes "Oh, you know that cop?" I was like, "Yeah, he went to the gym once" and
- 16 he's like, I was like, "Yeah, don't be talking to cops." And he said (unintelligible) (laughter)
- 17 Q. Okay. So, and on that second, the second time you had contact with him when he's when you're
- 18 coming out of K-Mart
- 19 A. (unintelligible) ^{said hi to} ~~spend time with~~ him. He just said hi to me right back.
- 20 Q. Okay. You just said hi to each other?
- 21 A. Uh-huh.
- 22 Q. And you were with your 12-year old brother?
- 23 A. And my ~~un~~ [REDACTED]
- 24 Q. Okay. What's your brother's name?
- 25 A. [REDACTED]
- 26 Q. [REDACTED]
- 27 A. I [REDACTED]
- 28 Q. Was anybody else with you at that time?
- 29 A. Just my friend but she was like watching the kids in the front seat and I think I, she seen when I
- 30 said hi to him.
- 31 Q. You're talking about [REDACTED] still?
- 32 A. Yeah.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]
PAGE 13

- 1 Q. Okay.
- 2 A. It was like me and my little brother alone.
- 3 Q. Okay. Did Officer Cannedy ask you for anything on that, that second time you saw him or was
- 4 it just a kind of a hi ...?
- 5 A. Yeah. Just hi kind of thing
- 6 Q. Okay. All right. And when was that, do you think? How long ago do you think that was?
- 7 A. Well, about a month ago~~x~~
- 8 Q. About a month ago?
- 9 A. It was like almost like a month. Everything (unintelligible) cuz I hadn't seen him until that day +
- 10 ~~came home~~ ^{at K-mart} and I was like about a month ago.
- 11 Q. Okay. So this is September 20th so we're talking some time in August?
- 12 A. Yeah.
- 13 Q. Okay. Then the third time
- 14 A. It was like about
- 15 Q. Third time ^{at}
- 16 A. And that was like a week ago.
- 17 Q. Do you by chance remember what day of the week it would have been?
- 18 A. I believe it was Tuesday night. It was whatever that ticket says. She said she was going to try to
- 19 find it. It's the day, the date is on that ticket. It feels like 12, I think that's what he put on the
- 20 thing. You know, so it was Tuesday so I'm thinking, yeah, (unintelligible) and then when I seen
- 21 it to see if he signed it like it, I'm pretty sure it said like 12 on it. So that
- 22 Q. Okay. So it might have been
- 23 A. I know that
- 24 Q. September the 12th.
- 25 A. Yeah.
- 26 Q. I don't have a calendar in front of me so I'm not sure if that's it.
- 27 A. Like Tuesday night at like 11:00 but it,
- 28 Q. Around 11:00 o'clock at night. So you were at [REDACTED] at the time with that, that third time.
- 29 A. I'm like, I'm like thinking about the time that he came to my house. No, the third time it wasn't
- 30 11:00 at night. It was like around probably 10 o'clock at night.
- 31 Q. 10:00 o'clock? Okay.
- 32 A. Yeah.

- 1 Q. Uh, same situation though? Was it at [REDACTED] night though
- 2 A. Uh, yeah. It was at [REDACTED] And it was at (unintelligible). It was probably like that Monday
- 3 night. I'm pretty sure it was like that Monday
- 4 Q. All right.
- 5 A. I'm pretty sure he signed the ticket on the 12th the Monday night I seen him like that at [REDACTED]
- 6 Q. Monday night at [REDACTED].
- 7 A. Uh-huh.
- 8 Q. And uh, so we're still talking about a week, week and two days ago. Probably. So we're talking
- 9 um, I'm not sure if September 11th was a Tuesday or a Monday. Are we talking about September
- 10 11th or September 10th - something like that?
- 11 A. Probably 10th yeah, cuz I believe it was like a Monday.
- 12 Q. Okay. And was that the time, and I'm, I'm sorry for the confusion. Was, during that contact
- 13 when you asked him about the fix-it ticket?
- 14 A. Uh-huh.
- 15 Q. Okay.
- 16 A. And I had, when he was leaving and he dealt with the whole lady thing, and the lady left, he was
- 17 43 all like "oh, man, that lady was rude," or whatever cuz she was all yelling and stuff ~~something~~, calling
- 18 people names. And then uh, he was, oh, yeah, "I have this fix-it ticket. Um, you think you could
- 19 sign it?" He's like "I could do that for you." And he goes "You still have my card?" And I was
- 20 like, "No, I lost it." And then he gave me another one and he's all "Well, call me and let me
- 21 know when you you need to do it," and I was like, "Well, I'll probably be here at 5 in the
- 22 morning." And then uh, he was all like "Okay. Well, just call me and let me know," and then I
- 23 don't think I seen him for like another day or so cuz I never ended up going at 5 in the morning
- 24 that day. I was falling asleep and then it was like I'm pretty sure it was that Tuesday night that
- 25 uh, I seen him again when my friend was on the phone with me and like I told him just okay, you
- 26 know, he could come over to see me to sign the ticket.
- 27 Q. Okay. Do you remember if there was another officer there with him when that disturbance was
- 28 going on?
- 29 A. No, um, when he came in for to, oh, no. When the the lady thing?
- 30 Q. Uh-huh.
- 31 A. No, I think it was just him.
- 32 Q. Just him?

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]
PAGE 15

- 1 A. I believe it was. I mean I didn't talk to him. Yeah, he's the only one that talked to the lady. He 2 was the only one that went up to the lady.
- 3 Q. So you didn't see any other police officers?
- 4 A. No, he told me when I came into the gym and I was like, "Oh, look it, the one that that we seen at 5 K-Mart" and then um, (unintelligible) go yeah, and then up, yeah, I think he was the only one 6 that came in.
- 7 Q. Okay.
- 8 A. Yeah.
- 9 Q. Okay. So you don't see him for about a day.
- 10 A. Uh-huh.
- 11 Q. So, was it like last Wednesday when this whole incident happened?
- 12 A. I, yeah, he signed the ticket - I'm pretty sure it was the 12th that he signed the ticket.
- 13 Q. Okay.
- 14 A. But it was you know, like it had to be.
- 15 Q. So that would have been, that would have been the 4th time, that would have been the 4th time the 16 two of you had met or seen each other?
- 17 A. Uh-huh.
- 18 Q. And at that time he just happens to go into [REDACTED] and he's talking
- 19 A. Yeah, to get ticket.
- 20 Q. Talking to [REDACTED]
- 21 A. He wanted to get some (unintelligible) for his friends.
- 22 Q. Okay.
- 23 A. A membership for his friend who he said he wanted to get his friend. a membership.
- 24 Q. But he was working at the time?
- 25 A. Uh-huh.
- 26 Q. While he's trying to get this membership information, was [REDACTED] already on the phone with you 27 when he walked in or
- 28 A. Yeah, we were on the, we were already on the phone. Yeah.
- 29 Q. Okay. And then at some point the two of them have a conversation and
- 30 A. He said uh "who you talking to on the phone for so long?" and so she said, "Oh, [REDACTED] And 31 then he said, "Oh, tell her I said hi," and then I said "Tell him I said hi." And then he was like
32 ✓ "Oh, does she still need me to sign have that fix-it ticket," and I was like "Oh, yeah." And I was like "Tell him

1 I'll be there at 5 in the morning again," and then uh, he was like, "Well, I'm not doing anything
2 right now if she wants me to pass by and sign it," and I was like "All right. Tell him to just come
3 around and sign it." And then uh, and he was like, my friend was still doing like the whole thing
4 for him right there. And then I know he was still there till my friend closed because I remember
5 she was all like, she went to the back and she was, you know we got to like check everything.
6 Anybody in the bathroom and ^{on her way back} (unintelligible) it's like, "Stop flashing that light on me," because
7 it was flashing those spotlight things you guys have cuz we like turn all the lights off and
8 everything. And then um, he was like, "All right, ^{well} Tell [REDACTED] I'll be there right now." And then I
9 was like "All right. Okay. Fine." And I was like "Tell him I'll run to the gate," and then um, he
10 was like, "All right. Fine." But then ^{like} by the time I was like outside it was like not even 5 minutes
11 or so he was already like opening that little gate thing that ^{key thing} he (unintelligible) and everything. So
12 I was "Good. I would rather him just come over here anyway." So without walking out there so
13 I called him over and I was like waving my hand and he came. ^{So} He came ^{up} over to the to the 14 apartment and he signing the ticket or whatever. He was like reading it or something and I was 15 like, I was like "Okay, ^{All right} I'm going to go the bathroom and then like I just ran in there like right
16 back, I was like right back out and it was like. I guess he must have signed it in my kitchen or 17 something but he was like "Oh, here's your ticket," and I was like "Oh, thank you." And I was 18 like "Oh, I'll see you around," or whatever and I was like by my door type of thing and then like
19 I went to get the ticket from him and then he was all that "well. um. is that it?" And I was like 20 "What do you mean?" He's like "Well, I don't even get a hug out of it" or something like that.
21 And I was like "Are you serious?" and then he was like "Yeah." He was like "You made me
22 come all . . ." I was like, "No, I didn't. You said you were going to sign it. You know." And 23 then he was, and I was, and when I was like walking away that's when he grabbed me or 24 whatever. ~~Or~~ and he's like all hugging me and telling me "I think you're, I thought you were so 25 pretty the first time I seen you" or whatever. I don't know. (unintelligible) It was gross.

26 Q1. Which apartment were you in [REDACTED] Were you in [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

27 A. [REDACTED]

28 Q1. You were in [REDACTED] when this occurred?

29 A. Uh-huh.

30 Q1. Okay. And did he, did he hand you the ticket after he signed it?

31 A. Uh-huh. Uh-huh.

32 Q1. Was, whose car was that fix-it ticket on?

- 1 A. From my ex-boyfriend but his car ^{wasn't} ~~was in~~ there or whatever, cuz he asked me "Is the car here?"
- 2 And I was like "No, he took it," and he was like "Well, is the license plate on it?" And I was like
- 3 "I don't know. He just told me um, cuz he said like" Cuz I guess he didn't have his front
- 4 license thing that's why he got the ticket. And um, I was like "I don't know. He took the car."
- 5 And ^{then} ~~he~~ was like "All right" and ^{still} ~~then~~ he signed it. He still signed it or whatever.
- 6 Q. do you remember what the fix-it ticket was for?
- 7 A. Yeah, cuz the license plate wasn't in front of the car.
- 8 Q. No license plate in the front of the car. Okay.
- 9 A. And he said he needed to have a license plate on the front of it, I think.
- 10 Q. From the time that from the time that you excused yourself to go use the restroom, what, when
- 11 you excused yourself to go use the restroom. Was there any way that he could have thought that
- 12 you were inviting him inside the apartment?
- 13 A. No, I don't think so. I said before I was going to the bathroom real quick so
- 14 Q. Okay. Was, were you standing in the threshold of your apartment at the time when you were
- 15 having the conversation before you went to use the restroom?
- 16 A. Well, yeah, because I gave him the ticket and I was, he was like reading or something and then
- 17 you know I was like right there and then I said "I'll be right back." so I ran into the bathroom. I
- 18 didn't even take
- 19 Q. Did
- 20 A. Like a minute in there.
- 21 Q. Okay. So "I'll be right back. I'm going to use the bathroom." So you turn and walk into your
- 22 apartment. Did you actually shut the door?
- 23 A. No, I left it open.
- 24 Q. Left it open.
- 25 A. Uh-huh. ^{It was} Wide open.
- 26 Q. Just --- how come you left the door open?
- 27 A. I don't know. I mean I didn't think anything of it.
- 28 Q. Just out of courtesy.
- 29 A. I guess. I don't know.
- 30 Q. Okay. And he, he had already signed the ticket?
- 31 A. No
- 32 Q. By that time?

- 1 A. He was looking at it.
- 2 Q. Okay.
- 3 A. I gave it to him and I don't think he signed it. He was ^{like} looking at it.
- 4 Q. Okay. So you go use the restroom. You stay there only for about a minute.
- 5 A. Uh-uh
- 6 Q. By the time you turn to come back out he's actually
- 7 A. By my kitchen.
- 8 Q. By your kitchen or inside your kitchen
- 9 A. Right there in the kitchen because it, I mean it's not like a big old apartment so it's like he's like
- 10 right there in the kitchen already and he handed me the ticket. And I'm "Oh, thank you," and I
- 11 was like "I'll see you around."
- 12 Q. From the threshold of your apartment to the kitchen, how far would you say that is?
- 13 A. Like 4 or 5 inches. Not that far.
- 14 Q. Oh, is your kitchen right as you walk in?
- 15 A. yeah, right, right when you step in it's like right there.
- 16 Q. Okay. So how many steps would he have had to take?
- 17 A. Like one or two.
- 18 Q. Okay. To be inside your
- 19 A. ^{Especially 'cause he's real tall} (unintelligible) like one or two.
- 20 Q. Okay. So he's already, ^{by} the time you came out of the restroom he had already signed the
- 21 ticket.
- 22 A. He had already signed it. Yeah.
- 23 Q. Okay. So the ticket's signed.
- 24 A. And like that, like that, the uh, like he said, like "C" or something and then in the
- 25 Q. Do you remember where the ticket was out of? What office, what agency it was written by?
- 26 A. No, but we, I'm, I'm pretty sure he got this ticket when we were in Oakland like at 3 in the
- 27 morning so if he got it in Oakland, it was like in Oakland? I'm pretty sure it was in Oakland at
- 28 like 3 in the morn, I'm pretty sure that's what that ticket was from.
- 29 Q. So, when you think things are going to be wrapped up initially, and obviously you're thankful for
- 30 the fact that he signed off the ticket, and uh, you're kind of, tell me what it was you said again to
- 31 him just as you were expecting him to leave...
- 32 A. I say, I say

- 1 Q. Leave
- 2 A. I said, "Oh, thank you. I'll see you around," and then he goes, "Well, is that it?" And he's like
- 3 "You have me come over here to sign the ticket and I don't even get a, can I get a hug or
- 4 something?" And I was like "Are you serious?" And he goes like "Yeah," and then um, when I
- 5 was like walking towards my door ^{that's when} he grabbed me towards him and he was like "Um, you know
- 6 since the first time I saw you I thought you, I thought you were so pretty," and I was like "Are
- 7 you kidding me" Like the minute, I don't know, I was like so ^{weird at} (unintelligible) and then I was just
- 8 like "Are you serious?" And ^{he} I was like okay and in my head I'm just like the whole time
- 9 thinking like is this guy serious? And then um, he just starts like grabbing me and stuff and ^{I was} it's
- 10 just like um, I was like "What are you doing?" and he's like "You're just so beautiful. You just
- 11 make me horny." And I, I was like oh, my God. He's about to rape me. So I don't know. It was
- 12 really weird. I mean I'd never, I never thought ^{that} a cop would do that to me really. You know.
- 13 And I like I told um, [REDACTED] (unintelligible), right?
- 14 Q. Uh-huh.
- 15 A. I mean I'll take a lie detector test, anything just cuz everybody keeps telling me "No one's going
- 16 to believe you. No one's going to believe you." So I mean
- 17 Q. Well, no. I mean these are very, these are very serious allegations um, so Officer Pickard was
- 18 only telling you that, making sure that you're aware of the seriousness of all this
- 19 A. Uh-huh.
- 20 Q. And I'm sure you're old enough. You understand
- 21 A. Yeah, and ^{like} I mean like I mean like I have a couple of friends that I told and they're like you know
- 22 "They're not going to believe you. You might as well just call him and like record it." I'm like
- 23 I'm not going to just sit there and like oh, yeah, you know what happened last night, you know, ^{you know}
- 24 but I mean I don't even like, I mean that's another thing - I left him a message that morning like
- 25 cuz I didn't even really sleep that whole night. I left him a message like around 8:00 o'clock in
- 26 the morning and it went straight to voicemail and I, on the voicemail I put like I don't know why
- 27 you did that last night. I didn't like what you did. It was just out of the blue. I'm, I'm like I seen
- 28 you at the gym like once. I seen you, like you know like I never even like talked to you like that.
- 29 For you like I was like what gave you the idea to touch me like that. And I was like if I acted like
- 30 I was going to call you back it was because you scared the shit out of me and I was like I don't
- 31 need you around me. And I was like I just don't want you around me and then like I hung up and
- 32 then I called back because I was, I forgot to tell him too that I didn't, I wasn't going to live there

1 anymore. I don't know it came to my head like right away and I called him and I was like by the
2 way, you scared me so much that I can't even be in my own house by myself so I'm going to be
3 staying with my step dad. And I was like I just please don't ever come around me again and I...
4 oh, and I also said like I'm not telling anybody about this because in my head I'm like he
5 probably thinks I'm ^{telling people} (unintelligible) to try and (unintelligible) and um, I was like just please don't
6 come around me or whatever. So, and then like ^{there's this other} ~~then uh, another~~ officer, I don't know his name
7 but he just like, I just know him, and I sort of brought it up to him and then like he told me how I
8 left him a message and he was like that he thought that was good. He said if he just comes 9 around you again just call the cops because you already told him to get away from you. So that's 10 why like for the longest I didn't want to like say anything about it just cause ^{everything} ~~he told me~~. And 11 then it's like why I already left him a message if he comes around me but then it was really like 12 well disturb the shit and I (unintelligible)

13 Q. Which officer was this?

14 A. It was, he's just like my friend [REDACTED]

15 Q. Uh-huh.

16 A. Her mom's brother, he's an officer for - I want to say like Dublin or something.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. One of them but but he was just like well, we, I, I mean I just had her ask him just like just cause
19 I wanted to know you know, I really didn't care to, cuz she kept telling me like no, like just sue
20 the city blah, blah, blah, blah, blah. And I'm like I'm not suing anybody. And she was just like
21 "No, you need to sue the city. You need to sue this, you need to sue that." And everybody keeps 22 telling me you need to sue this, you need to sue that. You know it's like that's not what I want.
23 What I want is just like for him not to come around me again, you know? But like cuz I know he 24 works from like whatever time to whatever time. I'm usually at work at that time so I really 25 don't care for me to be one day by myself and he comes around me again. You know?

26 Q. Right. This uh, getting back to this officer friend of [REDACTED]

27 A. Uh-huh.

28 Q. You're pretty sure he works for Dublin Police Department?

29 A. I'm guessing he works for Dublin.

30 Q. What, what makes you what makes you think he works for Dublin?

31 A. I think he lives in Dublin but I'm not sure.

32 Q. You're not sure. Okay.

- 1 A. Yeah.
- 2 Q. Okay. Do you know what his name is? You don't know the officer's name? Did you actually
- 3 talk to him in person or did [REDACTED] talk to him for you?
- 4 A. I didn't
- 5 Q. Oh, [REDACTED] mom. I'm sorry. [REDACTED] mom. And his recommendation was to do what?
- 6 A. He, if he comes around you to file a (unintelligible)
- 7 Q. Okay.
- 8 A. And then he said if you really want to if he comes around you you should really really report
- 9 him.
- 10 Q. Uh, you haven't, have you seen Officer Cannedy since the incident last week?
- ✓ 11 A. I seen him pass by the gym once and one of my friends said she seen him pass by the gym like
- 12 (unintelligible mumbling) in front of the gym.
- 13 Q. Drove by the front? Has he stopped in to say hi to you or talk to you at all?
- 14 A. No. I think cause I left him the message ^{that} ~~that~~. I don't know.
- 15 Q. Okay. Does he have a cell phone number for you or a home phone number for you?
- 16 A. No, he doesn't. When I called, ^{if} ~~and~~ went straight to voicemail and I blocked my number.
- 17 Q. Okay.
- 18 A. But then like my friend was saying he's a cop. You know he can get all your information. And
- 19 was like I don't care I left him a message.
- 20 Q. Okay. But as far as you know, you never furnished him with a home phone number or a cell
- 21 phone number?
- 22 A. No.
- 23 Q. Okay.
- 24 A. Never. Really what I just, I just don't him to come around me again. I mean like everybody
- 25 keeps telling me sue him. Do this, do that. And I don't know but I just don't I just don't want it
- 26 to come to the deal ^{key} where I am walking home again and I know he works them hours and like he,
- 27 he like, he was even telling me that he works 7 to 7 like that area where I'm at. I just wanted if
- 28 I'm walking home alone and he comes around me again, you know, that's like the only thing I
- 29 don't want. I mean I no how, no way you're supposed to do it this really, but it's just that's all I,
- 30 I just don't want him around me.
- 31 Q. I understand.
- 32 A. At all.

- 1 Q. I understand. Now let me ask you a question, um, because I've got to ask it - cuz if I don't I
2 would be remiss in my duties --- have you and Officer Greg Cannedy ever had any sort of dating
3 relationship?
- 4 A. No.
- 5 Q. Okay.
- 6 A. Never.
- 7 Q. Is there any way that he could have thought that the two of you would have had any sort of ~~con-~~
8 sort of relationship?
- 9 A. Never. He knew I had a boyfriend so no.
- 10 Q. You understand why I have to ask those questions, right?
- 11 A. Yeah. That's ^{fine} right.
- 12 Q. (~~unintelligible~~) I'll explain it to you in a sec.
- 13 Q1. And all of those occurrences occurred while he was on duty?
- 14 A. Yeah.
- 15 Q1. He was in his police uniform?
- 16 A. Yeah. He, he was turning up this, those little TV's you guys wear right here
- 17 Q1. Uh-huh.
- 18 A. He was, when he was talking to me and stuff, he was like um, he was turning it and I don't know 19 it kept making these weird like somebody was trying to talk on it or something, but he kept 20 turning it or something. I don't know.
- 21 Q1. Okay. And, but did you ever meet him or see him
- 22 A. Before
- 23 Q1. When he was out of uniform?
- 24 A. No. Not once.
- 25 Q. Okay. And as far as, as far as you can recall, and I know it's tough
- 26 A. Uh-uh
- 27 Q. The four different contacts that we talked about tonight, are the only 4 times that the two of you 28 had any sort of contact
- 29 A. Uh-huh.
- 30 Q. Okay. All right. And again, just to just to go over this again. I'm looking at a bruise on your 31 upper left biceps area, right near your shoulder that's about an inch, maybe inch and a half in 32 diameter, um, and you're saying that that bruise was caused by when

- 1 A. Yeah, cuz he was like, he pulled me towards him and he kept, he was grabbing on my arms.
- 2 Q. Okay. So if he pulled you towards him were you turning to your right which would be
- 3 clockwise and then he pulled you back towards him?
- 4 A. See like if you go into my kitchen, yeah, he was like standing looking more towards my little
- 5 window thingy instead of back and I was pretty much facing my door type of thing too. I'm like,
- 6 what the heck, you know, and then um when I went to walk more to my door then he just like
- 7 grabbed me right here because we were both turning this way. Yeah. And my door's like right
- 8 here.
- 9 Q. So when he
- 10 A. Well, was right here.
- 11 Q. He, when he pulled you towards him did you spin back around in that direction?
- 12 A. Yeah. He just he just pulled me towards him and so like telling me stuff and I was like "Are you
- 13 serious?"
- 14 Q. Okay. Now you and I, we had a chance to talk about the dialog already and then you went over
- 15 some of the stuff that he did physically. You said that at some point he grabbed your buttocks
- 16 with his hands. Okay. You said he kissed your cheek and your neck. What else, how else did
- 17 he touch you? Besides the arm, the buttocks
- 18 A. I was like, that was basically it. He just kept like grabbing on my butt and like kissing me right
- 19 here and he kept telling me to kiss him in mouth and I was like, "No, I can't do that. I can't do
- 20 that." And then he was like, and he was like asking me if I was scared and then that's when he
- 21 goes "Are you really not attracted to me or what it is?" You know and I was like "No, it's not
- 22 that. It's not that." And uh, he goes it's like, I don't know, he had a big old ^{hands} (unintelligible).
- 23 He's just a big old (unintelligible) I don't know. It's just all weird. -
- 24 Q. Okay.
- 25 A. To me. I don't know. Seriously, it's weird.
- 26 Q. Okay.
- 27 A. It's like I don't know.
- 28 Q. Um, you also made the comment besides him touching you on your buttocks, grabbing your arm,
- 29 kissing you, he, he actually grabbed your hand
- 30 A. (unintelligible)
- 31 Q. Was it your right hand?
- 32 A. Yeah, he grabbed my hand.

- 1 Q. Grabbed your right hand and
2 A. I don't remember what hand it was
3 Q. Okay. I think it was
4 A. But he did grab my hand, this hand
5 Q. Was this while he was kissing you or was it
6 A. Yeah, he grabbed my hand he started um, having me rub his his penis.
7 Q. Okay. So it, was that did he do anything to expose himself or was this over his clothing?
8 A. Yeah, over his clothing.
9 Q. Okay. Did he ever at any point in time during this incident, disrobe at all? Take off any of his 10 clothing, his uniform? Okay. Did he ever force you to take off any of your clothing?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Okay. So the touching that we're talking about was over the clothing?
13 A. Uh-huh.
14 Q. Okay. All right. When he grabbed your hand and, and had it placed it on, had you place it on 15 his penis, about how long of a time went by that that happened? Was it just 16 A. I
17 Q. Just like an instant?
18 A. It was like 5 seconds I would think cuz he was like "You're making me horny" and stuff and he 19 like put his hand and he had me rub it and I was like "Okay, okay." And I just, the whole time I
20 kept going I was like "My friend's coming over. My friend's coming over. My friend's coming
21 right now. We watch movies at this time." Well, the time when he, that's when he was like
22 "Well, call her and tell her to come in 20 minutes." And I was like, "No, she's coming right
23 now." And I was like, yeah "Okay. Okay. I'll call you. I'll call you." You know, "She's like . . ."
24 and he kept going on with, I don't, I don't, if I don't find him attractive and I was like "No, it's 25 not that." I was like "I'll call you. I'll call you. I got your number. I'll call you." And then 26 finally he was just like "Fine. Well, you're going to call me you know," and it's like, "yeah, I'll 27 call you. I'll call you." And he's all like, "Yeah, well, just meet up one of these days." And he's 28 like "You're always home alone until 4 now?" "Well, it's like most of the time so I'll call you,"
29 and then he just like left. You know. And then I went "Oh, my gosh." You know, like what the 30 heck this happened. I called [REDACTED] and I told her and she was like "you're lying right? You're 31 lying." I was like "I swear to you I'm not lying," and she was like "You're kidding me. He ~~was~~ 32 ~~not being~~ like that," and I was like "I swear to you," and like she finally ended up like believing does not seem

- 1 me on my word ^{or whatever when I tell her that} ~~would I lie to her~~. You know, call her and tell her that. And then like it was just 2 weird. And it was like weird.
- 3 Q. And that was about, you said it was about 4:00 o'clock in the morning when you called [REDACTED]
4 A. Uh.
5 Q. Oh, I'm sorry. I misunderstood you.
6 A. Like right, right when he left it was like 11:20, 11:30. ✓
7 Q. Okay.
8 A. So it was like
9 Q. Was she still at [REDACTED]
10 A. No, she was walking, no . . . she was either, she was at Pac N Save, or walking from Pac N Save,
11 Q. So you called her cell phone.
12 A. Uh-huh.
13 Q. Okay. Where does [REDACTED] live?
14 A. Uh, apartment [REDACTED].
15 Q. Oh, I'm sorry. Okay. So she lives in the same complex. Okay. I got you.
16 A. Yeah. Yeah.
17 Q. Okay. All right. Let me see what I got. I've got [REDACTED] information. [REDACTED] She 18 works at [REDACTED] and she works, ^{I'm sorry,} she lives in apartment [REDACTED]
19 A. Uh-huh.
20 Q. And your friend or the uh, the gentleman who's a pastor or a priest,
21 A. His name is [REDACTED]
22 Q. Do you know what [REDACTED] last name is?
23 A. (unintelligible) Um, it's [REDACTED]
24 Q. And he's a trainer actually at [REDACTED] as well?
25 A. Uh-huh.
26 Q. Do you know where [REDACTED] lives?
27 A. No.
28 Q. Okay. And then we have is [REDACTED] is [REDACTED] our friend? The DA?
29 A. Why I just know him just cuz of the whole [REDACTED] thing like I don't know him outside of this.
30 Q. Okay.
31 A. Just all from me always calling him about that like when's the court date
32 Q. I got you. So you've had contact with him professionally.

- 1 A. Uh-huh.
- 2 Q. Okay. So you called [REDACTED] just to kind of run it past him?
he just always seemed so nice
- 3 A. Yeah, just to see I just, just to speak to (unintelligible) and I just call him to just, I told him I'm
- 4 like I called him last night - "I just want your opinion."
- 5 Q. Sure.
- 6 A. And like I told him about it,
- 7 Q. You believe his last name is [REDACTED] or something like that?
- 8 A. Yeah, I think so. He gave me um, he gave that other Sergeant on Friday, and he just told me that
- 9 if I couldn't get a hold of him to call him again.
- 10 Q. Okay. All right. So we've got [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] . . . I got your, and your boyfriend's, your
- 11 ex-boyfriend still doesn't know all the details about this?
- 12 A. No, I never like I basically lied to him about half of it just cuz I know
- 13 Q. You don't want to start any big drama?
- 14 A. Yeah, I didn't, but I know he knew something because he kept asking me why you crying and
- 15 then I (unintelligible) about crying. But I don't know, I was saying "Never mind. Never mind."
- 16 And I was like
- 17 Q. And the, that night, oh, I'm sorry. The time when your ex-boyfriend, he actually came over cuz
- 18 you had called him
- 19 A. No, he was not over.
- 20 Q. Okay. So did, he, he had asked you about why you were crying? Was he with you at the time or
- 21 was he on the phone with you?
- 22 A. He was on the phone.
- 23 Q. Okay. Did he ever come over that night?
- 24 A. Not till like 3 in the morning when he came back from work and he was like, he woke me up and
- 25 he was like asking about, ^{it} and I didn't want to tell him about it at work cuz like I was telling
- 26 [REDACTED] all this time.
- 27 Q. Right.
- 28 A. And I couldn't stand him to be all mad anyways and like I was like I don't feel like dealing with
- 29 him anyway.
- 30 Q. Okay. So, he, he's never been told the whole truth then?
- 31 A. No.
- 32 Q. All right.

- 1 A. But he just knows that I called him and I (unintelligible) like quit calling me it's important. Like 2 right like at 11 also.
- 3 Q. Okay.
- 4 A. But he didn't call me back until like 12 or 1.
- 5 Q. Okay.
- 6 A. He cares. He calls me two hours later. Oh, heck. But
- 7 Q. What I'll do once we're all done is I'll give you my business card, okay? And it'll have my desk
8 number and all that stuff so you can get in touch with me as well. Do you have anymore
9 questions for me right now?
- 10 A. No, other than like I mean I don't want this to be like a big old, big old thing that's just really 11 going on around me. You know? I just, like at all times. Um, like I seriously didn't want it to 12 get this far but everybody's always like what if this happens to somebody else? What if 13 somebody's like not as smart as you and they just, like, you know, he just rapes them or 14 something and they're too scared to say anything and I'm like, "That's true. That's true. That's 15 true." But I just really just don't want him around me. You know, cause like people be telling 16 me press charges cuz if you don't it's just going to, that's all your (unintelligible) and you told 17 them for nothing. Like they can't do anything if you don't press charges but I I don't want to like 18 be, I don't, I'm like I don't know what to do.
- 19 Q. Okay.
- 20 A. Know. It's all weird. It's just weird you know. I never had no guy just like, I go to bars every 21 weekend, you know, don't have guys touch ~~say to me~~ like they're like drunk, but I don't know.
- 22 Q. All right. Anything else as far as questions go, and if you think of something later, you can 23 always call me.
- 24 A. Okay.
- 25 Q. Okay.
- 26 A. Uh-huh.
- 27 Q. All right. Can you think of anything else?
- 28 Q1. Uh-uh. (negative)
- 29 Q. Okay. And we will be right back. Okay.
- 30 A. Is there a bathroom?
- 31 Q. Absolutely.
- 32 A. Okay. Can I

Q: Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta

Q1

A: [REDACTED]

Q. Okay. Today's date is Monday the 25th of September, 2006. The time is now 17:37 hours. This is Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta. This is in regards to case 06-37694. I am at [REDACTED]. I am in one of the offices and also present is Lieutenant Marc DeCoulode and we are speaking with [REDACTED] a. Once again, this is a follow-up, [REDACTED] in regards to the statement that Sgt. Spirou and I already took from you. And we were trying to clarify a couple details in regards to your state of mind uh, the other night when the officer, Officer Greg, when he was inside of your kitchen, you had made the comment that when he was kissing your neck and uh, he had, he was holding onto you, that at some point, you told me that you felt like that you weren't free to leave and you didn't feel like he was going to be leaving. Is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Uh, basically, were you in fear for your safety at that point?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay.

A. Exactly also the part ~~was~~ (unintelligible) when he said that you know, "Give me your phone number and leave."

1 Q. Okay. I don't remember that.

2 A. When I (unintelligible)

3 Q. Okay. I did remember, he, you, him asking you "Is that all?" or, or "is that all I get?"

4 A. Uh, he said that you know, "Give me a hug. I'm not leaving until (unintelligible)" and I was just 5 telling him about uh, "I'll call you," and stuff like that.

6 Q. Okay. So my question to you would be this, after seeing the inside of those apartments now,
7 from the front door until to you get around the inside of the kitchen, you said that that the two of 8 you were near the sink?

9 A. Uh-huh.

10 Q. ^{that's} Probably maybe 5 or 6 feet inside the apartment making that corner. The door was open at the 11 time. Is that correct?

12 A. ^{yes} ~~Yeah~~, it was.

13 Q. And it was just the two of you inside the apartment?

14 A. Yes, it was.

15 Q. Okay. If you felt in fear for your safety, and you felt that he wasn't going to leave and not let 16 you leave, why didn't you either scream for help or try and push him out of the apartment?

17 A. Because he caught me off-guard. I don't, out of the blue, I don't know. Yeah.

18 Q. Okay. So his actions scared you at that point?

✓ 19 A. Yes, he did.

20 Q. Okay. If you had had more time to prepare for that type of situation, do you think you would 21 have handled it, any, any differently?

22 A. Who me?

23 Q. Yes.

24 A. Yeah, I would have probably got out of the house or something. I don't know. Either that or the 25 person was right there, but I mean, whatever I, out of, out of the blue, I don't know.

26 Q. Okay.

27 A. Like my friend, you know, had told me, she said, "Why didn't you just call me? I'm right there."
28 And I was like, "I don't know. I didn't even have my phone next to me." Somehow I find my 29 phone charging where it is right now too so, um, out of the blue.

30 Q. Okay.

31 Q1. You had made the statement with, that you felt that you might be raped or were going to be 32 raped.

- 1 A. Yes, sir.
- 2 Q1. Do you, can you explain why you felt
- 3 A. Felt that way? Because the way he was grabbing me and kissing me and I mean you don't just
- 4 hug and kiss somebody like that you've just seen 3 or 4 times in your life. Like I said, I've
- 5 known guys for a year that wouldn't have touched me like that. ^{You know like} (unintelligible) Unless they ask
- 6 me or something but other than that, I don't, I mean seen Greg for what? 3, 4 times ever and he's
- 7 ✓ going to sit there and try to think that he could grab and kiss me because he's a cop.
- 8 Q1. Can you describe how that was just so we know what you're
- 9 A. He was grabbing me on my butt. He kept squeezing me and he was like kissing, you know, like
- 10 ✓ my neck and stuff so I don't know. It was, it was uncalled for. It was. It wasn't right.
- 11 Q1. Was there anything else that you can think of that
- 12 A. Oh, and he put my hand on his um, penis. (unintelligible) where he put my hand he rubbed it.
- 13 ✓ He had me rub it on his penis and his penis was hard. (unintelligible) I don't know. It was
- 14 (unintelligible) I don't know.
- 15 Q1. And that's why you formed the opinion that
- 16 A. Yeah. I mean
- 17 Q1. Something
- 18 A. You know,
- 19 Q1. Something good is not going to happen here.
- 20 A. Honestly, it's not going to ^{be every day that you} (unintelligible) have some guy come up to you, or a cop really, come
- 21 up to you and have his hands down your butt and have you touch his penis cuz, I don't know. I
- 22 mean that, there's, I gave him no reason for him to do that and like ^{came on to him} (unintelligible) for him ever,
- 23 seeing him here and that's the first time I was, you know, just like ^{just me and} (unintelligible) him so
- 24 Q1. When, when he was doing that did he say anything to you? Do you recall specifically?
- 25 A. He was just telling me that he thought I was really pretty and he said I was like, it was like "You
- ✓ 26 look pretty." One of those time (unintelligible) and then all this time I was really pretty and then
- 27 when he put his hand on his penis he was all telling me how everything was hard so that's like all
- 28 he really kept telling me. He wasn't like telling me like anything other than that.
- 29 Q. If you had the same type of encounter with another guy, somebody that you knew just as briefly
- 30 as Greg, but he wasn't a police officer.
- 31 A. Uh-huh.
- 32 Q. Would you have treated that situation any differently?

- 1 A. No, not if I didn't ^{like the guy} (unintelligible), I probably would have called the cops on him.
- 2 Q. Oh, but I mean your reaction that night, you're both in the kitchen. He's doing the exact same
- 3 thing to you but he's not a uniformed police officer, would that have made a difference?
- 4 A. No, not at all. I don't have ^{guys} (unintelligible) touching me every day like that. I mean, if he pulled
- 5 (unintelligible) and touched me like that I'd probably
- 6 Q. But I mean you understand how, I don't think you understand my question. Would you have
- 7 reacted - in other words would you have tried to leave the apartment or scream for help if this
- 8 was somebody that wasn't a police officer?
- 9 A. Yea, I probably would have (unintelligible) him. I would have (unintelligible). But I only seen
- 10 him like 3 or 4 times before?
- 11 Q. Right
- 12 A. Yeah. Yeah. I would have.
- 13 Q1. And think back just a little bit. We want to make sure that we remember um, if he said anything
- 14 else while he was grabbing you and touching you, if you remember. Anything else that he might
- 15 have said that you haven't told us today?
- 16 A. No, not really. I don't remember right now. No. All I remember him saying that I was pretty
- ✓ 17 and stuff and that, I was ^{he was horny or whatever} (unintelligible) ~~at work~~ but other than that he was, he kept telling me.
- 18 He kept going on, "Oh, you're so pretty, and you must be Mexican. I thought you were real
- 19 pretty."
- 20 Q. Okay. And just before I turned the tape recorder on I ^{showed} ~~told~~ you a group of photographs and I read
- 21 you the photo lineup admonition. And when I showed you the group of photographs, uh, you
- 22 pointed to one of the photographs. Is that correct?
- 23 A. Yeah.
- 24 Q. And which photograph was that?
- 25 A. Four
- 26 Q. Number 4. What, the person depicted in photograph #4 the same person that basically attacked
- 27 in your kitchen last week?
- 28 A. It looks just like him.
- 29 Q. Okay.
- 30 A. Is it?
- 31 Q. We'll talk about that later. Um, do you have any other questions for me, though?
- 32 A. No.

- 1 Q. And, and you
- 2 A. How would I, I mean, like he never asked me (unintelligible) so like when I was telling you guys
- 3 is that like (unintelligible)
- 4 Q. No, it's not that. It's that any time we interview somebody, because we're human beings, we
- 5 sometimes miss asking questions and ^{then} remember how I asked you if I ever needed to come back
- 6 and talk to you, would that be okay? And you said "Yeah, that would be fine." This is one of
- 7 those times I might have to come back and ^{try and} clarify something. That's all we doing. It's not,
- 8 we're not saying we believe or don't believe you. We're just saying that we want to clarify some
- 9 of your statements from earlier.
- 10 A. Okay.
- 11 Q. Okay? Okay. The time is now 1745 hours. That will conclude my interview with

Transcribed by: Debbie Lillard #1007

Transcription date: September 22, 2006

Q: Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta

A: [REDACTED]

Q. Okay. Today's date is ^{Thursday} September 21, 2006. It's about 11:00 o'clock in the morning. This is uh, Sergeant Rick DeCosta. This is in regards to case 06-37694. I am speaking with [REDACTED]. Her date of birth is [REDACTED] and we are in the parking lot of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] you understand that I'm tape recording our conversation?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. And you don't have a problem with that?

A. No problem.

Q. Okay. I spoke with you for a few minutes before I turned the tape recorder on and I wanted to establish some of the details in regards to what led up to this incident. And let's first go into your relationship with [REDACTED] and what uh

A. We are friends. Um, I met her at work and she used to live in the back of the apartments. We've been friends - it's been over a year but I met her through working. We just became really good friends.

Q. Okay. And when you say work, you're talking about [REDACTED]?

A. At [REDACTED] yeah.

- 1 Q. Okay. And this whole incident surrounds a contact that [REDACTED] had with, and by the way we're
2 speaking of [REDACTED]
- 3 A. Yes.
- 4 Q. And uh, [REDACTED] had contact with a San Leandro Police Officer. Do you know what this Police
5 Officer's name is?
- 6 A. Greg, I don't remember his last name.
- 7 Q. Okay. And how would you describe Greg physically?
- 8 A. Physically ^{he's} tall, um, Caucasian, I guess. He had his hair combed back um, he had a tattoo on his 9 arm. I don't remember which arm. I remember seeing a tattoo. Um, I don't know. He seemed 10 really friendly and goofy like I don't know - when we first met him, but
- 11 Q. Okay. And how did you know that he was a San Leandro Police Officer?
- 12 A. Because I met him when he was on duty.
- 13 Q. Okay. So he was wearing a police uniform?
- 14 A. Yeah.
- 15 Q. When you had conversation with Greg, did he ever give you a business card to identify himself?
- 16 A. No, never.
- 17 Q. He didn't. Okay. Uh, did you ever see anything identifiable on him like uh, either a nametag or 18 a badge number? Anything like that?
- 19 A. I seen badges on him. I never really stared at them and that.
- 20 Q. ^{okay} So you didn't see like what number was on there or what?
- 21 A. No.
- 22 Q. Okay. All right. So you said he had a tattoo on on one of his arms - you can't remember which 23 arm?
- 24 A. Yeah, I don't remember which arm. I remember seeing the tattoo on his arm.
- 25 Q. So I'm assuming then that he was, was he wearing a long-sleeved shirt or short
- 26 A. Short.
- 27 Q. Sleeved. Short-sleeved shirt? Okay.
- 28 A. Yeah.
- 29 Q. Okay. Was it down his forearm area or was that by his biceps area?
- ✓ 30 A. No, like by his biceps area. I don't think, I don't think it went all the way down but it went down
31 past his ^{sleeve} ~~sleeve~~ or I wouldn't had seen it.
- 32 Q. Okay. And when's the first time you met this officer, Greg?

- ✓ 1 A. Um, probably at least a couple of months ago.
- 2 Q. Okay. And what were the circumstances surrounding that meeting?
- 3 A. Um, I went to go open the gym, [REDACTED] at about 4:45, 4:50 in the morning. ^{Um,} ~~For~~ on a weekday, I
- 4 don't remember the day. And he had pulled up as I was opening the door. He asked me uh,
- 5 where [REDACTED] ^{that's who} was ~~cuz she~~ normally opens the gym. He told me that he patrols the area. That he
- 6 knows [REDACTED] He also told me he knew [REDACTED] and that um, he goes by every morning just to
- 7 make sure that everything was fine and safe around there because ^{he knows} ~~you know~~, that it's always a
- 8 female opening alone. And that's how I met him.
- 9 Q. Okay. And since that time, how many contacts would you say you've had with this officer?
- 10 A. I've only seen him around, I like had seen him around there like one other time that I can
- 11 remember besides like in-between all this happening and the first time I met him.
- 12 Q. Okay.
- 13 A. Yeah.
- 14 Q. All right. And let's let's forward now to last week
- 15 A. Uh-huh.
- 16 Q. You had told me before I had started the tape recorder that uh, there was an incident at [REDACTED]
- 17 A. Yeah.
- 18 Q. Where a customer was causing a disturbance.
- 19 A. Uh-huh.
- 20 Q. Do you remember about what time of the day or night that was?
- ✓ 21 A. It was uh, I, I want to say somewhere, somewhere between 9 and 10:00 p.m.
- 22 Q. Do you remember what day of the week it was?
- 23 A. I don't.
- 24 Q. Okay.
- 25 A. If, it, no, I don't know.
- 26 Q. Okay.
- ✓ 27 A. Had to be Monday, ^{Tuesday or} ~~through~~ Wednesday cuz I don't work Thursday or Friday nights.
- 28 Q. Okay. Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.
- 29 A. Yeah. Sorry. That's all I remember.
- 30 Q. That's okay. That's all right. And what were the circumstances surrounding that disturbance like
- 31 what happened? Who, who showed up to the call?
- 32 A. Officer Greg -- I don't know his last name -- but he's the officer that showed up. He was alone.

- 1 Q. Okay. And how long was he there ^{at} ~~about~~ [REDACTED]?
- 2 A. Probably about 15 minutes.
- 3 Q. Did he take care of the situation?
- 4 A. Yeah.
- 5 Q. Did he stay there after the situation was handled?
- 6 A. Only for a few minutes.
- 7 Q. Okay. And what happened during that time?
- 8 A. After?
- 9 Q. Yeah.
- 10 A. Um, he was talking to us. He was telling us what the mem, member was telling him and he just
- 11 ✓ told us to call him if we needed anything. He gave [REDACTED] his cell phone number and um, she was
- 12 asking him if he could sign the ticket for her.
- 13 Q. ~~Uh-huh.~~ Okay
- 14 A. And he said that he would and that was pretty much it. I was busy helping other customers so
- 15 they talked. I don't know the whole conversation. I could hear her ask him about the ticket and I
- 16 ✓ remember him giving her his cell phone number.
- 17 Q. Okay. So he leaves. Did you see him at all the rest of that night?
- 18 A. That night? No.
- 19 Q. Okay. And now, when is the next time you see this officer, Greg?
- 20 A. The next day.
- 21 Q. Okay.
- 22 A. So that first day probably had to be a Monday or a Tuesday.
- 23 Q. Okay.
- 24 A. Cuz I seen him the day after and I was at work.
- 25 Q. All right. So we're talking either a Tuesday or Wednesday then?
- 26 A. Uh,
- 27 Q. The next day.
- 28 A. Yeah.
- 29 Q. Okay. And what happens, what are the circumstances surrounding that uh, meeting?
- 30 ✓ A. Well, he came in and uh, he asked if everything was fine around there. I told him that is was. He
- 31 asked if that lady had came back. I told him no, and um, I was on my phone talking to [REDACTED] at
- 32 the time.

- 1 Q. Okay
- 2 A. And then um, he asked me who I was on the phone with. I told him and he asked me like to 3 confirm it was the right person - "Was it the little girl with the piercing ^{right here} (unintelligible)?" And
4 uh, I told him that it was and then she had me ask him was he still going to sign the ticket or he
5 asked something about the ticket. I don't ^{remember} know how it came up. I don't remember who brought ✓ 6 ✓ the ticket up but the ticket came up. And he said that he would still do it. Um,
- 7 Q. And this whole time basically what is happening is you are facilitating their conversation?
- 8 A. Yes. Back and forth.
- 9 Q. Right. So he ^{would} ask you a question; you would ask [REDACTED]
- 10 A. Uh-huh.
- 11 Q. She would give you an answer; then you would tell
- 12 A. Yeah. I don't remember who brought up
- 13 Q. The Officer.
- 14 A. The ticket but the whole conversation was, it started with having a ticket signed and that he 15 would do it, and um, this had to be like --- oh, and then he, the other thing he was there asking
16 me is that he had a new officer that he was going to be working with and he wanted to get him in 17 better shape and can I put him on a pass? And I told him that I could put him on a pass and um,
✓ 18 ✓ that officer had came by the gym also. He gave me his information. I put him in the computer
✓ 19 ✓ on a pass. The officer ended up leaving but Greg was still there.
- 20 Q. Okay. And this is [REDACTED] you said earlier?
- 21 A. Yeah. Uh-huh.
- 22 Q. Okay. So but [REDACTED] wasn't there during the conversation you had
- 23 A. No.
- 24 Q. Okay. Okay. So you mentioned that either this officer -- [REDACTED] -- or [REDACTED] brought up the topic 25 of the fix-it ticket?
- 26 A. Uh-huh.
- 27 Q. I guess. All right.
- 28 A. Yeah.
- 29 Q. So I'm assuming from what you and I had discussed earlier that they had come to some sort of 30 agreement that he would come over here to the apartment complex?

- 1 A. Yeah. And he asked me where was she at or where did she stay or something and I told him the 2 old [REDACTED] it's right around the corner right there. And he said, "Yeah, I know exactly where 3 that's at."
4 Q. Okay. So this, did this Officer Greg, did he did you tell him that the two of you were living, oh,
5 you weren't living
6 A. She wasn't living with me yet.
7 Q. Together. She was still living in apartment [REDACTED]
8 A. Yeah.
9 Q. Okay. So you told this officer that [REDACTED] lives at [REDACTED], [REDACTED]
10 A. Well, this, she told me to tell him that she'll run out to the front and meet him, that she would go 11 out there right then.
12 Q. Oh, okay.
13 A. And he said um, he had, he said "No, I have a key. I can get in the gate. I'll just pull in there."
14 Q. All right.
15 A. He said, "What apartment number is it?" And um, I asked her cuz I didn't know. I just knew it
16 was back there. So she told me the apartment [REDACTED] something.
17 Q. Right.
18 A. I don't know the number, but um, cuz she had told me he said okay that he'll pull up over there.
19 Q. Okay. So
20 A. But in the meantime before he left and before that he was asking questions about her.
21 Q. And what kind of questions was he asking and this is Officer, this is Officer Greg?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Okay.
24 A. He was asking me, he asked me how old she was and then I told him that she was 21 and he said
25 he thought she was only 17. And then um, he told me that that's, that, that was good that she was 26 21, and um, he asked who did she live with? And I said her boyfriend cuz at the time she was 27 living with him. And um, he asked where he was and um, I told him that he works nights, and 28 then he was, he said "Perfect." I'm thinking like I don't know that he's just joking around or 29 something. I'm not, I was like okay. [REDACTED] was on the phone with me the whole time while he's 30 asking these questions also.
31 Q. Okay. And then, you and, did she hear him asking the questions?
32 A. Oh, I'm not sure.

- 1 Q. Okay.
- 2 A. And um, I know she heard me like answering him.
- 3 Q. She ever ask you if he was, what kind of questions he was asking?
- 4 A. Well, she heard me answering him and then she's just like ^{asking me} what was he saying but then like I'm
- 5 in the middle
- 6 Q. Okay.
- 7 A. Of hearing her say "What is he saying?"
- 8 Q. Right.
- 9 A. And I'm just like talking to him.
- 10 Q. I guess my question is, and I guess my question would be for you is did [REDACTED] sound like she was
- 11 concerned about the fact that he was asking all these questions?
- 12 A. Well, she was, she questioned like "What is, what is he asking you?" or you know
- 13 Q. Okay.
- 14 A. So, I don't know. I mean like I said he seemed like a friendly guy. I wasn't thinking what, really
- 15 much of anything.
- 16 Q. Okay.
- ✓ 17 A. But I'm thinking he's a cop so
- 18 Q. Okay. So one of the things you had told him was that [REDACTED] lives with her boyfriend; that he
- 19 works late at night.
- 20 A. Yeah. Cuz he had asked me who she stays with
- 21 Q. Right.
- 22 A. And he goes, "Oh, her boyfriend?" He asked if he was home and then that's when I was like,
- ✓ 23 "Oh, no. He works nights."
- 24 Q. And he said what? How did he respond to that?
- ✓ 25 A. Oh, then he was like, "Oh, that's perfect," or good or in some type of way like that.
- 26 Q. Okay. All right. So once they set up their agreement that he come over here and sign off his
- 27 ticket, does he leave [REDACTED] right away or does he stay and talk to you for a while?
- 28 A. No, after like he was like, "Okay. I'm, I'll go there right now," cuz he was asking questions in-
- 29 between them and he was like, and that's when he was like, "Oh, what apartment number?"
- 30 That, that's when cuz at first he was just saying she'll just meet him outside, ^{outside of} at the gate,
- 31 stay here. He's like "No, I have a key. I'll drive in there," and then like after that um, I was
- 32 locking the gym up at 11:00 o'clock so he was um, he had got, he came out, went outside also;

- 1 got in his car which was parked right in front of the gym. I locked the door and I walked next
2 ✓ door to Pac N Save. I was still on the phone like with [REDACTED] the whole time and then um, he said,
3 ✓ "Oh, tell her I'll be over there right now." So it was like right right after 11:00 o'clock.
4 Q. Just after 11. So you went to Pac N Save
5 A. Uh-huh. I got a few things.
6 Q. So now the officer left
7 A. Uh-huh. And I'm still on the phone with 8 Q. You're going
9 A. [REDACTED] the whole time.
10 Q. Pac N Save, on the phone with [REDACTED] on your cell phone.
11 A. Uh-huh. Until he got there and then uh, he told her ^{to} like get off the phone.
12 Q. Did you actually hear him say that?
13 ✓ A. Yeah. I don't remember what, um, "Hang up with her. Get off the phone," or something like that
14 and then she told me that she'll call me back, and I'm like, I was like okay. My, my cell phone
15 battery, I remember, was dying anyway so I'm like, "Okay. I'll see you when I get home."
16 Q. Okay.
17 A. ^{And} It kept beeping and it was dying
18 Q. Okay.
19 A. And then uh, so I'm
20 Q. So you got off the phone with her.
21 A. I'm still at Pac N Save getting some stuff and then I'm like, I was walking home and then she 22 called me and then um, I don't know. She was, she was upset.
23 Q. When you say upset, um,
24 A. She was like
25 Q. Was she crying?
26 A. At first she wasn't crying like not right at first but like a couple of minutes, less than a couple of 27 minutes into the conversation when she was crying, cuz I was like "Yeah, right," like I wasn't,
28 you know,
29 Q. You didn't believe her?
30 A. Really wasn't believing her. But then like and she was like telling, she was so scared and she
31 was telling me she was so scared and so that's, so I started asking her well, what had happened
32 and she started telling me.

PAGE 9

1 Q. What did she tell you?

2 A. She told me uh, that the officer had pulled in. She gave him the ticket or whatever. That he was
3 in the car. She ran back in the house. I think she said she just ran in to go pee while he was 4 looking at the ticket in his car, and uh, when she runs back out, she said she, she said she went
5 pee so fast she didn't remember flushing the toilet or anything; that she just ran in. She really
6 had to go to the bathroom. He was reading the ticket. She runs back out, and he's like at her
7 doorway.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I don't know if it was the outside or the inside of the door but she said he was standing right there
10 at the doorway. And um, then, I just remember her telling me basically that he was grabbing her 11 arm; he was telling her to give him a kiss;

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. And uh, then he kept trying to hug her and that he was telling her that um, ever since he seen her
14 that he just wanted to grab her and hug her, and um, that he started kissing on her neck and her 15 cheek and that he was taking her hand like making her touch him.

16 Q. Where?

17 A. His private area.

18 Q. I'm, I'm, I'm don't mean, I'm not trying

19 A. His penis.

20 Q. I'm not trying to embarrass you. I just

21 A. No, yeah. No, yeah, his

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. ✓ And um, she ^{said} ~~felt~~ that it was really hard. That it was hard, and that he was making her rub it;
24 touch it. That he took her hand and she said that she was kind of pushing him away. She said
25 that she was really scared and she felt like he was going to rape her and that she was like, kept 26 telling him that "My sister was going to go over there." That she goes over there every night to 27 watch TV with her

28 Q. Right.

29 A. That she was getting ready to go over there at that time, and um, he kept telling her to tell her to 30 wait 20 minutes, 20 minutes; for her to wait 20 minutes, and she's like "No, she's on her way.
31 She'll be here in a minute." And she kept trying to she was like, "Uh, I'll just call you." She said
32 that she was telling him she'll call him so that he would just leave and not hurt her or rape

- 1 anything because she felt like she was trying to be nice and tell him whatever like maybe like.
2 you know, that she'll talk to him another time like giving him some kind of hope but just not
3 right now just so that he would leave.
- 4 Q. Right. Right.
- ✓ 5 A. Cuz she said she was she was terrified.
- 6 Q. Okay. Do you know if [REDACTED] has ever had any sort relationship with this officer, Greg,
7 prior to this whole incident?
- 8 A. No, just from him, her meeting him at the gym.
- 9 Q. Okay.
- 10 A. Never like no outside of work or no nothing like that.
- 11 Q. Nothing, not anything like that.
- 12 A. No. And I know everything about her. So, no, I'm always
- 13 Q. Okay.
- 14 A. With her. I would know. Never.
- 15 Q. All right. Can you think of any reason why [REDACTED] would fabricate this story, make all this up?
- 16 A. No, not all. Not at all.
- 17 Q. Okay.
- 18 A. I completely believe her. When she was first telling me I just, you know, just from the officer
19 ✓ just being nice and him being an officer, I was just like "Oh, yeah." I wasn't believing her and 20 then she was breaking down. She's like "I'm so scared." She was, and this was when she was 21 with him back there and she told me she was like, "I don't, I don't even want to stay here
22 anymore." She's like [REDACTED] is not here at night-time." She was like, "I just have a feeling he's 23 going to try to come back over here. He knows that I'm going to be here alone." She told me
24 she was just scared. She didn't want t to be here.
- 25 Q. So you have no reason to believe that she would make any of this up?
- 26 A. No, not at all.
- 27 Q. Okay. Have you seen this officer since this incident?
- 28 A. Yeah. I, we were walking through K-Mart. I had came home for a break, and um, [REDACTED] was 29 walking back to work with me. I don't remember when. It was, it was after though. It was 30 sometime just recently. Um, we were walking through K-Mart and there was a cop car right
31 there. And she was, she was getting scared every time she seen a cop car like at night-time like 32 walking here to there. She's like, "Oh, my God. Is that him? I'm not looking. I'm not looking."

PAGE 11

- 1 And um, she, she, we seen a cop car when we went, when we started walking to K-Mart. She put 2 her hood on. She had a hooded sweatshirt. She put her hood on and then she's like, "I'm not
3 going to look, look and see if it's him." And I seen, I made eye contact with him and it was him.
4 He was just sitting in the K-Mart parking lot.
- 5 Q. Okay. Did, did the two of them have any conversation at all that, when that happened?
- 6 A. That night?
- 7 Q. When you ^{saw} say him coming out of K-Mart?
- 8 A. No. No, he didn't stop and talk to us at all.
- 9 Q. Okay.
- 10 A. We just we seen him. I made eye contact with him. She wouldn't even look his way. She had 11 her hood on.
- 12 Q. Did he acknowledge you like by waving or anything?
- 13 A. No. No.
- 14 Q. Okay. How long ago was this?
- 15 A. I don't know.
- 16 Q. Was it this week or was it last week after this happened?
- 17 A. It was last week after it happened.
- 18 Q. Okay
- 19 A. Um, I, I'm thinking it's last week. We were walking back to work. Either she was home for her 20 break or I was home because she works Thursdays and Friday nights and so I'll go back to the 21 gym to go wait for her to walk home with her.
- 22 Q. Oh, okay.
- 23 A. So I don't remember if we were walking back to my break or her break. So we're walking back,
24 we were walking to the [REDACTED]
- 25 Q. Okay. All right.
- 26 A. Yeah, and then he was, he was just parked there, and um, he was parked but then when, as we 27 were walking by he he took off and went out the parking lot cuz he was like at the end like 28 towards this side just in the back of the parking lot.
- 29 Q. Okay.
- 30 A. Or on the front towards [REDACTED]
- 31 Q. Okay.
- 32 A. I think that's how the parking lot, and

- 1 Q. Did you see the bruise on her arm?
- 2 A. Yeah.
- 3 Q. On her, it would be her left arm near her biceps. Did she tell you how she sustained that
- 4 injury? That bruise?
- 5 A. Well, she said the only thing that happened to her was the officer was grabbing her right there.
- 6 Q. All right.
- 7 A. So that would be
- 8 Q. Has she had any other physical altercations with anybody besides that officer in the last week or
- 9 two?
- 10 A. No, none. None.
- 11 Q. Okay. The reason I ask is
- 12 A. I'm sure she would have told me.
- 13 Q. Okay.
- 14 A. Yeah.
- 15 Q. You think she would have?
- 16 A. Oh, yeah.
- 17 Q. If her and [REDACTED] had gotten in a fight, would she had told you?
- 18 A. Yeah.
- 19 Q. Because I know that there are issues going on with them.
- 20 A. They have issues. Yeah, I did know . . . like he, as far as I know, he has never put his hands on
- 21 her and she, I, I'm sure she would have told me. I had just got out of a 9-year abusive
- 22 relationship
- 23 Q. Okay
- 24 A. And she knows everything I've been through so I feel that she would have came to me or told me
- 25 something and [REDACTED] yeah - he has issues but I don't think he like would put his hands on her.
- 26 Q. Cuz I know that when the incident happened just recently between them
- 27 A. Uh-huh.
- 28 Q. Between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]
- 29 A. Yeah.
- 30 Q. That there was, I mean there was some stuff that happened there that could be considered pretty
- 31 violent on her part as far as some stuff that got vandalized and I'm just trying to make sure that
- 32 there's not a chance that [REDACTED] could have caused this injury to her. arm.

- 1 A. Um, well, I guess what had happened was when he was at work, somebody went in his house and 2 vandalized some stuff.
- 3 Q. Okay.
- 4 A. Um, she, since that happened he accused her automatically. She's not had, had, she's hasn't had 5 any contact with him.
- 6 Q. Okay.
- 7 A. Like um, on the phone a couple of
- 8 Q. I'm, I'm not here for that.
- 9 A. No, yeah. Like a couple of text messages but they've never came like in person ever since the
- 10 Q. Okay.
- 11 A. Stuff has happened. I've talked to him. I've been over there. I've talked to him about the whole
12 situation. Um, I don't know. Like he's a nice guy. It's just the whole, you know, they have their 13 issues, (unintelligible) relationship stuff. I've never know for him to put his hands on her.
- 14 Q. Okay.
- 15 A. And I don't see him as that type of person at all like I know him so
- 16 Q. I just wanted to make sure.
- 17 A. Yeah.
- 18 Q. I appreciated ~~that~~ that. Is there anything else you can think of that we haven't discussed or are there 19 any questions you have for me before I turn the tape off?
- 20 A. Well, I remember also her telling me the next day she did leave the officer a message.
- 21 Q. Okay.
- 22 A. Um, but she said she left him a message saying ^{that} she felt really uncomfortable and uh, um, for him
23 to not to come around or contact her or anything. That he made her feel really uncomfortable.
24 So she said that her, that his phone was off when she called but she said she did leave him a 25 message.
- 26 Q. Okay.
- 27 A. So I told her I said, "Well, okay. Hopefully you know that scared him where he realized you 28 know, to leave you alone."
- 29 Q. Okay.
- 30 A. That's all.
- 31 Q. All right. Anything else?

- 1 A. No, no. That's pretty much I mean I don't want any problems at my house like with this officer
2 like he knows where I live too. You know what I mean? I have two kids and I'm not, I'm here
3 to support her in whatever she wants to do. Cuz she, she's been wanting to say something since
4 it happened and I told her, I mean, basically that it was up to her. I mean I would support her
5 like, you know, and but I told her, I said, "If he tried to con, contact you again, then I think for 6 sure you need to say something." But then at the same time, I feel like she should say, she
7 should say something anyways just because so it doesn't happen other people. ^{It} ~~It~~ could be worse
8 if someone else, anything could happen. You know. So, um, yeah. I just don't want anything to 9 happen to anyone. You know.
- 10 Q. Okay. I understand. All right. Then if you have no other questions or nothing else, I'll go 11 ahead and turn the tape recorder off. If I need to, if I think of some questions that I didn't ask 12 you today, is it okay for me to come contact you later on?
- 13 A. Yes, it is.
- 14 Q. Wonderful. All right. The time is now eleven twenty-five
15 and that will conclude my interview with [REDACTED]

Q: Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta

A: [REDACTED]

Q. Okay. Today's date is Friday, September 22, 2006. The time is now 10:25 a.m. This is Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta. This is in regards to case 06-37694. I am speaking with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] can you spell your first name for me?

A.

Q. And the last name is [REDACTED] - [REDACTED]

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Okay. And what's your date of birth?

A.

Q. Right. We are at [REDACTED] workplace and the address is [REDACTED] is spelled [REDACTED] and that's suite [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] California. [REDACTED] you understand that I've got a tape recorder rolling right now and I'm recording our conversation?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And you have no problem with that?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Before I turned the tape recorder on, we went over some things, some details about how you were made aware of uh, this other incident.

RE: CASE NUMBER 06-37694

- 1 A. Yes.
- 2 Q. That transpired. Why don't you kind of fill me in on how you were made aware of this other 3 incident, not your incident but the other incident?
- 4 A. My ex-boyfriend, [REDACTED] gave me a call a few days ago and informed me that his friend, where 5 he goes to the gym, she works at the gym, had an incident with the same officer. And so he
6 called me to see if it was the same person or the same name and it happened to be the same first 7 name.
- 8 Q. Okay. So you remember, excuse me, you remembered the name from it was roughly a year ago 9 when these incidents were going on?
- 10 A. Yeah.
- 11 Q. And you remembered this, the officer's first name?
- 12 A. First name.
- 13 Q. Okay. And what was the officer's first name?
- 14 A. Greg.
- 15 Q. Greg. Okay. Do you remember the officer's last name?
- 16 A. No.
- 17 Q. Okay. So [REDACTED] called you and asked you about whether or not you remembered the officer's 18 first name
- 19 A. Uh-huh.
- 20 Q. Because there was now another incident that was going on, possibly involving the same officer.
- 21 A. Yes.
- 22 Q. Did he give you any details as to what happened in this other incident?
- 23 A. A little bit. Um, he said that, I guess she had called the cops or something, cops were going to 24 her house for some reason or another, and um, or she had a fix-it ticket that he, she need signed.
- 25 Q. Okay.
- 26 A. Or something and so he came and signed her ticket but then he came to her house like at 11:00
27 o'clock or something at night and he was trying to fondle her, touch her, and made some 28 comments toward her as well.
- 29 Q. So basically what happens is is it kind of turns on a light in [REDACTED] head, this sounds
- 30 A. Uh-huh.
- 31 Q. Extremely similar.

- 1 A. Yeah, because he said that the, the that Greg tried to touch her neck and her hair and stuff. He 2 did the same thing to me.
- 3 Q. Okay. Okay. Did he give you any other details about what had transpired with with [REDACTED]
- 4 A. Not too much.
- 5 Q. Okay. Do you know [REDACTED]
- 6 A. No.
- 7 Q. You never met her?
- 8 A. No.
- 9 Q. Okay. Did [REDACTED] recommend anything to you? Did he say you should call the police or -- did 10 he make any sort of comments like that at all?
- 11 A. A year ago he did.
- 12 Q. A year ago.
- 13 A. Yeah.
- 14 Q. Okay.
- 15 A. Um, I guess this time he just said that you know, it could be the same person or something and 16 then he called back and he said "Well, would you mind if gave [REDACTED] your number so she can get 17 a complete (unintelligible)," and I said it wouldn't be a problem.
- 18 Q. Okay. Okay. So, I did get your information from [REDACTED] and I spoke with you yesterday on the 19 telephone. And I basically asked you what had happened with you about a year ago. So after 20 you and I had a change to talk, we've now determined that there's roughly four different
21 incidents involving this officer and let me just clarify some stuff. On all four incidents, we're 22 talking about the same officer. Is that correct?
- 23 A. Yes.
- 24 Q. Okay.
- 25 A. Uh-huh.
- 26 Q. Why don't you go ahead and we'll go over each incident one at a time. We'll go in 27 chronological order. The first time that you had any contact with this officer whatsoever, uh, do 28 you remember the first incident?
- 29 A. Yes, I do. It was, I don't know what day or anything like that. I was, it was during the daytime.
30 It was sunny. I parked my car on (unintelligible) Street right on the corner of (unintelligible) and 31 , right by my house. And it was like a little red zone and my bumper was sticking in the 32 red a little bit and he came and knocked on my door and asked me if that was my

- 1 And I told him yes, and so he advised me to move, move it out of the red just so I wouldn't get a
2 ticket. It was just like not more than 3 or 5 inches in. I can get the ticket. But he asked me if I
3 was [REDACTED]
- 4 Q. The first time he met you he asked you that?
- 5 A. Yeah. And I told him yes.
- 6 Q. Did you inquire as to how he knew your name?
- 7 A. No, I figured he had super powers or . . . I mean I figured he probably read my plates.
- 8 Q. Okay. How long was, how long did this incident take? This contact that you had with this 9 officer, was it that brief where he just came to your . . . did he actually talk to you about this at 10 your house?
- 11 A. Uh-huh.
- 12 Q. Okay. Right there on the threshold of your front door or Okay. And how long was the total 13 contact?
- 14 A. Well, not, on the corner cuz I came out.
- 15 Q. On the corner.
- 16 A. To see my car.
- 17 Q. Okay. So he actually brought you out to the car.
- 18 A. Yeah, and showed me.
- 19 Q. Showed you the car?
- 20 A. Yeah.
- 21 Q. Right. And you said, I believe yesterday when I talked to you on the phone, you said the car was 22 in the red zone by 4 or 5 inches.
- 23 A. Yeah.
- 24 Q. Okay. Did he make you move the car at that time?
- 25 A. No.
- 26 Q. He did not..
- 27 A. No.
- 28 Q. He just told you that in the future
- 29 A. I went out there but he didn't tell me to move it. He just said you know, I just want to advise you
- 30 Q. Okay. Okay. So you moved the car on your own?
- 31 A. Yeah.
- 32 Q. Did he identify himself to you at that point?

- 1 A. He told me his name was Officer, but I don't remember the last name.
- 2 Q. Okay. Did he um, give you a business card on that first contact?
- 3 A. No, not, I want to say he, he then cuz I don't remember him giving it to me on the second or
- 4 third.
- 5 Q. Okay.
- 6 A. But I don't remember when he gave it to me.
- 7 Q. I'm not asking you to tell me anything you don't remember. You don't remember
- 8 A. Right.
- 9 Q. If you don't remember, that's fine. Um,
- 10 A. Cuz I know for a fact he didn't give it to me the second contact.
- 11 Q. So he possibly gave you a business card that first contact.
- 12 A. Because I did have it.
- 13 Q. Okay. Although earlier you described it looking more like a trading car, like a baseball card
- 14 A. Baseball card. Uh-huh.
- 15 Q. Okay. So is that pretty much it for that first contact?
- 16 A. Yes.
- 17 Q. Was there anything that he said to you or did to you that you would deem inappropriate the first
- 18 time?
- 19 A. No.
- 20 Q. Okay. So let's go back, I'm sorry - let's go to the next time that you had met up with this
- 21 officer.
- 22 A. Okay.
- 23 Q. And do you remember about how much time went by between the first contact and the second
- 24 contact? I'll ask you this every time. If you can remember that's fine. If you can't, that's
- 25 A. I don't.
- 26 Q. Okay.
- 27 A. I don't.
- 28 Q. And what were the circumstances surrounding that?
- 29 A. Um, my son's uh, climbed the fence and fell at the park on barbed wire so I had to take him to
- 30 the hospital and that was
- 31 Q. What hospital?
- 32 A. Eden.

- 1 Q. Okay.
- 2 A. In Castro Valley. So that, that happened like around 5 and we didn't get home literally until like
- 3 11, 11:30 cuz he got stitches and stuff. So as we parked on [REDACTED] in front of my house, Greg
- 4 pulled his car like nose to nose with mine so he was going in the opposite direction to the traffic.
- 5 Q. And you parked on [REDACTED] that night?
- 6 A. Yeah.
- 7 Q. Did you park in front of your apartment complex?
- 8 A. Uh-huh.
- 9 Q. So that would be the west side of the street.
- 10 A. Yes.
- 11 Q. And he came nose to nose with your car
- 12 A. As I, as we were getting out of the car.
- 13 Q. You were getting out of the car. So he had to actually drive the wrong way, he would be driving
- 14 - I'm assuming that northbound in the southbound lanes to go nose to nose with your car.
- 15 A. Yes. Uh-huh.
- 16 Q. Okay. And you said, Greg, did you know, did you know it was him right away?
- 17 A. Not until he put the window down.
- 18 Q. Okay. All right. Anybody else inside the car besides your son?
- 19 A. No.
- 20 Q. Okay. So just to clarify, your car would have been parked facing south going towards [REDACTED]
- 21 [REDACTED]
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. Is that correct?
- 24 A. Yeah.
- 25 Q. Okay. So what, when he first makes contact with you what happens?
- 26 A. Um, me and (unintelligible) [REDACTED] my son's. We kind of got startled a little bit. Um, but
- 27 he rolled his window down on the side and said, "Hey," you know. "How are you guys doing?"
- 28 And we said, "We're fine." And that my son, we had just got back from the hospital. And um,
- 29 then he asked why and we told him and then he told us a story about him getting hurt when he
- 30 was younger and he had like 40 stitches on his chest or something.
- 31 Q. Okay.

- 1 A. Like that. Um, and then he told me that um, I shouldn't come home too, too late because you
2 know, I'm a single mother, and he knows I live alone. And that he'll always watch out for me
3 because I, my house is in his route. And then that's when he told me that he left his number, you
4 know, (unintelligible), but he left his cell number on his card so in case I needed him to call him.
5 And then he's like for personal or for any, if anything else would happen on our house.
- 6 Q. Okay. So he made the comment to you that he knew that you were a single mother
- 7 A. Uh-huh.
- 8 Q. How did you react when you heard that?
- 9 A. I just thought in mind how does he know that because at that time, I, I have lived alone but I 10 wasn't single at that time.
- 11 Q. Okay.
- 12 A. So he must have known that I just by going in and out of the house.
- 13 Q. But you guys, the two of you didn't have a conversation about that the first time you met?
- 14 A. No.
- 15 Q. Okay. So he said the cell phone number he provided you on that first visit was for personal and 16 professional assistance or any kind of contact like that.
- 17 A. Uh-huh.
- 18 Q. How did he put it again? Was for
- 19 A. Personal or if I had a problem.
- 20 Q. Okay. Cuz he works that area.
- 21 A. Yeah. His route.
- 22 Q. Okay. So anything else happen that second visit?
- 23 A. Well, I just told him we had to go inside.
- 24 Q. Okay.
- 25 A. Cuz it was late.
- 26 Q. All right. So it's roughly 11:30 at night
- 27 A. Uh-huh.
- 28 Q. He pulls up, rolls the window, did he actually get out of the car?
- 29 A. No. Uh-uh.
- 30 Q. To help you?
- 31 A. No.
- 32 Q. He never got out of the car.

RE: CASE NUMBER 06-37694

- 1 A. No.
- 2 Q. So did he, he, you said he pulled up nose to nose. Were you two already out of the car?
- 3 A. We were getting out of the car cuz I walked around the back part of my car.
- 4 Q. Okay. I see.
- 5 A. Uh-huh.
- 6 Q. I'm thinking if he goes
- 7 A. But didn't get out yet. I don't let him get out until I'm out all the way so when I was
- 8 walking up on the other side, started getting out and then that's when he rolled his window
- 9 down.
- 10 Q. Okay. How do you spell name?
- 11 A.
- 12 Q. And he would have been 11 at the time?
- 13 A. Yeah.
- 14 Q. So just guys just tell him "Okay. I've got to go in. It's late."
- 15 A. Uh-huh.
- 16 Q. Did he give you any resistance when you said
- 17 A. No.
- 18 Q. You needed to go.
- 19 A. Cuz he said, "have a good night."
- 20 Q. "Have a good night." Okay.
- 21 A. Uh-huh.
- 22 Q. So the rest of it was pretty cordial?
- 23 A. Uh-huh.
- 24 Q. The issue is the fact that he made the comment about you being a single parent
- 25 A. Yeah.
- 26 Q. That information you never provided.
- 27 A. Right.
- 28 Q. And he had addressed you by your first name, the first time that he saw you?
- 29 A. Uh-huh.
- 30 Q. And you're thinking was that he probably got your information off of your vehicle's registration?
- 31 A. Yeah or
- 32 Q. Is that right?

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

RE: CASE NUMBER 06-37694

- 1 A. That or the thing that, but he knew my first name and last name so I'm thinking
- 2 Q. Okay.
- 3 A. (unintelligible) it's the registration.
- 4 Q. Okay. Anything else on that second contact that you would deem inappropriate?
- 5 A. Coming to my house and talking to me.
- 6 Q. Okay.
- 7 A. That late. And I didn't call for assistance so
- 8 Q. Any idea where he drove up from?
- 9 A. He was coming on, but you know what? He would have had to have been coming down Bancroft
- 10 whatever that is . . .
- 11 Q. If he's coming towards you from from the south he would be coming north.
- 12 A. Okay.
- 13 Q. If he pulled in front of you unless he made a u-turn to do it.
- 14 A. See I didn't see him make a u-turn but it kind of like when I was getting out he like came fast.
- 15 Q. Okay.
- 16 A. So I don't know
- 17 Q. From out of nowhere?
- 18 A. Yeah.
- 19 Q. Okay. All right. Let's go to the third time that you had contact.
- 20 A. Okay.
- 21 Q. With him. Why don't you go ahead and give me a little synopsis of that.
- 22 A. Okay. Um, during the night I work at the [REDACTED] and I don't get off there, my hours
- 23 range from 5 to 2 in the morning. Um, now we're wearing uniforms but before we weren't. I
- 24 was wearing a white tank top and like blue like stretchy capri pants. And I saw lights go on
- 25 behind me when I was not even half of a mile off of, going off of Benedict.
- 26 Q. Okay. Let's just back up just a second. So you're driving home from the
- 27 A. Yes.
- 28 Q. You took Interstate 580
- 29 A. Uh-huh.
- 30 Q. That would be westbound going into San Leandro
- 31 A. Right.
- 32 Q. And your normal route, your normal route would be to get off at Benedict Drive?

- 1 A. Yes.
- 2 Q. Okay. And then, then
- 3 A. I (unintelligible)
- 4 Q. You would go up Sybil
- 5 A. Uh-huh.
- 6 Q. Okay. So at what point did you realize that there was a police car behind you?
- 7 A. When I saw the lights.
- 8 Q. Okay. And where were you on Highway 580 at the time?
- 9 A. Right before the Benedict exit.
- 10 Q. Just before Benedict.
- 11 A. Yeah.
- 12 Q. About what time at night was that?
- 13 A. I'd 12:30 or 1:00 a.m.
- 14 Q. So just before you got to the Benedict off ramp
- 15 A. Uh-huh.
- 16 Q. You saw the police lights, police car lights.
- 17 A. Yeah.
- 18 Q. Anyone else in the car with you?
- 19 A. No.
- 20 Q. Okay. Okay. So yesterday when I talked to you on the phone, you talked about how being
- 21 alone in the car you're concerned about getting out of the car especially on the freeway.
- 22 A. Uh-huh.
- 23 Q. Or even being stopped on the freeway.
- 24 A. Right.
- 25 Q. Alone.
- 26 A. Right.
- 27 Q. So what did you do?
- 28 A. I went, I didn't stop.
- 29 Q. Okay. You continue driving.
- 30 A. (unintelligible) get a ticket. Yeah. I continued driving; got off at Benedict. I got to the stop
- 31 signs. Stopped; made a left; and kept going. I wanted to get as close as I could to light.
- 32 Q. Okay.

- 1 A. Near my home.
- 2 Q. Okay.
- 3 A. So I didn't pull over until I was on Sybil.
- 4 Q. Okay.
- 5 A. I went further over
- 6 Q. At the first street that crosses it. Is that what you said earlier?
- 7 A. I made for, for 3 lefts so the first stop sign I made a left. The second stop sign I made a left. And
- 8 then the third I made a left and then I made a right on that first street, which would be Evergreen.
- 9 Q. Okay.
- 10 A. And I pulled right into Evergreen.
- 11 Q. So that was to the right you said?
- 12 A. Yeah.
- 13 Q. Okay.
- 14 A. Sorry.
- 15 Q. Okay. Okay. So what happens once you stop?
- 16 A. Well, he talked the little thingy
- 17 Q. Okay. He talked on the PA
- 18 A. Yeah.
- 19 Q. Which is the public address uh system.
- 20 A. Told me to get out of the car.
- 21 Q. Do you remember what he said?
- 22 A. Um, well, at first he was kind of stern about it, and why didn't I pull over. And I said
- 23 Q. On the, on the PA he's saying this?
- 24 A. No. First, first he told me to get out of the car on the PA.
- 25 Q. On the PA?
- 26 A. Yeah. So I left my, I left my car running and um, I got out of the car and then he didn't talk on
- 27 the PA no more. He just said why didn't you pull over. But I couldn't see him because of that
- 28 light was so bright.
- 29 Q. Okay.
- 30 A. Um, and I just told him that I won't pull over on the freeway.
- 31 Q. Did you start walking towards his car when he asked you that - why didn't you pull over?
- 32 A. No, I stepped out and he, I was facing him and then he told me to do the whole turnaround thing.

- 1 Q. He told you to turn around?
- 2 A. Uh-huh.
- 3 Q. Did you know who it was by this time?
- 4 A. No.
- 5 Q. Okay. You couldn't you couldn't see it, whether, could you see him back at the police car?
- 6 A. No, cuz that light.
- 7 Q. Cuz the light
- 8 A. yeah.
- 9 Q. Like a okay. His headlights or another light?
- 10 A. No, that big light.
- 11 Q. Spotlight?
- 12 A. Yeah.
- 13 Q. He told you to turn around?
- 14 A. Uh-huh.
- 15 Q. Completely turn around or just turn and face away from him. Do you remember?
- 16 A. No, to completely turn around.
- 17 Q. Completely turn around.
- 18 A. And then that's when he started walking towards me.
- 19 Q. I put 360 degrees since you were . . . and that's when he started walking towards you.
- 20 A. Uh-huh. And that, I remember parts of the conversation but I don't remember it word for word
- 21 but I know he asked me what am I doing out so late. Um, and then
- 22 Q. He asked you what are you doing out so late? Did you know who it was by that time?
- 23 A. Yeah. Cuz I same him cuz he came close.
- 24 Q. Okay. So you then recognized
- 25 A. Greg.
- 26 Q. Okay. He asked you "What are you doing out so late?" is that correct?
- 27 A. Yeah.
- 28 Q. I don't want to put words in your mouth there. Do you remember how you responded?
- 29 A. I was at work. So then he said, "Well, where do you work?" Just like that.
- 30 Q. What else happened?
- 31 A. Um, I and then he asked me where I work, and I told him where I worked. (unintelligible) and
- 32 then uh, he told me, at that point I asked him if I can get in the car, in the car

- 1 Q. Uh-huh.
- 2 A. And he said "No." He said "Just wait. I pulled you over because . . ." Oh, I asked him why he
- 3 pulled me over. He said, "I pulled you over because I wanted to talk to you." And I said, "What
- 4 did I do? Anything wrong?" And he said, "No." And he told me that I had a beautiful body.
- 5 Um, he told me that I had big breasts.
- 6 Q. Okay. Let me catch up with you here. He, he told you the reason why he pulled you over was
- 7 he wanted to talk to you.
- 8 A. He wanted to talk to me.
- 9 Q. Okay. I'm sorry. And then what did he tell you after that?
- 10 A. Uh, he um, told me that I had a beautiful body.
- 11 Q. And where were you um, how, how close was he standing to you at this time?
- 12 A. About a foot.
- 13 Q. Oh, so you guys were right up on.
- 14 A. He was right there.
- 15 Q. Okay.
- 16 A. Like almost touching. His, because I walked back toward, my car door was open so I walked in
- 17 the corner of the door and the car.
- 18 Q. Okay.
- 19 A. And his hand was on the on the
- 20 Q. On the door.
- 21 A. And his other hand was on my window, my car has a second window.
- 22 Q. Okay. So his hand was on the open door and on the window?
- 23 A. Uh-huh.
- 24 Q. Okay. Did you, why don't you go over the comment that he made to you again for me?
- 25 A. He made,
- 26 Q. While you were standing there?
- 27 A. Well, first he said I have a beautiful body and then
- 28 Q. Okay.
- 29 A. Um, I said, "Thank you," and then that that he said you know I have big breasts and that, and
- 30 then that, at that point I was feeling really uncomfortable. Well, I didn't, you know, understand
- 31 why he pulled me over when he did but I,
- 32 Q. Okay.

- 1 A. When I just jumped into the car and I shut the door and he rolled my window down, when I tried 2 to close the door he rolled my window down.
- 3 Q. Okay.
- 4 A. Um, and then he shut the door and then he told me that I had nice hair and pretty eyes and asked
5 me if I was single and I told him "No." And then he said "Well, that's good because I'm not
6 either." Um, he told me he was married but his marriage um, wasn't good. She wasn't giving
7 him what he needed at home. And he was looking for someone to meet, to give him what he 8 needs.
- 9 Q. Okay. Um, physically besides rolling down the window, now you're in the car. He's obviously 10 standing at the window.
- 11 A. Uh-huh.
- 12 Q. What, besides what he just said to you, what else
- 13 A. He put his hand like this all up in my hair and like
- 14 Q. Okay.
- 15 A. Rubbed my head.
- 16 Q. Okay.
- 17 A. And that's when kind of like, you know, scooted over and told him "I have to go home cuz it's 18 late," and then he tried to kiss my neck.
- 19 Q. Through the open window?
- 20 A. Uh-huh. And he also told me that he had two kids. I think it was two kids.
- 21 Q. You said tried to kiss your neck or he did kiss your neck?
- 22 A. Well, he tried, and when he, where it (unintelligible) my hair and when he tried I pushed away 23 and he kind of leaned but he kind of like moved my head so he could kiss my neck.
- 24 Q. So he did force your head into a position where he was able to kiss your neck?
- 25 A. Yeah, but he didn't do it like hard.
- 26 Q. Okay. How many times did he kiss you?
- 27 A. Once.
- 28 Q. What did you tell him when he did that?
- 29 A. I tried to roll the window up.
- 30 Q. What did he say?
- 31 A. Um, I don't remember his exact words but he said, um, to, I'm trying to remember - "Oh, I 32 didn't mean to scare you off. Let me make it up to you," or something like along those lines. I

- 1 don't remember exactly what he said. And I just told him, "No, it's okay. I'm going to go home
2 now." And he said, "Well, I'll drive behind you to make sure you get home safe," and I told him
3 "No, that's okay. I just live down the street, you know," but he did anyways.
- 4 Q. Okay.
- 5 A. Well, he went I don't know if he turned down my street but I seen him go all the way down to the 6 end of Bancroft, Bancroft to the light. (unintelligible)
- 7 Q. Okay.
- 8 A. But I mean we were there probably like a half an hour.
- 9 Q. Okay. Did you tell him, when he was there with you on that car stop that you wanted to go and 10 that you didn't want him to do what he was doing?
- 11 A. I told him I wanted to go home.
- 12 Q. Okay.
- 13 A. I, you know, I I was scared to tell him not to touch me and that's what I was feeling.
- 14 Q. Okay. Why were you scared?
- 15 A. One - I had a boyfriend. Two - he was a stranger, and he was a cop. And three - he was 16 violating my space. And I didn't invite him to touch me.
- 17 Q. So roughly if you were pulled over right around 11:30, you think you were there close to 18 midnight?
- 19 A. No, I was pulled over like 1:30.
- 20 Q. I'm sorry. 1:30.
- 21 A. Yeah, the other time.
- 22 Q. I'm sorry.
- 23 A. It's okay.
- 24 Q. I'm getting my contacts mixed up here.
- 25 A. (laughter)
- 26 Q. Okay. So 1:30 so you probably were there you're guessing until about 2:00 o'clock?
- 27 A. Yeah.
- 28 Q. Was most of it just conversation?
- 29 A. Yeah. Towards the end that's when he he tried to (unintelligible) me because we were getting,
30 like as soon as I got in the car, that's when he like touched my arm, my, my
- 31 Q. Okay.
- 32 A. And stuff like that.

- 1 Q. Okay. Did he write you a ticket?
- 2 A. No.
- 3 Q. Okay. And when you asked him why it was he stopped you, he didn't mention anything about
- 4 there being any vehicle code violation or any other problem with your car?
- 5 A. No.
- 6 Q. The only indication was that he stopped you cuz he wanted to talk to you.
- 7 A. Yeah.
- 8 Q. Did you ever ask him how he knew where you were going to be and or did you ever inquire as to
- 9 how he saw your car on the freeway?
- 10 A. No.
- 11 Q. Okay. Do you wonder how he
- 12 A. Yeah.
- 13 Q. Knew that?
- 14 A. Yeah. I mean because he as soon as I was getting out, I don't know if he was behind me for a
- 15 long time or seeing if I was about to get off, he pulled me over and like he seemed like he
- 16 automatically knew who I was.
- 17 Q. Okay. Did he ever ask you
- 18 A. Cuz my windows are tinted from all the way up.
- 19 Q. Okay. Did he ever ask you for a drivers license, registration, proof of insurance?
- 20 A. No.
- 21 Q. Okay. Can you think of anything else about that stop that we haven't talked about?
- 22 A. Not at this time.
- 23 Q. Okay. Number 4
- 24 A. Okay.
- 25 Q. Why don't you go ahead and give me a synopsis of what happened that fourth time.
- 26 A. Well, at the end of number 3 I went home and at that time I did have my girlfriend, her husband,
- 27 and her 3 kids staying with me for a month or so. Um, so when I went home I didn't have the
- 28 key and I knocked on the door and my girlfriend [REDACTED] answered it.
- 29 Q. Okay.
- 30 A. And um, I told her what happened. I mean that was fuckin weird. And I was like, "Yeah, I
- 31 don't, you know, I . . ." I went, I went and took a shower and just you know, felt like dirty so I
- 32 went and took a shower and went to bed. The next morning they get up a lot earlier than I did. I

- 1 get up at around like 8 so I guess between 6 to 7:30 because they leave at 7:30'ish, he came to
2 my house but he was fully clothed wearing I think she said black swishies like jogging pants with
3 a black turtleneck with something on it. Um, in the neck part. And he knocked on the door and
4 he asked for me if I was there and she said "She's here but she's sleeping.. Who are you?" And
5 he goes, "Oh, no. Just tell her that I came by, you know, to talk to her," and she's "Well, what's 6 your name?" And he said, "Greg."
- 7 Q. Okay.
- 8 A. And so and she came and woke me up and she was like "The cop just came to your house. Is his 9 name Greg?" And I said "Yeah." "The guy just came over." And I'm like "What the heck . . ."
- 10 Q. Okay. Did your friend who answered the door, did she ever see what kind of car he was 11 driving?
- 12 A. No. I don't know. I never asked her.
- 13 Q. Never asked her? Okay.
- 14 A. No.
- 15 Q. Let me backtrack just for a second. I need the names of the people that were there with you that 16 morning? Your, your friends.
- 17 A. Uh-huh. Okay. So, um, [REDACTED] -- do you need her last name?
- 18 Q. Yeah.
- 19 A. (unintelligible) so it's
- 20 Q. Okay.
- 21 A. That's when she was married to her boyfriend.
- 22 Q. Okay. All right. And the other person?
- 23 A. Her boyfriend's name is
- 24 Q. ?
- 25 A. Uh-huh. Um, and it starts with a
- 26 Q. How old are the kids?
- 27 A. Um, 8, 5 and 4.
- 28 Q. Did they see, do you know if they saw the officer at the door?
- 29 A. No. There's, I don't think so. I mean (unintelligible) he was in my room sleeping still
- 30 Q. 8, 5 and 4 for them?
- 31 A. Yeah.
- 32 Q. That's fine. And who answered the door?

- 1 A. [REDACTED]
- 2 Q. [REDACTED] did.
- 3 A. Uh-huh.
- 4 Q. And that was roughly what time in the morning?
- 5 A. Between 6 and 7:30.
- 6 Q. 6 and 7:30?
- 7 A. Yeah. She said he just got off work, he told her he just got off work.
- 8 Q. And he asked for you by name?
- 9 A. Uh-huh.
- 10 Q. Uh, just and basically his comment to her was just tell her that Greg came by or something to that
- 11 effect?
- 12 A. It, he said tell her I came by and she goes "Who are you?" And he goes, "Greg."
- 13 Q. And he said Greg?
- 14 A. Yeah.
- 15 Q. And then he just took off? You, you didn't have any contact with him directly yourself?
- 16 A. No.
- 17 Q. But he actually did come by the house. All right. What does [REDACTED] live now?
- 18 A. She moved back with me. She moved out awhile and
- 19 Q. Okay.
- 20 A. And moved (unintelligible) and now that she's getting a divorce she just moved back with me so
- 21 she lives with me.
- 22 Q. Okay. I'm going to need to talk to her at some point.
- 23 A. Uh-huh.
- 24 Q. Okay. I'll take care of that after . . .
- 25 A. Uh-huh.
- 26 Q. Um, [REDACTED] - because the two of you have talked about it the night before or that earlier
- 27 A. Uh-huh.
- 28 Q. That morning, she's like "Okay. The same guy she's talking about" so she kind of freaks out.
- 29 A. Yeah.
- 30 Q. Goes back to your room; wakes you up.
- 31 A. Yeah.
- 32 Q. Did you actually see him at all, or was he already gone?

- 1 A. No, he was already gone.
- 2 Q. Okay. Did he leave anything identifiable there with you like did he leave another business card 3 or another one of those trading cards?
- 4 A. I never asked her.
- 5 Q. Okay.
- 6 A. I don't know.
- 7 Q. All right. I'm going to ask you a couple of questions here just because basically I have to just to 8 make sure that you and I are on the same page. Have you ever had a relationship with this officer
9 - Greg - who we're talking about today?
- 10 A. No.
- 11 Q. Okay. Have you ever had any contacts with this officer when he was in an off-duty capacity 12 meaning when he was not in uniform?
- 13 A. No.
- 14 Q. Okay. All right. Before I turned the tape recorder on, I showed you a group of photographs
- 15 A. Uh-huh.
- 16 Q. And I read you the photograph admonition
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 Q. Explained to you that you're under no obligation to identify this person if you didn't see them, 19 etc, etc. You understood that admonition when I read it to you?
- 20 A. Yeah.
- 21 Q. Okay. And then I laid down on your desk a group of colored photographs depicting six male 22 subjects
- 23 A. Yeah.
- 24 Q. Numbered one through six.
- 25 A. Uh-huh.
- 26 Q. And what did you do when I set that in front of you?
- 27 A. I said number two.
- 28 Q. Said number two. Okay. And number is this officer, Greg, who you have these four different 29 incidents with?
- 30 A. Yes.
- 31 Q. Starting back in 2005.
- 32 A. Yes.

- 1 Q. Okay. And the last time last time you actually saw his face was when?
- 2 A. Number 3 night. The night he pulled me over.
- 3 Q. Okay. And that, but we're talking all back in 2005.
- 4 A. Yes.
- 5 Q. Okay.
- 6 A. Uh-huh.
- 7 Q. All right. Okay. Is there any other questions you have for me while the tape recorder is still 8 rolling or is there anything else you need to tell me in regards to any of this that maybe you and I
9 haven't covered? Keep in mind that if you remember anything later on, you can always call me.
- 10 A. Okay.
- 11 Q. Okay.
- 12 A. (unintelligible)
- 13 Q. You think this covers everything?
- 14 A. Uh-huh.
- 15 Q. All right. You had also, let me just go back before I turn this off. When he was at your car
16 talking to you, you made the comment that and I didn't jot it down, I'm sorry. You made the 17 comment about that he asked you if you were married.
- 18 A. Yes.
- 19 Q. Okay. And you told him,
- 20 A. No, but I have a boyfriend.
- 21 Q. Okay. And then what was his response again?
- 22 A. Good because I'm married but it's -- something like it's not a good marriage and she won't give 23 me what I need so I'm looking for somebody to fulfill that for me. And I told him that's not me.
- 24 Q. Okay. You did actually tell him that.
- 25 A. Yeah. Yeah.
- 26 Q. Okay.
- 27 A. And he said, "Well, you know, you never know what can happen." He (unintelligible) this long
28 thing about how he's been depressed and he just needs someone to hold at night. I mean it was a 29 long conversation about his kids and how he's a good dad and things like that.
- 30 Q. Okay.
- 31 A. I told him to go to church.
- 32 Q. During the time that you were on that car stop, you roughly a half an hour.

- 1 A. Uh-huh.
- 2 Q. Once you got back into your car and he's standing at your window, the car's still running. Am I
- 3 correct?
- 4 A. Yes.
- 5 Q. Why didn't you just put it in drive and take off?
- 6 A. There was a car parked right in front of me so
- 7 Q. Okay.
- 8 A. If he was parked and I would have but my car was like diagonal so I probably could have but I
- 9 mean he's a cop.
- 10 Q. Okay.
- 11 A. Also you know
- 12 Q. So you felt that if you tried to drive away what did you think might happen?
- 13 A. That I could possible get in trouble.
- 14 Q. Okay.
- 15 A. And what, you know, what is it if you're resisting?
- 16 Q. Okay.
- 17 A. I mean I don't know. I don't know the law so
- 18 Q. Okay. All right. Anything else that you can think of?
- 19 A. Um, no. About that thing at my house but I don't know if that's him or not because I didn't see
- 20 him.
- 21 Q. Right. But you had, you have seen police cars sitting near your house in front of your house
- 22 within the last couple of weeks, you said?
- 23 A. Yeah.
- 24 Q. When was the last time you actually saw the police car in front of your house?
- 25 A. About (tape ends in mid-sentence)

A. I was at work at

PAGE 2

- 1 Q. Okay. So you work at uh, [REDACTED] in Fremont?
- 2 A. Yes.
- 3 Q. Okay. And what were your hours that for that shift on the 12th of September?
- 4 A. I started at 4:30 and I get off about 2:00 o'clock, the latest 3:00 o'clock, but it was, it was earlier
- 5 that night.
- 6 Q. Okay. So around 2:00 o'clock?
- 7 A. Yeah.
- 8 Q. So what time would you say you arrived back at your apartment back at [REDACTED]
- 9 [REDACTED]?
- 10 A. It was right after [REDACTED] gave me a call, say like around almost 2:00, I believe.
- 11 Q. Okay. And when you are talking about [REDACTED], we're talking about [REDACTED]
- 12 A. Yes.
- 13 Q. Okay. All right. So you arrive home a little bit after 2:00 o'clock you said, after she had called
- 14 you. What did she tell you when she called you?
- 15 A. She told me that um, that an officer had signed off my ticket, you know. I was like okay. And
- 16 then she said there was another part to it. She was telling me that uh, an officer came by; signed
- 17 off the ticket; and uh, was trying to make a pass at her. That supposedly before to be her friend
- 18 from the gym or whatnot, or one of their friends, and uh, basically just tried to make a pass at her
- 19 and you know, was doing some stuff that he wasn't supposed to do. And uh, wasn't letting her
- 20 leave back into the house or whatnot, and was uh, telling her you know, to go for a ride with me,
- 21 and just tell your boyfriend, you know, you'll be back in like 20 minutes. Just you know, just
- 22 ✓ take a ride with me. Why can't you go, you know, take a ride with me?
- 23 Q. Okay. At the time that she was telling you all this, were you actually driving home or were you
- 24 still at work?
- 25 A. I was still at work and then that's when she called me and I raced back home because I don't
- 26 want her, her to be there by herself.
- 27 Q. Okay. So according to [REDACTED] the officer told her to just tell her boyfriend that she'd be back in
- 28 about 20 minutes you say?
- 29 A. Yes.
- 30 Q. Okay.
- 31 A. He said he just wanted to talk. That that was a lie.

1 Q. Okay. All right. Now at the time that she brought up this other officer did you know which 2 officer she was talking about?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And how did you know which officer it was?

5 A. She had mentioned there was an officer that usually goes to the gym and deals with the calls and
6 the complaints at [REDACTED] and supposedly they're supposed to be their friends. He always talks to 7 them like in the morning time to make sure everything's all right, and that's how I knew about 8 him.

9 Q. Okay. So you you heard about past contacts between this officer and and [REDACTED] in the past?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. And to your knowledge there wasn't anything suspicious about her conversations or contacts
12 with this person in the past?

13 A. Not at all.

14 Q. Okay. Now when you were working that night, you said your shift was roughly 4:30 to 2:00 15 o'clock in the morning, which car, cuz you have ---- how many cars do you have registered to 16 you?

17 A. Two.

18 Q. Okay. And which car were you driving to Fremont that night?

19 A.

20 Q. Okay. So you're in the [REDACTED] and so at between the hours of say 10:30 and 12:00 o'clock
21 midnight of Tuesday, September the 12th, where would your 96 Impala have been parked?

22 A. At work. Fremont.

23 Q. In Fremont. Okay. Did you find out later from [REDACTED] that this officer actually signed off a fix-it
24 ticket for your [REDACTED] ?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. Okay. And what was the violation on the ticket that you got that needed to be signed off?

27 A. Uh, front license plate missing.

28 Q. So no front plate. And had you actually replaced the license plates by September the 12th?

29 A. Um, actually it was on there but then uh, I left for work so it was, it was replaced but he didn't 30 actually see the car.

31 Q. Okay. There's no way the officer could have actually seen if the license plate had been placed 32 back on the front of the car because it was parked in Fremont?

- 1 A. Yep.
- 2 Q. Okay. Okay. When [REDACTED] told you that the officer had hit on her and was talking about taking
- 3 her for a ride and telling her to tell her boyfriend that she'd be back on 20 minutes, did you ask
- 4 her to give you more details as to what happened that night?
- ✓ 5 A. Yeah, but it seemed like she didn't want to talk about it.
- 6 Q. Did you find out later why [REDACTED] didn't tell you a different story that night?
- 7 A. Yep.
- 8 Q. What was that?
- 9 A. I, what was
- 10 Q. What was the reason [REDACTED] didn't tell you what really happened that night?
- 11 A. Because she, she basically knows how I am and like how I react and I, I don't think that she ✓
- 12 wanted me to go to jail for any you know, stupidity - stuff like that or not because of my
- 13 daughter and my job. But she did, I did hear a different story.
- 14 Q. And when you say you heard a different story in regards to what happened that night, who did
- 15 you hear that story from?
- ✓ 16 A. Um, from her friend [REDACTED]
- 17 Q. Do you remember when [REDACTED] told you uh, this different version of the events?
- 18 A. Uh, it was sometime last week, I believe. I don't know the exact date but it was, before I went to
- 19 work.
- 20 Q. And what was it that [REDACTED] told you happened that night of Tuesday, the 12th of September?
- 21 A. She basically told me that um, almost got raped and uh, that the guy was kissing on her
- 22 neck, trying to grab her . . . was, you know, grabbing her like in places where he wasn't supposed
- 23 to and basically just being like pushy to the extent where she's about to be raped. And she kept
- ✓ 24 telling him to leave and uh,
- 25 Q. Did you ever contact [REDACTED] once you heard this story from [REDACTED]
- 26 A. I didn't contact her because we haven't really been talking and I mean I don't mind talking to
- 27 her, but we just haven't had no contact since.
- 28 Q. Okay. And just for the record, the reason there hasn't been any contact between you and [REDACTED] -
- 29 -- let's go back just a second. I'm sorry. On Tuesday, the 12th of September, you two were
- 30 living together at apartment 50. Is that correct?
- 31 A. Yes.

- 1 Q. Now since that time uh, something happened with your relationship and you separated and now
2 she's living at a different apartment. Is that correct?
- 3 A. Yes.
- 4 Q. Okay. So you both still live in the same complex; however, she lives in a different unit which is 5 why the two of you have not been communicating back and forth. Is that right?
- 6 A. Yes.
- 7 Q. All right. Now you showed me the actual ticket that was signed off by the officer. Can you tell 8 me what agency ~~it~~^{was} was that wrote you the original ticket?
- ✓ 9 A. Um, the agency was, one was from Oakland and one was from uh, San Jose.
- 10 Q. Okay. And the one you showed me today, what agency was that out of?
- 11 A. San Jose.
- 12 Q. Okay. And you also said that uh, the officer signed off uh, another ticket from the Oakland 13 Police Department?
- 14 A. Yes.
- 15 Q. And what happened with that ticket?
- 16 A. Um, (unintelligible)
- 17 Q. Um, what happened that, since we have that copy of the one that was signed by the officer
- 18 A. Oh, I turned that one in already to the PD. ^{Quinn}
- 19 Q. Okay. So you mailed it in?
- 20 A. Yeah. Actually I walked in the court and took care of it.
- 21 Q. Okay. And what was the violation on that Oakland Police Department
- 22 A. Uh, missing front license plate.
- 23 Q. So the same, same section.
- 24 A. Yeah.
- 25 Q. Okay. And was it the only violation on that ticket?
- 26 A. Yes.
- 27 Q. All right. And you had, actually uh, hand-walked it down to the courthouse. How long ago was 28 that?
- 29 A. I believe it was 2 weeks ago.
- 30 Q. Okay.
- 31 A. Basically right after he signed it, like about a week after that.

- 1 Q. Okay. Now since I'm not actually physically looking at the ticket because I don't have it, how 2 do you know it was the same officer that signed off the Oakland Police Department ticket that
3 also signed off the San Jose PD ticket?
- ✓ 4 A. I gave my, my ticket to [REDACTED] and she was going to have the officer sign both of them at the 5 same time.
- 6 Q. Okay. So did [REDACTED] tell you that the same officer signed off both tickets?
- 7 A. Yes.
- 8 Q. Okay.
- 9 Q1. When you uh, saw [REDACTED] the night this happened when you came home, did you notice 10 anything unusual about her?
- ✓ 11 A. She was actually laying down like she didn't want to like do nothing. I mean she was just like 12 trying to go to sleep like she was still awake.
- 13 Q1. Well, in the next day or so did you notice anything?
- 14 A. Um, I kept asking her about the story and she just kept kind of like brush it off and she looked 15 like there was something else wrong but she wasn't telling me.
- 16 Q1. Did you ever notice any marks on her?
- 17 A. There was uh, there was some marks on her arm but I didn't really even say nothing to her 18 because I thought it was just like whatever until the story came out and it was all falling into 19 place.
- 20 Q1. Whereabouts were the marks on her and what did they look like?
- 21 A. It just looked like like minor little tiny bruises like not really like major. Nothing like that cuz I
22 didn't think nothing of it. But you know, you just, she gets bruises on her legs or you know or 23 whatever. I don't really say nothing.
- 24 Q1. Where at on her arm was the bruise?
- 25 A. It was on like right around this area. It was on her right arm. It was little bit like right here like a 26 couple of little marks but like I said, I didn't really think nothing of it. You know what I mean?
- 27 Q1. So like on her bicep?
- 28 A. Yeah. Well, yeah, the bicep.
- 29 Q1. And then after you heard the story from [REDACTED] what conclusion did you draw about how she got 30 the mark?
- 31 A. How the officer really did um, come into my apartment and you know, try to be aggressive and 32 be pushy, and you know, try to have his way or whatnot. I mean it just all started making sense

1 to me. Why you know she was acting the way she was acting because she didn't want me to get
2 in trouble and do something violent. You know, do something I shouldn't do and then, I don't
3 blame her cuz I would have probably did something.

4 Q. [REDACTED]

5 Q1. Yeah, do you know, do you know a guy by the name of [REDACTED]

6 A. No.

7 Q1. You never met a guy named [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

8 A. No.

9 Q1. Do you know a girl by the name of [REDACTED]

10 A. No.

11 Q1. You've never met a girl by the name [REDACTED] Do you know a girl by the name of [REDACTED]

12 A. Um, my cousin. That's it.

13 Q1. What's her last name?

14 A. Uh, (unintelligible) al 7 90

15 Q. [REDACTED] is there anything else you can think that maybe the Lieutenant and I didn't cover or were 16 there any questions you had for me before I turn the tape recorder off?

17 A. 1345 Um, just about uh, about uh, wanting the police officer care getting back. I just wanted to

18 Q. That's right. Okay. You said that that same night the, the night that you came home from work
19 and, and [REDACTED] told you that this officer tried to uh, uh, pick up on her and uh, asked her if she 20 wanted to go take a ride, you said that later that morning you saw a police car drive through the 21 parking lot of your apartment complex?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And about how long after you got home do you remember seeing this car drive through 24 the lot?

25 A. Less than probably half an hour.

26 Q. And what drew your attention to the parking lot area?

27 A. I just, I could tell there was a cop coming in, I mean, actually a car. Sorry. A car coming really 28 fast. You know, just running off the bumps so I went to go check. I usually just check all the 29 time to see who's coming in and out. And it was an officer.

30 Q. Okay. As best you can, did you see the officer outside the car or was he still in inside the car?

31 A. Inside the car.

32 Q. Okay. To, the best you can, can you describe this person?

PAGE 8

- 1 A. Um, actually he had like short brown hair, or blackish because it was at the night time.
- 2 Q. Okay.
- 3 A. And uh, I couldn't really tell how tall he was cuz he just looked at me real quick and glanced
- 4 and then just kept driving off.
- 5 Q. Do you know what nationality this person was?
- 6 A. Looked white.
- 7 Q. Okay. So you say short brown hair; white male. Was there anything else about him you can
- 8 recall? It's tough if you're seated in a car.
- 9 A. It was just a coincidence that he would look at me, you know, exactly right when I'm standing
- 10 there.
- 11 Q. Okay. Let me ask you this. When you, cuz I know where apartment 50 is, from where you
- 12 were, were you looking through the open door or were you looking through a window?
- 13 A. Actually I was standing, the door was open and I was in the doorway.
- 14 Q. Okay. So from the, where you were standing in your apartment, from where the officer's car
- 15 drove by, how far away would you say that was?
- 16 A. Uh, about 10 feet.
- 17 Q. Okay.
- 18 A. Maybe even less.
- 19 Q. And how fast was this person driving past your apartment?
- 20 A. Say about less than 5.
- 21 Q. So is it safe to say you got a good look at this person?
- 22 A. Yeah. If you could put a lineup, I could, pretty sure.
- 23 Q. So if you saw this person's picture again, you think you'd be able to identify him?
- 24 A. Yep.
- 25 Q. Okay. Is there anything else you wanted to add before I turn the recorder off?
- 26 A. That's it.
- 27 Q. Okay. If that's the case then, we will cancel this

Q: Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta

Q1. Lieutenant Marc DeCoulode

A: [REDACTED]

Q. Okay. Today's date is Wednesday, the 27th of September, 2006. This is Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta. The time is now 16:37 hours. This is in regards to case 06-37694. I am at [REDACTED] on [REDACTED] I am in one of the offices. Also present is Detective Lieutenant Marc DeCoulode and we are speaking with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] And actually, [REDACTED] your full name, the first name is [REDACTED] Is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And [REDACTED] is [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] is the last name. You understand that I've got a tape recorder rolling? I just want to make sure you're aware of that?

A. Yeah.

Q. Do you have a problem with us tape recording our conversation?

A. No.

Q. Okay.

Q1. Just try to speak up a little bit

Q. Uh, I ~~spoke with~~ ^{explained to} you over the telephone. The reason we need to talk to you is because basically you were able to put together, before you even contacted the police, a situation that involved a

- 1 current friend of yours and your ex-girlfriend, and the fact that there may have been a situation
2 that happened with a police officer here in San Leandro. Why don't we go back first and let's go
3 back to your relationship with [REDACTED] Now [REDACTED] is, was a girlfriend of yours. Is that 4 correct? Is it safe to say that?
- 5 A. Yes.
- 6 Q. Okay. And you were dating [REDACTED] last year in 2005. Is that also correct?
- 7 A. Yes.
- 8 Q. Okay. Were you living with her at the time?
- 9 A. No.
- 10 Q. Okay. Uh, where was she living at that time, back in 05?
- 11 A. In uh, on [REDACTED] ? I think it was? Yeah.
- 12 Q. Okay. Okay. And who was she living at her apartment with at the time?
- 13 A. Um, her roommate [REDACTED] I'm thinking. I'm not sure of [REDACTED] because I know [REDACTED] moved in in 14 the past year but at that [REDACTED] was staying with her. Oh, that's right. [REDACTED] was living there with 15 with her husband at the time and then, they they moved out and then [REDACTED] moved back in. Yeah.
- 16 Q. Okay.
- 17 A. I think her and her husband wasn't there yet.
- 18 Q. Okay. And back in 05 [REDACTED] shared some concerns with you.
- 19 A. Yes.
- 20 Q. Okay. Why don't you explain to us what kind of concerns she had back in 2005 up to the 21 present?
- 22 A. Um, there was an officer that was like harassing us. He was telling friends like he pulled her
23 over one time and you know he told her to get out the car and walk backwards. You know, put 24 her hands up and walk backwards and then when she got back to his car, he said "I just want to 25 tell you you have a nice body," and then he, she got back in the car. She said he was trying to 26 touch her hair while he was talking to her. I don't, I don't really remember -- somehow he let 27 her leave or she left of her own or he let her leave. I don't really remember. And the one time
28 she was getting home with her son and I guess he pulled up in front of her car facing her car and 29 was talking some story how he got hurt. Somehow he got stitches in his hand and he pulled up
30 and he was telling her a story about when he got hurt. Telling her a story about something from a
31 while ago or whatever, and um, I guess, I think that's the time he gives her his business, his 32 business card. And then she came, she was telling me about this stuff and I mean I didn't think

1 too much harm in it. I just thought the guy has some kind of interest in her or whatever, and then
2 one time she told me he came to her house, and her friend [REDACTED] answered the door and she was.
3 and [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] had been sleeping, and he was in his street clothes. She even was 4 telling me what he was wearing. It was like a turtleneck and some sweatpants and something.
5 And um, and he said, "Okay. Can you tell her Greg stopped by?" And that's what she told me
6 and I thought that was a little bit weird. You know, somebody would come in her house like I
7 thought that maybe the guy had some interest in her. Oh, but I mean I don't think he, he hadn't.
8 ... I mean a crime? I don't think he had committed it yet so that's why I was like, you know,
9 "Okay. Well, you can report him. Maybe he'll leave me alone. Harassing me a little bit." I
10 mean I don't know. And I guess I don't know if there's any more incidences she told me about 11 unless she told me that he still, since the time that he came to her house, I don't think she's told 12 me anything else has happened since then. I know she told me he still parks out, out down the 13 street from her house or she can see him parked outside, but she really can't do anything cuz I
14 guess, you know, it's his area where he's supposed to go or whatever. And then is that it or did 15 you want me to go on?

16 Q. No, that's fine. You mentioned that she had said that he's still currently like parks down the 17 street

18 A. Uh-huh.

19 Q. Did she mention to you that she actually saw him in the car or was the car too far away or 20 A. I don't remember asking her. When she, when she told me that I figured she seen him. I hadn't.

21 I never asked her "How do you know it was him? You see his face?" No, I never asked her that.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. I just took her word like maybe she seen him or she recognized you know. I don't, I don't know.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. When she told me that that's all I heard.

26 Q. Okay. Now when [REDACTED] was explaining to you all these different incidents, what was your 27 reaction to that initially when she told you about all these things?

28 A. That, I just, I mean I took it as something like maybe she was, it was a ^{little} far fetched. Maybe he was 29 just like being a little extra nice. You know, she's a really pretty girl. He's being a little extra
30 nice. You know, maybe she was extending the truth maybe. You know maybe just to get my 31 attention. I didn't, I didn't know. I wasn't, I didn't take it too seriously. Like he didn't commit
32 a crime. He didn't like completely cross the line so I didn't know if it was something she was

- 1 just, maybe to come to my attention with. I don't know. That's just, I was guessing it was, it
2 seemed like weird make somebody tell her to get out of the car and walk backwards. You know,
3 "you have a nice body," and then to come . . . The come to her house part, I had to believe it
4 because why would she make that . . . tell me what he's wearing and her friend [REDACTED] had said it
5 too and like I thought, I thought maybe he was interested in her or something, but I mean, yeah,
6 that was my my . . . my thought was like "Okay. This is weird. Maybe he . . ." I told her,
7 "Maybe she could . . ." Well, I don't have his last name tomorrow. I don't have that card. I
8 don't have his ID. I don't have his badge number so what can I do? And he knows where I live.
9 What, what can I do? If it doesn't go through and he knows where I live. He can make, I have,
10 my, my son's safety, ^{is at stake here.} ~~his daycare.~~ And so, but since then last year, she hasn't said nothing about 11 it to me. I guess, you know, there's been no more incidents where he's actually contacted her.
12 She said she sees him or sees the police car that looks like his, I guess, down the street but since 13 then she hasn't said nothing about him.
- 14 Q Okay. You mentioned the card that he left.
- 15 A. Uh-huh.
- 16 Q. Did you ever see the card?
- 17 A. Yeah.
- 18 Q. Was it like a normal business card or what, could you describe what it looked like?
- 19 A. It was a Police Department card. He had, yeah, he had a regular business card. It wasn't just like 20 a personal card. It was a Police Department card. I know that, and that's all I can remember. I
21 don't, I mean I remember exactly where it was in the bathroom. I looked at it but besides that no,
22 I don't remember anything else.
- 23 Q. Okay. Do you remember what happened to that card?
- 24 A. No. Uh, it was in ^{her} ~~the~~ bathroom and I'll all, what, "If you're not going to nothing, why don't you 25 throw it away," or something like that. She goes, "Well, I don't need it. I'm not going to call,"
26 or, but no, that was last year. I don't remember if she threw it away or I threw it away. I don't 27 remember.
- 28 Q. So there's a chance one of you two threw it away?
- 29 A. Yeah. I mean to, to think, I don't know why she'd keep it if she wasn't going to call. I don't 30 know. I guess
- 31 Q. Do you remember if it had just typed print

- 1 A. I don't know if it was writing on it. I don't, I don't think it had, I don't know. I don't he wrote
2 anything or I just remember seeing a police card with a police officer's name on it and I don't
3 even remember that, if it's his name. You know, I mean, what, when [REDACTED] had told me the
4 name, it kind of you know, (unintelligible) a little bit because I remember her talking about it and 5 saying his name and stuff but I can't say for sure.
- 6 Q. Okay.
- 7 A. But the police card was a policeman, the name on it, you know, with, it was a Police Department
8 card. No, I'm pretty sure.
- 9 Q. Okay
- 10 A. Of that. Yeah.
- 11 Q. The question I was going to ask you was do you remember if it just had typed print on it or if 12 there was any kind of photograph on it or anything?
- 13 A. Oh, there was no pictures on it.
- 14 Q. Okay.
- 15 A. No.
- 16 Q. Okay.
- 17 A. Yeah, um, no, no. You know what? In my head right now I don't remember anything, like her
18 talking about it anytime. I can't picture this guy's face so I, I think if I saw his picture on there, I
19 would have a face in my head, but no, I don't um, I don't remember. I don't think it did because 20 I would have recognized the face.
- 21 Q. Okay. Now last year while all this is going on she's telling you about these different incidents 22 that are occurring
- 23 A. Uh-huh.
- 24 Q. ^{one}
~~And~~ You're asking her "Are you going to call ~~something~~ about this?" Are you kind of trying to push 25 her into a, into a direction where you want her to contact the authorities in regards to this 26 harassment?
- 27 A. Yeah. After she had told me that he stopped by her house, I had said, "Well, maybe you should."
28 She's like, "Well, I don't have his badge number. You know, I don't have his last name. I can't
29 find that card." And then she's talking about, I think she was she was telling me like "This guy
30 knows where I live, you know." And I'm all, "Well, what if he, what if something comes and 31 happens?" or some, I don't remember my exact conversation but I remember saying, "Well,
32 maybe you should do something." "He came in my house." I remember saying "Maybe you

1 should do something so . . ." She goes, "I can't. I don't have the card. I don't have his badge
2 number." And then that was it. I'm all, "Well, . . ." I remember telling her "You're not, and
3 there's no way you can get in trouble for it. I mean he can't do nothing to you," but . . . I don't 4 know, but it did get a little weird when he came to her house, but it wasn't like something that
5 took completely seriously but it, you know, it's a police officer. You're not going to, you know,
6 think anything bad can happen but you watch enough movies and . . .

7 Q. Right. And basically, what, what we would need to answer down the road is why she, she wasn't 8 even going to report this at all --- I'm assuming.

9 A. I, I don't think so.

10 Q. And do you think she would have, do you think she ever would have reported the incidents had 11 you not contacted her a couple of weeks ago?

12 A. No. I, she didn't, I'm surprised she remembered the name when I asked her "What do you, do 13 you remember . . ." I'm surprised she remembered his name. I don't think she would have 14 because like you said, I think she's worried about him knowing where she lives, and you know, if 15 it would just be her word against his and I'm pretty sure you know, her slate isn't clean. They're 16 going to look into her background and see all that and it's going be 'Yeah, right. You know, you
17 made this up,' or "You're exaggerating it." You know, I, that's, she wouldn't have done it. I
18 don't think so. I mean I don't know. I thought to myself would I do something like she wasn't 19 in like any other immediate danger ^{because} ~~cuz~~, you know, it's a police officer and it's something like he 20 was hands on her or you know, maybe stuff. I don't know. I just don't think she would because 21 like uh, I was thinking it would be more problems for her. Like this. She's like "I don't even 22 want to get involved." ^{I was} ~~It's~~ like, "You're volunteering information right now. It's like they're not 23 forced to to do nothing but maybe some help out because you saw this happening as well." So

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Yeah.

26 Q. All right.

27 A. That's basically how this (unintelligible)

28 Q. Okay. Do you know or did [REDACTED] ever tell you why she felt the contacts with this officer just 29 stopped?

30 A. No. She said he, "I still see him." I says . . . I remember like I didn't talk to her then about it.
31 I'm like I never even brought it up again after she said he came to her house and heard from him.
32 She told me he ^{never} came by again. I don't think I've ever asked her like if he came by again except

1 for last week when [REDACTED] would tell me about that. I'm all "Have you seen him?" This is like.
2 well, I don't, he doesn't came by or nothing like that. He never pulled me over but I still see him
3 parked down the street from my house or parked on the corner, but I can't, I don't know if that's
4 his route he said so . . . Now see I never asked her if he came by or anything. She never said
5 why he stopped coming by or anything like that though.

6 Q. Okay. When did you, about what time about, when did you two break off your relationship?
7 You and [REDACTED]

8 A. Um, that's a tough question. Like I said we're going to Vegas on Sunday, but like who, uh,

9 Q. So kind of on and off?

10 A. It's an on and off thing. Yeah. I mean it's a lot more often than it's on but what, it's never 11 completely stopped but yeah so

12 Q. Okay. Now let's switch gears and go forward to the present. You meet [REDACTED] through [REDACTED]

13 A. Uh-huh.

14 Q. Through working out. How long have you two been hanging out with each other?

15 A. Well, like she knows my friend [REDACTED] ^{at} and the gym and we all kind of go out a couple of times.
16 They've come out to Alameda, hung out like at the bar by my house. But I probably known
17 [REDACTED] through the gym let's say between 8 and 12 months. Sometime in the past, in the past year
18 - 8 to 12 months in the past. Yeah.

19 Q. Okay, so do you remember when [REDACTED] told you about this incident with the officer?

20 A. Um, I, the, the first time she told me I didn't, I wasn't really paying attention. It was in the I'd
21 say, ^{two} like maybe a night it happened or the night after. I mean two weeks, I think it was about 2
22 weeks ago she told me and I didn't pay that much attention to it and then when I seen her at the 23 gym, that day she's, she first came here and (unintelligible) to her about her ex-boyfriend,
24 something went on with her ex-boyfriend, I seen a bruise on her. I'm "What happened to you?"
25 And she's all, "That cop. I told you." Then I started to remember the story she told me about 26 how he came over to sign off a fix-it ticket and like the only thing I remember like that popped in 27 my head was she told me that I remember her saying that her brother was coming over so he had 28 to leave. And he was start, was grabbing on her, her, her rear and he was trying to kiss on her
29 neck. That the whole story I remember he was trying to kiss on her neck and he was grabbing on 30 her behind and she just told him he had to go because her brother's coming over. And I
31 remember her saying he was upset about something. I don't know if it was the next day or that

1 night. I remember her saying he was upset about something but I don't remember what it was 2 that he had to leave, I don't know.

3 Q. Who was upset?

4 A. The, the officer was upset. I don't remember if it was that night or the next day or something she
5 told him. or I don't remember when it was. I remember somebody was upset and that ~~stood~~ stuck in my 6 head. I go "He was upset because you made him leave?" I didn't understand.

7 Q. Okay. So, at some point once you've kind of digested what [REDACTED] has told you, you start putting 8 two and two together.

9 A. Yeah. Like I say I don't remember what made me, cuz I mean I wasn't with [REDACTED] I wasn't at 10 the gym. I had got home and oh, I think I was, I had talked to [REDACTED] on the phone and she told 11 me more about it. I'm all so then when she told me more about it, she told me more about the 12 (unintelligible) her ex-boyfriend, something like that, she's all, "I told him what happened about 13 my boyfriend, but that they were more interested (unintelligible) this is over a half an hour. I
14 remember. She, I talked to her on the phone and she was like, so I'm like "What happened?
15 What happened? What happened with your ex-boyfriend's stuff? What happened with that?"
16 She's all, they, you know they aren't going to do nothing but they're more concerned about you
17 know, what happened with the cop. I'm all, "The cops?" She goes, "Yeah, remember I told you 18 about there was a cop coming to my house?" I'm all, "You're more concerned with that?" And 19 she's all, "Yeah." Like "They're, you know, they're jumping off, you know, they're really like
20 interested in that." I'm all, "What is, why don't you tell me and I'll to get more information, like
21 a San Leandro cop?" And the only thing that she told me is his name is Greg and then I made her
22 get off the phone and then I was like I'm you know, "I'll I told her (unintelligible). My ex-girlfriend got 23 like harassed with a fuckin San Leandro cop too." I go "I wonder if it's the same guy." I'm like,
24 "I'm going to text her right now and find out and then I'm going to call you back. So I got off
25 the phone with her and text messaged my girlfriend "What was the name of that cop?" And then
26 she texted me, texted me Greg something. Um, Greg, she put Greg something. I don't remember
27 why? ~~what~~ and I told her to call me because it like right then, when she told me that, my, and my mind
28 started going crazy. I'm all "What are the chances out of all the names maybe with that name (unintelligible)," and then
29 that's where I started to ask her . . . I told her my, I told (unintelligible) the story. He's all "No
30 way." I'm all "Would you be, would you say, would you talk to them if they wanted to talk to 31 you?" Then I called [REDACTED] back and she called you and then wanted your number, her number (unintelligible)
32 and stuff number so . . .

- 1 Q. Right. Okay. Okay. So, and that was a couple of weeks ago when she, when she, when [REDACTED]
2 finally was able to explain all the details of what actually happened with the officer?
- 3 A. Yeah, I told, not 14 days. Let's say sometime about a week and a . . . 10, 10 days to two weeks.
4 Yeah. I remember, yeah.
- 5 Q. Have you ever seen this officer that, that they're talking about?
- 6 A. Have I seen him? I don't know. If, I don't know if I seen him. I mean if you show me his face,
7 I'd tell you if I seen the guy around but supposedly works out here. Supposedly. If, maybe,
8 maybe I seen his face. I don't, I just know, I don't know, you know, I can't, I can't, I keep 9 (unintelligible) seen him around [REDACTED] so I don't know who it would be anyway. How about 10 (unintelligible)? He uh, probably seen him, but I don't know. Show me a picture of him I could 11 tell you if I seen him.
- 12 Q. Okay.
- 13 Q1. Did you ever meet, or do you know [REDACTED]'s boyfriend?
- 14 A. No.
- 15 Q1. You never met him.
- 16 A. Uh, she showed me a picture of him on the phone of him but . . . showed me the picture on the 17 phone of him but I've never seen him. I don't recognize him. (unintelligible) but no, I've not 18 seen him. She's been with him, I guess she's been with him for a while and she was living with 19 him but I don't, going over there staying there sometimes but I don't, I've never seen him.
- 20 Q. Would [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have ever met each other? I asked you that question. Did [REDACTED] and 21 [REDACTED] know each other before you told [REDACTED] about [REDACTED]
- 22 A. No. Um, [REDACTED] is like, I don't even think [REDACTED] got her (unintelligible). [REDACTED] does but
- 23 Q1. [REDACTED]
- 24 A. [REDACTED] does but I don't. [REDACTED] knows about my ex-girlfriend and you know, stuff we've 25 gone through but I think [REDACTED] knows I have an ex-girlfriend but I don't think she knows
26 anything that about [REDACTED] And [REDACTED] doesn't know anything about [REDACTED] except for my 27 friends at the gym. Those are my friends at the gym - you know, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] you know.
- 28 Q. Have those two women
- 29 A. Even if I ask [REDACTED] name, some who? Cuz I told them I'll get [REDACTED] just happened to mention
30 uh, who? I'm all, you know one of my friends at the gym. She's like "Oh, really?" Yes,
31 ~~they don't~~ (unintelligible) don't even know anything. I ^{mean} (unintelligible) She, I don't think ever even seen

1 them before, but I don't know. She might have seen them but I mean I don't know. But no, they
2 don't know each other at all.

3 Q. And of course, the reason I ask that

4 A. Yeah

5 Q. Is because you know, we can use the word coincidence. You know, I even asked you, "What are 6 the odds of either them knowing

7 A. Either big odds or this has happened to a lot more people than I know . . . that's when I tell
8 people I'm all, "What are the chances of even just saying something?" I know, that's that sounds
9 like something that's happened before, and ^{then} that's why when I heard his name, it's like oh, it
10 almost brought tears to my eyes. I'm like, cuz it's such a coincidence. I'm all, "Man, that's . . ."

11 Q. Right. Is there anything else that you can think of that maybe I haven't asked you about that you 12 can share with me that may help us in this investigation?

13 A. Um.

14 Q. Or if something comes up later ^{and} you remember something else

15 A. I'm trying to think if there's anything else to tell, any other incidences that they tell me about like 16 that she's seen him, but I . . . I like, I don't know if he's, if he pulled over once or twice but I, I,
17 I think it's more than once but I don't remember. The only thing I remember is just she told me
18 she was walking backwards and

19 Q1 Before

20 A. Yeah, I don't know. He might have pulled her over more than once. That I just don't remember
21 because like I said, it was last (unintelligible)

22 Q. But the fact of the matter is you weren't with . . . during these incidents?

23 A. Yeah, in the apartment though not at all.

24 Q. So everything that you know about the incidents is second-hand information to you from [REDACTED]

25 A. Yeah. And then [REDACTED] it's all second-hand, what they told me in separate (unintelligible)

26 Q. If something comes up later and I have more questions for you, do you have any problem with 27 me coming back out to contact you?

28 A. Yeah, that's why I gave, ^{you have} ~~I'll give you~~ my number.

29 Q. All right. All right. If that's it ^{we'll go ahead and conclude the} 30 interview with ^{The time is now 1656 hours.}

Q: Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta

Q1: Lieutenant Marc DeCoulode

A: [REDACTED]

- 18 Q. Okay. Today's date is Thursday, the 28th of September, 2006. The time is now 1317 hours.
19 This is Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta. This is in regards to case 06-37694. I am at 20 California. Also present is Lieutenant Marc DeCoulode. And we are 21 interviewing [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] spelled Is that 22 correct, [REDACTED] on the spelling?
- 23 A. Yeah.
- 24 Q. You understand that I'm recording our conversation?
- 25 A. Yeah.
- 26 Q. And you have no problem with me doing that?
- 27 A. No.
- 28 Q. Okay. Before I turned the tape recorder on, the three of us had a chance to talk about some 29 things. I, we asked you basically if you recalled a visit to the apartment at 30 , some time ago by a police officer who was, appeared to be off duty. Is that correct?
- 31 A. Yeah.

- 1 Q. Okay. And I asked you if you would recognize that person if you saw him again. You said you
2 thought you would. And I then read you a photo lineup admonition and then I placed in front of
3 you a photo lineup with six color photographs and had you take a look at it. And what did you
4 tell me when I laid the photograph lineup in front of you?
- 5 A. At first it didn't ^{look} necessarily look familiar because of the facial hair, but if I took the facial hair off 6 one of them that was him.
- 7 Q. Okay. And which photograph was that?
- 8 A. Number 2
- 9 Q. Okay. So the the person depicted in photograph #2 is the person who actually came to your 10 house and you've seen him since then in police uniform. Is that correct?
- 11 A. Yes.
- 12 Q. But the morning that he came to the apartment on [REDACTED], he was actually dressed not 13 in uniform but in regular clothing, street clothes?
- 14 A. Yeah. Turtleneck and sweatpants.
- 15 Q. Turtleneck and sweatpants.
- 16 ~~Q1.~~ How do you remember so specifically what it was?
- 17 A. Because it scared me. I remember exactly and they were both black.
- 18 Q. Okay. Now we can go ahead and go back a little bit, get some history here. You and your 19 husband and your kids at one point... oh, I'm sorry.
- 20 Q1. Yeah. Why did it scare you? You said it scared you but how come?
- 21 A. Just because it was odd and at ^{this} that point, [REDACTED] kept telling ^{me} of these other incidents that were 22 happening and I seen him drive by on a couple of occasions at that point. Um, again, I hadn't
23 seen his face until he came to the door so I didn't necessarily know that it was him for sure that 24 was driving by. But she would get freaked out and come into the house or if she was there, she 25 would, you know, keep me on the phone when she would come home late because she was 26 nervous that he was going to be out there cuz there was a couple of occasions that he stopped her
27 and ended up ^{wherever} wherever she was or wherever he went. So when he came to the door and then
28 ~~X~~ before that he just had given her a business card and it was on the bathroom counter. So when he 29 came to the door, yeah, like I didn't answer. You know, I kept the gate locked. Opened up the 30 door and it just was really weird. And I could tell that he wasn't expecting me to be there just 31 because of his facial expression. And he stepped back because he was at the front door; stepped 32 back like to the second step so he wasn't as close to me. Um, and I guess, I just for whatever

- 1 reason, I remember exactly what had on ^{asked} asking for her, and I said, "No, she's sleeping." He said,
2 "Okay," and kind of turned his head. "Can you tell her Greg came by?" And he left. And I
3 looked at the card and I said, "It's that cop." And we were scared. I told her that she should call.
4 Q1. Was it a regular business card of ~~of~~ ^{or} ~~it~~ ^{was} ~~it~~ ^{was} picture,
5 A. No, it was his uh, officer whatever, and it ~~has~~ ^{was} picture,
6 Q1. So what did look like? Have you ever seen a similar ~~type~~ ^{card} card to that?
7 A. No, I ~~think~~ ^{mean} I haven't had incidents that I have police officers give me their card.
8 Q1. Well, maybe not a police card. Did it remind you of any other thing?
9 A. No, it was like a business card.
10 Q1. You ever see a baseball trading card?
11 A. Oh, yeah. On the back it has ~~the~~ ^{was} information on the back of it.
12 Q1. And a picture on the front.
13 A. Uh-huh. Yeah.
14 Q. Did the card look like, look like a trading card? Like a baseball trading card?
15 A. Yeah. Now that you say that.
16 Q. You just made a comment too that [REDACTED] would call you if she actually had seen him ⁷
17 A. Yeah.
18 Q. This officer. What would she, would she ask you to do something in particular?
19 A. Stay on the phone with her when she came in the house.
20 Q. Did she say why she did this?
21 A. Because she was scared that he would, he was going to be there or when she got out of the car or 22 something. She wasn't comfortable with it.
23 Q. And how many times did that happen that where she would actually call you and have you stay
24 on the line with her?
25 A. I don't know the exact number. I know it was, you know, more than 2 less than 10.
26 Q. Okay. All right. And we will go back to all that.
27 A. Uh-huh.
28 Q. But let me get go further back into the history here. You and your husband and your kids at one
29 time lived with [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. Is that correct?
30 A. Yes.
31 Q. Okay. Do you remember roughly - I know we were, kind of tried to go over this, roughly the 32 dates when you lived with [REDACTED] Or what years?

- 1 A. I want to say that um, since it came up I know the month of March. I'm, I'm pretty positive that
2 it was 04 because I know that we were there for Christmas. I want to say that we moved in there
3 some time around October of 04. October, November, December, January, February, March.
4 Yeah. It was somewhere within that timeframe cuz I know that we were there for Christmas in
5 04 and um, at that point, it was March that I moved into my house. in fact I did it
6 Q. Of 05
7 A. Of 05. I know that cuz I waited until April to do both of my kids' birthday parties because we
8 moved in at that time and I have a March 12th and an April 9th (unintelligible) at the end of 9 March. I remember because I didn't have a kitchen table or anything yet so I know that it was 10 that month. So I know . . . (laughter)
11 Q. Okay. So, before this visit by this officer, had you ever seen him in the capacity of a police 12 officer when he was in uniform before that?
13 A. Before he came to the house?
14 Q. Right.
15 A. I seen him in uniform in his car, yes, but again, I hadn't seen his face so I didn't know who I was 16 actually looking at. I was just going off of what [REDACTED] was telling me (unintelligible).
17 Q. Okay.
18 A. When he would drive by the house.
19 Q. Okay. And when you say he drove by the house, are we talking on [REDACTED]
20 A. [REDACTED]
21 Q. On
22 A. He would drive right in front of the house on 23 Q. Okay. And would he drive, like say like the speed limit or 24 A. No, he would slow down.
25 Q. You couldn't say it was the same officer as they, as he drove by. You were going based on what 26 [REDACTED] had told you?
27 A. Yes.
28 Q. Okay. And, about how many times do you remember this police car driving by slowly past your 29 house?
30 A. I seen him at least 2 or 3, myself.
31 Q. Did the officer do anything out of the ordinary? Was there any activation of any lights or any 32 honking of the ~~the~~ horn, or anything like that as is, as he drove past?

- 1 A. No. He would just slow down and he would just, and he would kind of look and so he was 2 looking as he was driving. His head was kind of you know, as he would still pass me by still 3 kind of looking.
- 4 Q. Towards your apartment?
- 5 A. Correct. And her front door faces right out into the street.
- 6 Q. You said about 2 or 3 times. Do you remember the times of day or night these incidents would 7 happen where he would drive by? We're talking morning time, afternoon, evening?
- 8 A. It generally wasn't evening because we, it was daylight so it was, you know, it could have been 9 morning or afternoon. I don't remember the specifics on that. But I know that it was light 10 outside.
- 11 Q. Okay. So [REDACTED] had told you, I'm assuming that she had some contact by this police officer, or 12 with this police officer.
- 13 A. Yes.
- 14 Q. Had she ever mentioned any contacts by any other police officers?
- 15 A. No.
- 16 Q. Okay. And do you recall the first time [REDACTED] mentioned to you that she had a, a run-in, or a 17 contact with this officer? The details of that?
- 18 A. Um, I don't know. I remember this story, and I haven't talked to her about it, but for some 19 reason I remember this story, which was that or maybe it was about a (unintelligible mumbling)
20 but um, I know that there was one to where he pulled her over um, because in front of the house,
21 on the side, which is there is a fire thing. and it's red. So, he pulled her over, you
22 know, she was parking and then kind of warned her that she was like somewhat in the red, which,
23 no, she wasn't. We always park there. Um, so there was, I know that there was that incident.
24 Don't know if it was the first one, but I do remember her saying that.
- 25 Q. Uh-huh.
- 26 A. Um, I could be wrong on this, but I want to say that something happened that she was, that she 27 felt she was kind of blocked in. I don't know if, I can't remember if there was like a dead end
28 street, alley, something. I don't remember and I want to say that that one might have been like 29 the first incident. I don't remember if it was ^{her tinted} (unintelligible) emergency windows or just 30 something that you know, wasn't really needed to be pulled over for.
- 31 Q. So she felt that she was blocked in?
- 32 A. Yeah.

- 1 Q. Do you remember any other, any other details of that contact?
- 2 A. No.
- 3 Q. And she didn't, so you're, you're telling me that this incident was, stemmed from the officer 4 pulling her over?
- 5 A. Yes.
- 6 Q. Okay. Would she have told you about these incidents right after they happened or would, would 7 you say she'd wait a while to tell you? Days? A week?
- 8 A. Right after that happened.
- 9 Q. Right after?
- 10 A. Yeah.
- 11 Q. Okay. The morning that the officer showed up in street clothes
- 12 A. Uh-huh.
- 13 Q. Earlier that morning
- 14 A. Uh-huh.
- 15 Q. Or late in the evening, however you want to refer to it - did something happen between this 16 officer and [REDACTED] Or do you recall [REDACTED] mentioning anything to you that night before, the 17 morning before?
- 18 A. I want to say something something did. I don't know if that was the time that he gave her the 19 business card or that . . . was that around the time that [REDACTED] cut his hand? I want to say ^{that} there
20 was something. That's why we were so freaked out that he showed up at her house. Not in 21 uniform, in street clothes. There was something within the few, I don't know if it was ex, exactly
22 like the night before but I know there was something really close within the few days cuz then 23 that's why she was like, "I'm not going to answer it," so that's, so I went to the door.
- 24 Q. Okay.
- 25 A. Cuz it was just really strange. She's was like, "He keeps . . ." and you know, he was just 26 popping up and showing up and and for him to come at that, there was something. I don't 27 remember the specifics but it was. like
- 28 Q. Okay. Do you recall if you or [REDACTED] saw this officer where there was actual conversation 29 between the officer and [REDACTED] after he showed up in his street clothes?
- 30 A. I never seen conversation.
- 31 Q. Do you know if [REDACTED] had any contacts with the officer where she actually had conversation 32 with him after this incident where he showed up in his street clothes?

- 1 A. I don't remember.
- 2 Q. Okay. All right. So let's go to the morning when the officer shows up in his street clothes.
- 3 About what time of the morning was that roughly?
- 4 A. Um, it was somewhere between 8 and 10 so that I know that it wasn't uh, it couldn't have been
- 5 any later than that but I know that it wasn't any earlier than that.
- 6 Q. And what happened that morning?
- 7 A. Um, [REDACTED] really was still in bed. I had got out of the shower. The doorbell rang. I went to the
- 8 door. I remember looking through the peephole; ran back in there to [REDACTED] telling her that it
- 9 was him. She's like, "I'm not going to the door." So then I opened the door. The gate was still
- 10 um, locked and I remember I didn't open the door like all the way on because I just got out of the
- 11 shower, so I just was like in a towel and I was like freaked out. And I'm all, um, you know, "Hi.
- 12 Can I help you?" And he asked for [REDACTED] specifically. I said that she was sleeping. Before
- 13 that, that's when he kind of, that's when he walked, first he was right up at the door. He walked
- 14 down. There's like 3 steps before you get up into the porch. He walked down to the step and he
- 15 said, "Um, okay. Can you uh, just tell her Greg, ^{or Craig} came by?" And I said, "Sure." And he
- 16 turned around and walked to the left; not towards ^{but} towards so I didn't see a car or
- 17 anything like that. I just like closed the door and went into her room. I was like, "That was
- 18 him," and I remember looking at the card again. But yeah, that was him.
- 19 Q. So at that time you actually still had this business card or trading card?
- 20 A. Yeah.
- 21 Q. And once he left, you, you actually picked up the card and looked at it?
- 22 A. Yeah.
- 23 Q. And said, "Yeah, this is the same guy?"
- 24 A. Yeah.
- 25 Q. Okay. Also the same guy that, in the photo lineup I showed you?
- 26 A. Yes.
- 27 Q. Okay. So you went back to [REDACTED] room, while he's still on the front porch, and you ^{go} get to her
- 28 and say, "That's him."
- 29 A. Uh-huh.
- 30 Q. Or "He, he's here."
- 31 A. Uh-huh.
- 32 Q. How did you know at that time that that was the same person that she had been talking about?

- 1 A. It had to, I don't know. I mean I don't remember so with that I'm thinking that an incident had to 2 have happened or if [REDACTED] had got up and maybe looked with me and then went back into the
3 room? I don't know the specifics but I know that at that point just because of the things that were 4 going on.
- 5 Q. Okay. And [REDACTED] told you that she didn't want to answer the door?
- 6 A. Yeah.
- 7 Q. Why did she say that again?
- 8 A. Um, she said, I don't know . . . you know she was scared. I think it was just weird to her. Why 9 is he coming to the house? I mean he's not in uniform.
- 10 Q. Okay. So when you finally open the door you don't even open it all the way?
- 11 A. Uh-huh. Um-huh.
- 12 Q. And why didn't you open it all the way?
- 13 A. I was in a towel. (laughter)
- 14 Q. Okay.
- 15 A. (laughter - unintelligible) I just wanted to make sure that the gate was locked.
- 16 Q. Okay. ^{we've} And you've already gone over it but I want to go over it one more time.
- 17 A. Uh-huh.
- 18 Q. Your conversation, your brief conversation with him.
- 19 A. Uh-huh.
- 20 Q. On the front porch. You acknowledge him.
- 21 A. Yeah.
- 22 Q. And then what does he say to you?
- 23 A. He asked if [REDACTED] was there.
- 24 Q. And he asked for her by name?
- 25 A. Yes.
- 26 Q. Okay. And what did he, how did you respond?
- 27 A. I told him that she was sleeping.
- 28 Q. Okay.
- 29 A. She was still sleeping.
- 30 Q. And what did he say to you?
- 31 A. At that point he just said, "Okay. Can you tell her that Greg came by?"
- 32 Q. Did you ask him anything else before he left?

- 1 A. No, not that I remember.
- 2 Q. And then he walked towards [REDACTED] ; not towards [REDACTED]
- 3 A. Correct.
- 4 Q. And you were unable to see any kind of vehicle.
- 5 A. Correct.
- 6 Q. You described him as wearing a black turtleneck and a black pair of sweats.
- 7 A. Yeah. Sweatpants.
- 8 Q. Do you recall if the, if the turtleneck had short sleeves or long sleeves?
- 9 A. They were long.
- 10 Q. Long sleeves. Okay. Was there anything else about his dress that uh, stands out?
- 11 A. No, like other than I mean the turtleneck. I mean the turtleneck like I was thinking he was
- 12 coming from the gym or something. You know.
- 13 Q. Okay.
- 14 A. He was just, just dressed kind of nothing.
- 15 Q. Okay. All right.
- 16 Q1. Did uh, currently you're staying with [REDACTED]?
- 17 A. Correct.
- 18 Q1. And you guys have talked about this in detail?
- 19 A. No.
- 20 Q1. Discussed this at all?
- 21 A. No.
- 22 Q1. So in the last ^{say} two to three weeks um, she hasn't sat down and talked to you about us talking to
- 23 her?
- 24 A. She didn't go into details ^{she said} ~~except~~ that there was somebody else who this had happened to. She
- 25 got a phone call. Um, she told me that she told this person it was okay to give the female I guess
- 26 it was happening to, her name cuz, you know, she'd like to talk to her. Um, at that point there
- 27 wasn't any police involved. Um, she did tell me that. Then she told me um, she called me the
- 28 day that officers went to her job and said uh, I want to say she like verified my phone number or
- 29 something and said that um, officers came to her job or that you, somebody was there with her.
- 30 And um, if it was okay that they contact me. And I said "sure."
- 31 Q1. Do you ever recall her describing an incident to you where either this officer or another officer
- 32 may have made a traffic stop on her?

- 1 A. Well, I think that was the one about her tinted windows or something. It, it was something like
2 that. She did tell me that it, she was stopped. Pulled over. And I want to say it was, I mean it
3 was something like ridiculous.
- 4 Q1. Now during the course of that stop, did she ever relate to you that the officer maybe said things 5 or did things or, might have been a little unusual?
- 6 A. I don't remember specifics but I do remember that she was like uncomfortable. She did tell me
7 that it was like kind of weird and you know, that she wasn't comfortable with it, but honestly I
8 don't remember um . . . I just remember any conversation that when, ^{you know} that took place in regards to 9 that, he said that off, officer was always, you know, being real, you know, uneasy about it.
- 10 Q. You said fairly recently that you had actually seen a police car parked or stopped near the 11 apartment on . Is that correct?
- 12 A. No.
- 13 Q. Okay. I thought that you had made the comment that you actually ~~had~~ seen, or is that in the 14 past?
- 15 A. In the past.
- 16 Q. That you had seen it.
- 17 A. I haven't seen anything recent.
- 18 Q. Okay. When was the last time you saw a police car stopped or parked in the area of your 19 apartment? Just one of those things where it may have happened last year?
- 20 A. Yeah. I definitely, it, there hasn't been anything —
- 21 Q. Okay.
- 22 A. — Since I've been ^{here} ~~her~~ now.
- 23 Q. Okay. And how many times did you say that has actually happened? We already talked about 24 this car driving by. How many times would you say you have actually seen a police car parked 25 nearby, near the apartment?
- 26 A. Um, I, I mean I know it's been ^{like} less than 5. I can say that. I mean a specific time . . .
- 27 Q. And that
- 28 A. And he
- 29 Q. Are you assuming that it's probably last year
- 30 A. Yeah.
- 31 Q. The last time you saw it?
- 32 A. I know that it, again, not since I've been here now.

- 1 Q. Okay. And less than 5 times you said?
- 2 A. Yeah.
- 3 Q. Did you know whether or not the officer that we're talking about here today was the same person
- 4 that was in that car?
- 5 A. No. Because um, I remember one time he was there and [REDACTED] was like telling me that was
- 6 him, but again, this was before he had come to the house so I didn't see his face. And you know,
- 7 I mean this was a cop car parked on . so -
- 8 Q. Did she say, or did you see where on . the car was parked in relation to your apartment?
- 9 A. This was past, a little past . on um, like coming in, you know, to her apartment.
- 10 Q. So off to the side of the street?
- 11 A. It was right there. Opposite side of the street. Little like past the field of the - 12
- 13 Q. Okay.
- 14 A. And the few times that I seen it that's where that particular car was parked.
- 15 Q. Do you remember is, when the car was parked if any of its lights were on or were they all off,
- 16 and what time of the day or night this was?
- 17 A. I don't remember.
- 18 Q. Okay. I'll just ask, ask this uh, ^{kinda} point blank - why didn't, once [REDACTED] told you what was going
- 19 on, you got a feel for these incidents and made the comment that you had thought it was strange -
- 20 what was going on - why ^{didn't} did you call the authorities uh, in regards to this officer's actions?
- 21 A. I mean it's sad to say but I mean this day and time it's a cop. (laughter). I mean you just, you
- 22 hear things, you see things. I mean a cop is supposed to be somebody who's gonna, you know,
- 23 protect you. I guess I watch too much TV and it's just, I think I, I was more fearful than, you
- 24 know what I mean? I mean I would like tell her, and like "Whoa," like the (unintelligible) me,
- 25 you know, but then to come to your house. I mean you just hear really bad things happen.
- 26 Q. So you were, is it safe to say that you were fearful of some sort of retaliation?
- 27 A. Yeah.
- 28 Q. Okay. Did you ever sit down and have a conversation with [REDACTED] in regards to the same
- 29 question I just asked you?
- 30 A. Yeah. I mean pretty much it was, you know, like something, but you know, like you should call
- 31 or just, in general, you know, and again she was like, "No." But, you know, I, it's scary.
- 32 Q. Did she feel the same way as you? Was she fearful or retaliation?

- 1 A. ^{hope} I told her so. Yeah.
- 2 Q. Okay.
- 3 A. It's like once you're in that situation, you know, you just never know how you're going to react.
- 4 You know. Like when you hear other people's stories, you're like, "Oh, that person was pretty
- 5 stupid. I would call. I would turn him in." But then, but then you know, you're in it and you're
- 6 like "Well, yeah, that's like way ^{to} personal. It's at home." Cuz I watch too much TV. They
- 7 wind up dead or hurt, you know.
- 8 Q. Yeah.
- 9 Q1. Do you know um, [REDACTED] boyfriend's name?
- 10 A. The ex-boyfriend?
- 11 Q1. Yeah.
- 12 A. [REDACTED]
- 13 Q1. Okay. Did you ever talk to him about this at all?
- 14 A. Well, he was the one who called her and was like, "Hey, what is that. what was that cop's
- 15 name?"
- 16 Q1. No, I meant when this happened. Or, or back then when it was going on did you guys ever sit
- 17 around and talk about it at all?
- 18 A. Um, honestly I didn't, not that I remember. I mean
- 19 Q1. Okay.
- 20 A. ^{you know} At the, him and I didn't get along very much. I just didn't keep in contact with him.
- 21 Q1. And then do you know a girl named uh, [REDACTED] or. ?
- 22 A. I mean I know several.
- 23 Q1. Do you know the other girl that this might have happened to that [REDACTED] was talking about?
- 24 A. No, I don't know her personally.
- 25 Q1. Okay. You know of her a little bit? ^{AD}
- 26 A. I just know her um, because her and ^(?) go to the gym together and it's just, you know,
- 27 situation you know, he called and said, "Oh, I" and you know. Just because of that.
- 28 Q1. All right.
- 29 A. I don't know her on a personal level.
- 30 Q. Is there anything else you can think of that maybe the three of us haven't talked about in relation
- 31 to this incident or these incidents that occurred either last year or the year before? Is there
- 32 anything else you can think of that we haven't addressed yet?

1 A. No, not that I, I can think of.

2 Q. Okay. If something came up and I thought of another question, or something comes up down
3 the road, would it be okay for me to re-contact you?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. Okay. All right. Well that'll conclude my
6 interview ^{then} with [REDACTED] The time
7 is now thirteen forty-four hours.

heard of an incident that he, or that the, a officer pulled her over and just kind of getting into conversation with her. Or it could have been the time she hurt his hand and was like, "Oh, I'm here for you if you need anything," cuz I do, you know, ^{like} remember that. Something about, I don't remember if he showed up or what he did or contacted her, but it was something and so he brought up that information. You know . . . that he had a wife and kids so he understood and that part of it

Q. Okay. Fair enough. Good. The time is now 1349 hours and that'll conclude my interview with [REDACTED]

Q: Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta

Q1: Lieutenant Marc DeCoulode

A: [REDACTED]

Q. Okay. Today's date is Friday, the 29th of September, 2006. The time is now 10:30 a.m. This is in regards to case number 06-37694. This is Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta. I am at the Hayward Superior Courthouse and I am in the District Attorney's Office. Also present is Lieutenant Marc DeCoulode and we are speaking with [REDACTED] who is an employee of the Alameda County District Attorney's Office. [REDACTED] you understand that I have my tape recorder rolling right now?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And you have no problems with me taping our conversation?

A. No.

Q. Okay. You and I and the Lieutenant had a chance to talk for a few minutes before I turned the tape recorder on. I explained to you why I was here and I mentioned to you that uh, I had received word that potentially you had been contacted by one of our police officers quote - a couple of years ago - you mentioned. And the look on your face told me that you knew exactly what I was talking about. Is it safe to say that?

A. Yes.

- 1 Q. Okay. Before we go on with any of the interview in regards to what we had talked about, has 2 anything like this ever happened to you with any other police officer in this city, the City of San 3 Leandro?
- 4 A. No.
- 5 Q. Okay. We tried to narrow down a date of when this potentially happened and you talked about 6 the dates of, the approximate date that you moved into your current address. And what is your 7 current address?
- 8 A. [REDACTED]
- 9 Q. Okay. And you moved into [REDACTED] you mentioned . . . well, when do you think it was?
- 10 A. I think it was in 2002 or 3
- 11 Q. Okay. And how long have you been working for the DA's Office?
- 12 A. 7 years in January.
- 13 Q. Okay. Okay. So you received a visit and we'll go back. You received a visit from one of our 14 officers at your residence. At that time he was in his street clothes. What was the officer's name 15 that came by your house?
- 16 A. Greg Cannedy.
- 17 Q. Okay. And as I mentioned, when Officer Cannedy came by your house, he was not acting, he 18 was not working at the time. He was not in police uniform. Is that correct?
- 19 A. Right.
- 20 Q. Okay. Now let's go back to the circumstances that led up to that. There's a, you mentioned that 21 Officer Cannedy saw you at one of the restaurants in town.
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. Why don't you tell me how, how that all happened?
- 24 A. We, I was having a few drinks with some friends at the [REDACTED] And he came to use the 25 restroom and we saw each other.
- 26 Q. Okay. So you had a conversation?
- 27 A. Right.
- 28 Q. Do you remember the details of that conversation?
- 29 A. Um, we just, small talk and then he asked um, if I was going to be okay to drive home. And he 30 wanted me to call him when I got home to make sure I was okay.
- 31 Q. How many other friends do you remember being there with you?
- 32 A. A lot.

- 1 Q. Okay.
- 2 A. At least 10.
- 3 Q. Okay. So he said uh, he asked you if you were okay. If you were okay to
- 4 A. To drive home.
- 5 Q. To drive home.
- 6 A. Because I had had a few drinks.
- 7 Q. Okay. And then his comment to you was, "Call me when you get home."
- 8 A. "Call me when you get home so I know that you're okay."
- 9 Q. That you're okay. How was he supposed to you? How, how would he know your phone
- 10 number?
- 11 A. He didn't know my phone number. I, he gave me his.
- 12 Q. Okay.
- 13 Q1. Do you remember what he gave it to you on?
- 14 A. I think one of the cards, the business cards.
- 15 Q1. Business card or a trading card?
- 16 A. A business card.
- 17 Q1. Okay.
- 18 Q. So he gave you instructions that once you got home to give him a call so that he knows you made
- 19 it home safe.
- 20 A. Right.
- 21 Q. So you remember about what time that was when you were at the [REDACTED]
- 22 A. Um, I don't remember. It had to have been maybe 10'ish.
- 23 Q. Okay.
- 24 A. Maybe later. I'm not sure.
- 25 Q. Okay. Did he ever make any sort of comment to you while he was at the [REDACTED] that he was
- 26 going to come by your house and actually check up on you?
- 27 A. No.
- 28 Q. Okay. All right. Had he made that comment to you, would you have said it's okay to?
- 29 A. I would have told him not to.
- 30 Q. Okay. Why?
- 31 A. Because I didn't want him there.

- 1 Q. Okay. So you subsequently make it home. Do you remember about what time you arrived home
2 that night?
- 3 A. It must have been around 11, 11:30 because I think some friends were going to continue to go out
4 and I decided not to. I decided to go straight home.
- 5 Q. Okay. And what did you do once you got home?
- 6 A. Once I got home I went to bed.
- 7 Q. Okay. Did you end up calling Officer Cannedy?
- 8 A. On the way home, I called because I went, I told him I was going out with friends and that's why
9 he wanted me to call him when I got home. And I decided not to go out with my friends so I just 10 called him. Said "Everything's fine. I'm going home now." I left him a message. He didn't 11 pick up. And I just went straight home. Just put my pajamas on. Went to bed.
- 12 Q. Okay. So you go to bed and then what happens?
- 13 A. My cell phone rings and I choose to ignore it.
- 14 Q. Okay. Do you remember how long after you left the message for him that your cell phone rang?
- 15 A. I don't know because I fell asleep.
- 16 Q. Okay. So what happens after that after you ignore the first phone call?
- 17 A. It shortly rang again after the first time and I really wanted to go to sleep so I decided to answer
18 it. And uh, it was him and he wanted to know if I was okay. I said, "Yes, I'm fine." And he just 19 kept talking and then finally it turned out that he was at my front door.
- 20 Q. And how did you determine that he was actually at your front door?
- 21 A. Uh, cuz he's asking me which unit was mine and I thought that was kind of weird. And it was 22 around Christmas time and I had Christmas decorations on my door. And he asked me if mine
23 was the one with the red bow and then I got a little freaked out because mine was the one with 24 the red bow.
- 25 Q. Okay. So once he asked you that question - "Is yours the one with the red bow?" - you realize 26 that he's standing right
- 27 A. I realize he's at my door.
- 28 Q. How did he find your unit?
- 29 A. You mean how did he know where I live?
- 30 Q. Yeah.
- 31 A. Um, he had asked where. I gave him the general area where I live
- 32 Q. Okay. And what would that be? How would you describe that general area where you live?

- 1 A. Uh, San Leandro. [REDACTED]
- 2 Q. Okay.
- 3 A. The little duplex area.
- 4 Q. Okay. So he had a general idea. Um, once he asked you about the red bow, what did you do
- 5 after that once you realized he was at your front door?
- 6 A. I asked him, "Where are you?" And he said, "I'm at your door."
- 7 Q. Okay.
- 8 A. And he said, "Just come to the door so I know you're okay. I just want to say good night." So I
- 9 thought . . . okay. That's weird but what am I going to do? You know I figured somebody from
- 10 work. He's safe. He's a cop. Okay. No big deal. So I go to the door. Open it and it's him.
- 11 And that's when he said he just wanted a hug good night, so I thought, "Well, if I'm ever going
- 12 to go back bed I better just give him his hug good night so I can leave . . . he could leave." And
- 13 um, then he kind of pushed his self into the door.
- 14 Q. So your initial hug would have been in the threshold of your door?
- 15 A. Yes.
- 16 Q. Is that accurate?
- 17 A. Uh-huh. Uh-huh. Uh-huh.
- 18 Q. And he had already, you mentioned he had already actually opened the outer screen door.
- 19 A. Yeah.
- 20 Q. So you didn't have that locked.
- 21 A. No, Uh-uh. I never lock the screen door.
- 22 Q. Okay. So when you opened your interior door, there the two of you are in the threshold of your
- 23 front door.
- 24 A. Uh-huh.
- 25 Q. And that's when he asks if he can have a hug.
- 26 A. Uh-huh.
- 27 Q. And correct me if I'm wrong - you basically allow him to give you a hug
- 28 A. Right.
- 29 Q. Just because you want to get on with your evening and
- 30 A. Right.
- 31 Q. And then go back and go to bed.
- 32 A. Right.

- 1 Q. There is no other intention on your part as to
2 A. Hell no.
3 Q. You don't want to lead him in any other direction.
4 A. No. Uh-uh.
5 Q. So now he's embracing you. What, what goes on from there?
6 A. Uh, he won't let go. I'm telling him he needs to leave. He starts to push his way into my 7 apartment. I'm trying to push him off. Tell him he needs to leave. I ask him what is he doing.
8 He starts to uh, kiss my neck a little bit and starts to kind of feel me up. And that's when I get 9 really freaked out and I push him away and I tell him he needs to leave right now. He stops. He 10 says he's sorry. He starts to walk away a little bit and then he comes back and he was trying to 11 talk to me telling me that he's sorry, he's sorry. And he tries to give me another hug and he 12 proceeds to do the same thing again. And I just push him away and I'm trying to push him out
13 the door and I just tell him, "Okay, whatever. You're sorry. You go. Just, if you're sorry then 14 leave. You know. Just go." And he finally leaves.
15 Q. Okay. Now you mentioned earlier that you were in your pajamas because you were in bed, 16 asleep.
17 A. Already asleep.
18 Q. And then just a second ago you made the comment "he pushed his way into your apartment."
19 Did you at any time invite, invite him into your apartment?
20 A. No.
21 Q. Okay. So when he started to push his way into your apartment, were you making comments to 22 him basically telling him to get out?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Okay. And you also mentioned that while he's kissing your neck that he quote - felt you up.
25 A. Yes.
26 Q. Now what are we talking about when you, when we talk about the comment "he felt you up?"
27 What, what did, what exactly was it he did?
28 A. He... how to say. He touched my groin area outside the clothing.
29 Q. Okay. So over your clothing
30 A. Right.
31 Q. With one of his hands, you recall which hand?
32 A. No.

- 1 Q. Okay. With one of his hands he reaches down and touches you're your groin area?
- 2 A. Uh-huh.
- 3 Q. Okay. And how long of a time did that last?
- 4 A. It was just real quick.
- 5 Q. Okay. What did you do in response to that?
- 6 A. Uh, kept pushing him away and asking him what is he doing, you know . . . "You need to stop."
- 7 Q. Okay.
- 8 Q1. Do you recall what he said? Did he say anything?
- 9 A. I really don't remember. I just remember him saying afterwards "I'm sorry."
- 10 Q. Earlier you and I and the Lieutenant had talked about his family situation.
- 11 A. Uh-huh.
- 12 Q. And that's one of the comments you made to him before
- 13 A. Right.
- 14 Q. Before he, before you physically had to kick him out of your apartment was that "You shouldn't
- 15 be doing this."
- 16 A. I told him that it was wrong what he was doing because he has his wife and he has kids and he
- 17 should think about them.
- 18 Q. Okay. Now how did you know that he had a wife and kids?
- 19 A. Because he would tell me about his kids when he was coming to the DA's Office on DA run and
- 20 on subpoenas.
- 21 Q. Okay. So just so we clear the record, you had met Officer Cannedy on numerous occasions just
- 22 through professional contacts here at work at the DA's Office, not only for subpoenas but also
- 23 when he was the DA Liaison for the San Leandro Police Department.
- 24 A. Right.
- 25 Q. Okay. And is it safe to say that when he was here that his his contacts with you were more of a
- 26 professional nature or or not
- 27 A. Right. Strictly professional.
- 28 Q. Okay. Good. So when this occurred at your house and you finally get him out of your
- 29 apartment
- 30 A. Uh-huh.
- 31 Q. Did you contact anybody that evening?
- 32 A. That evening no.

- 1 Q. Okay. The first time you recall talking to anybody about this, do you remember who it was and 2 when it was?
- 3 A. It was [REDACTED]
- 4 Q. One of your co-workers.
- 5 A. Yes.
- 6 Q. Okay. And um, was it the next day maybe or was it the next day you went into work?
- 7 A. It was at work so I don't know if maybe we went out on a Thursday night and it was the next day
8 but I talked to her on Friday. I don't remember the exact day but I do remember
- 9 Q. Okay.
- 10 A. I did talk to [REDACTED] was the first person I spoke to about it.
- 11 Q. Okay.
- 12 A. And I let her know what was going on just cuz I was scared because of the situation being that he 13 was a police officer and where we work. And I wanted somebody to know about it.
- 14 Q. Okay.
- 15 A. And of course, I told my sister.
- 16 Q. Okay.
- 17 A. Who also works for the DA's Office.
- 18 Q. Oh, I did not know that. Where does she work?
- 19 A. She is the [REDACTED]
- 20 Q. Okay. What's her name?
- 21 A. [REDACTED]. Her husband is an [REDACTED].
- 22 Q. Okay.
- 23 A. [REDACTED]
- 24 Q. The night this happened and you basically push the officer out of your apartment or 25 Uh-huh.
- 26 Q. Or forcefully tell him to leave, why did you not get on the phone right away and call 911?
- 27 A. Because of where I work and I just thought it would be an awkward situation and I just thought I 28 could handle it myself and just let it go.
- 29 Q. Okay. Could any of the reason you didn't call the Police Department be that you were 30 concerned about some sort of retaliation by Officer Cannedy?
- 31 A. At first I thought maybe people wouldn't believe me even if I did say something because I
32 thought "Well, he's a police officer. Who's going to believe me?" Um, then I just thought you

- 1 know just let it go and whatever. If he tries it again, then I will definitely tell somebody but I just 2 figured I'll tell somebody at work. Let them know what happened and just see what happens.
- 3 Q. Did he ever come to you later like months or years later and try and apologize once again?
- 4 A. He tried calling me um, like a couple of days after the incident to apologize. And I made it clear
5 to him that I just wanted to let it go. Just don't talk about it anymore and that what he was doing
6 was wrong and whatever he thought he was wrong. That there'll be no way I was interested and
7 that he should really think about his wife and kids. I just kept stressing both the wife and the 8 kids. And I told him that I just was not interested. And that I did not want for him to pursue that 9 any longer and didn't want him to talk to me basically. Didn't want him to call me anymore.
10 Didn't want him to do any of that.
- 11 Q. Okay. You also made the comment earlier that when you told him, "Hey, you should think of 12 your wife and kids." that that he tried to tell you that he and his wife have an understanding?
- 13 A. Yeah, that they had an understanding
- 14 Q. What kind of understanding was he talking about?
- 15 A. That it was okay for him to I guess do things like that.
- 16 Q. Okay. Did he say why it would be okay with his wife?
- 17 A. I think because he said something about when he used to play ball or something. I guess he 18 played softball or baseball or something like that and that was kind of what he did so it was okay.
19 His wife was used to it and she understood. And I said, "Well, I don't. So . . ."
- 20 Q. Okay.
- 21 A. I was not interested.
- 22 Q. Okay.
- 23 A. Even if he didn't have a wife and kids.
- 24 Q. All right.
- 25 Q1. Prior, prior to this happening, you had obviously met him a few times through work.
- 26 A. Right.
- 27 Q1. Had he ever asked you out or gone out for lunch or
- 28 A. No. Never.
- 29 Q1. Asked for your phone number
- 30 A. No.
- 31 Q1. Had you ever provided him or said anything to him that you'd like to go out or you'd like him to 32 stop by or

1 A. No. No.

2 Q1. You never invited him by?

3 A. No.

4 Q1. Okay.

5 Q. Okay. Is there anything else about this incident that you remember that maybe we previously
6 haven't gone over yet?

7 A. No. That's it.

8 Q. Okay. If I were to think of another question later on that I can't think of right now, would it be 9 okay for me to re-contact you regarding this?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. All right. Well that'll

We talked a little bit after I turned the tape recorder off and uh, you, Lieutenant, reminded me of something that I failed to ask you on the record. And that was in regards what time Officer Cannedy came by your house in his street clothes. Why don't you go ahead and tell me about what time you think he came by there and why you think it was that time?
- A. It must have been between 12:00 and 12:30 and
- Q. Are we talking 12 to 12:30 a.m.?
- A. A.m.
- Q. Okay.
- A. And I believe it was that time because he mentioned getting off at 12:00 so being that my apartment's not far from the Police Department I would think it would be between 12 and 12:30.
- Q. Okay. All right. And just to, just to go back for a second, you're estimating that you got home about ---did you say 10:30?
- A. No. 11:30.

1 Q. 11:30 at night.

2 A. About that time.

3 Q. So roughly it would have been roughly an hour, we're guessing now but it would be roughly an

Interviewed by:

Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta

Transcription date: October 10, 2006

Q: Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta

A: ██████████ Police Officer

Q. Okay. Today's date is Tuesday, October the 10th, 2006. The time is now 0735 hours. This is Detective Sergeant Rick DeCosta. I am in the San Leandro Police Department, in my office and I'm speaking with Officer ██████████ of the San Leandro Police Department. And this is in regards to case 06-37694. Um, before I turned the tape recorder . . . by the way, I do have the tape recorder running. You understand the tape recording is running?

A. I do.

Q. And you have no problem with me recording our conversation?

A. No problem.

Q. Okay. Uh, this is in regards, like I said, to case 06-37694. And we had a chance to talk for a few minutes before I turned the tape recorder on. And it's basically uh, I, I see you're preparing to go work out. I asked you uh, "Where do you work out?" You said, " . . ." Uh, interestingly, that's part of what I want to talk to you about was how you got, what your association was to . . . How you got hooked up with . . . Um, why don't you go ahead and kind of go over with me how long ago it was when you first came in contact with the folks over at . . . s and how that came to happen.

- 1 A. It was about a month ago. I was, I contacted a woman that worked there named [REDACTED] I asked
2 her about membership rates and she said uh, you know, "What do you want to do?" I said,
3 "Anything. I just want to get back in the gym. Work out." And uh, she offered me a 2-month
4 free membership, which I took, and I am still currently using the two months free.
- 5 Q. Okay. And how did you come in contact with [REDACTED]
6 A. I came in contact with [REDACTED] through Officer Cannedy who uh, had recommended me into, over
7 there and said, "Hey, why don't you head over? There's a woman over there and talk to her
8 about memberships."
- 9 Q. And obviously their intention over at [REDACTED] is to get you there for a couple of months and then 10 make you a permanent member.
- 11 A. I'm sure that's what it is.
- 12 Q. Okay. So you've been working out at [REDACTED] s for about a month now?
13 A. About a month.
- 14 Q. Okay. So this would have, I'm assuming this would have happened some time in early 15 September then? Roughly about.
- 16 A. That would be about right.
- 17 Q. Either the first or second week.
- 18 A. I don't know the exact date
- 19 Q. Right.
- 20 A. About a month ago.
- 21 Q. Okay. Do you know, and I asked you this before I turned the recorder on, but um, I'll ask you
22 again -- do you know if Officer Cannedy spoke with any of the personnel over at [REDACTED] s before
23 you actually drove there and made contact with [REDACTED]
- 24 A. That I don't know.
- 25 Q. Okay. But at some point, Officer Cannedy did tell you that he knew some people over at [REDACTED] s 26 and was referring you to the gym.
- 27 A. Yes.
- 28 Q. To get a membership?
- 29 A. Yes.
- 30 Q. Did he explain to you, did Officer Cannedy explain to you about uh, this like promotional 31 membership that they had for a month or two?
- 32 A. No. He didn't.

- 1 Q. Okay. So he basically just said "Go to s and see about a membership?"
- 2 A. Uh-huh. Yes.
- 3 Q. Okay. All right. And do you remember if Officer Cannady ever spoke about any of the
- 4 employees that work over at [REDACTED] on a personal level - whether it be [REDACTED] or anybody else?
- 5 A. No, he didn't.
- 6 Q. Okay. He never talked to you about any relationships, anything like that, with any other people
- 7 there?
- 8 A. No.
- 9 Q. Okay. All right. Okay. That's pretty much it. About what time of the day or night was it when
- 10 you went there to get the
- 11 A. It was about 9:30 or 10:00 that night.
- 12 Q. 9:30, 10:00
- 13 A. I got off shift. They close at 11:00.
- 14 Q. Okay. And that's when you got all signed up?
- 15 A. Yes.
- 16 Q. All right. Just for the record, Lieutenant Marc DeCoulode just walked into the room. Uh, okay.
- 17 I can't think, I can't think of much else. Is there anything else you can think of in regards to the
- 18 membership that might not be, I may not have asked about something that may be pertinent?
- 19 A. No. Not that I know of.
- 20 Q. Okay. Um, okay. Great. Well, Dennis, thank you. Um, if you have no questions for me then
- 21 that'll conclude our interview. The time is now 07 ~~(tape ends)~~ 41 hours.

Your affiant declares under penalty of perjury that the following facts are true and that there is probable cause to believe, and affiant does believe, that the designated articles, property are now in the described locations, including all rooms, buildings, and structures used in connection with the premises and buildings adjoining them.

Your affiant is Detective Sergeant Richard A. DeCosta of the San Leandro Police Department. Your affiant has been a police officer for sixteen years and is currently assigned to the San Leandro Police Department's Criminal Investigation Division as the Sexual Assaults Investigator.

On 20 September 2006, affiant became involved in an investigation involving allegations against San Leandro Police Officer Gregory Cannedy. San Leandro Police Department Officer Cathy Pickard interviewed [REDACTED] affiant, along with San Leandro Police Department Patrol Sergeant Louis Spirou, also interviewed [REDACTED] and she related the following:

[REDACTED] said that approximately one to two months prior to this incident, she was working the morning shift at [REDACTED] on [REDACTED]. It was approximately fifteen minutes after she'd opened, around 0515 hours, when she first came in contact with Officer Cannedy.

According to [REDACTED] Officer Cannedy walked into [REDACTED] while in police uniform. Officer Cannedy introduced himself and told [REDACTED] that he hadn't seen her before. [REDACTED] told Officer Cannedy that she was working for someone else that morning; that she normally works at night. Officer Cannedy took out one of his business cards, wrote a phone number on the back, then handed it to [REDACTED]. Officer Cannedy told [REDACTED] "Call me if you need anything." At the time, [REDACTED] didn't think Officer Cannedy's actions were suspicious.

The second time [REDACTED] had contact with Officer Cannedy was sometime in August, 2006. [REDACTED] said that she, her friend [REDACTED] - who also worked at [REDACTED] - [REDACTED] twelve-year-old brother, [REDACTED] were walking out of K-Mart on Floresta Boulevard. [REDACTED] saw Officer Cannedy driving through the lot, at which time they acknowledged one another by saying hello. Their conversation was brief.

The third time [REDACTED] had contact with Officer Cannedy was possibly Monday, 11 September 2006, around 2200 hours. At that time, [REDACTED] said that San Leandro Police Department Officers were dispatched to [REDACTED] regarding a disturbance. [REDACTED] said that Officer Cannedy was the officer who responded to deal with the call for service. While there, Officer Cannedy spoke with [REDACTED]. During their conversation, [REDACTED] asked Officer Cannedy if he'd be willing to "sign off" a fix-it ticket for her. Officer Cannedy asked [REDACTED] if she still had his business card and phone number. [REDACTED] said she lost it. Officer Cannedy wrote a phone number on the back of another one of his business cards, handed it to [REDACTED] and told her to call him when she was ready to have the fix-it ticket signed off.

Affiant searched the San Leandro Police Department Records program for calls for service (incidents) at [REDACTED]. Affiant located a "415 PC - Disturbance" call at [REDACTED] on Monday, 11 September 2006, at 2118 hours. Officer Cannedy and Officer Cagle were dispatched to that call. The incident (2006-36342) indicated the call was "adjusted" at 2203 hours.

The last time [REDACTED] had contact with Officer Cannedy was possibly the next day, Tuesday, 12 September 2006, in the evening. According to [REDACTED] she was talking on the phone with her friend, [REDACTED] who was working at [REDACTED]. Officer Cannedy walked into [REDACTED] and spoke with [REDACTED] about membership possibilities for a co-worker. [REDACTED] was evidently continuing her telephone conversation with [REDACTED] when Officer Cannedy asked [REDACTED] who she was talking to. When [REDACTED] told Officer Cannedy she was talking to [REDACTED] Officer Cannedy told her to say hello. Officer Cannedy also asked [REDACTED] to ask [REDACTED] if she still needed her fix-it ticket signed off. [REDACTED] said she did, so Officer Cannedy told her he would drive to her apartment and take care of it. [REDACTED] said her boyfriend, [REDACTED] got the ticket for not having a front license plate. [REDACTED] thought he'd received the ticket while in the city of Oakland, however she couldn't be sure. She also said that [REDACTED] car wasn't even at the apartment when Officer Cannedy signed off the ticket.

During part of their phone conversation, [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that Officer Cannedy asked her some personal questions about [REDACTED] such as her age and whether or not she lived alone. [REDACTED] thought Officer Cannedy's questions were strange and she shared her feelings with [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] thought it would take more than a few minutes for Officer Cannedy to arrive at her apartment, however she walked outside after she ended her conversation with Chavez in order to open the security gate, allowing Officer Cannedy inside. When she walked outside, [REDACTED] saw a marked police car entering the complex. [REDACTED] figured that Officer Cannedy had a key to open the gate.

As the police car entered the complex parking lot, [REDACTED] waived her arms, attempting to get Officer Cannedy's attention to guide him to her apartment. Officer Cannedy arrived moments later.

[REDACTED] walked back inside her apartment and retrieved the fix-it ticket, meeting Officer Cannedy at the threshold of her apartment. [REDACTED] handed Officer Cannedy the ticket and after a brief conversation, she excused herself, telling Officer Cannedy that she had to use the restroom. When she turned and walked towards her bathroom, she left the apartment door open because she didn't want to be rude.

The ticket in question was one that [REDACTED] boyfriend, [REDACTED] received from the San Jose Police Department. The violation in question was for not having a front license plate. [REDACTED] vehicle was a [REDACTED], California license [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] said she was inside her bathroom for approximately one minute. When she walked out of the bathroom, Officer Cannedy was standing inside her kitchen. [REDACTED] said that she did not invite Officer Cannedy inside. Officer Cannedy told [REDACTED] that he had signed off the ticket. Affiant has since recovered said ticket for evidence in this case.

[REDACTED] thanked Officer Cannedy for signing off the ticket at which time Officer Cannedy said something to the effect, "Is that it? You mean I don't even get a hug out of it?" [REDACTED] responded, "Are you serious?" At some point, [REDACTED] who was standing in front of Officer Cannedy, turned away from him in order to put down the aforementioned ticket.

As [REDACTED] turned away from Officer Cannedy, he grabbed the upper portion of her left arm, near the biceps/shoulder area, and turned her towards him. Officer Cannedy pulled [REDACTED] towards him, pressing her body up against his. At some point, Officer Cannedy made a comment similar to, "The first time I saw you, I thought you were so pretty."

Officer Cannedy started to kiss [REDACTED] on her cheek and neck area, while reaching around and grabbing her buttocks. [REDACTED] said that she couldn't believe what was happening. [REDACTED] said she thought Officer Cannedy was going to try and close her apartment door. [REDACTED] said at that point, she felt as though Officer Cannedy was going to rape her.

While still pressed up against [REDACTED] Officer Cannedy grabbed one of her hands and forcibly placed it against his groin area, over his pants. Officer Cannedy then said something to the effect, "You're just so beautiful. You make me horny." At some point during the incident, Officer Cannedy also said, "I'm glad you're twenty-one. I thought you were seventeen."

Fearing she was going to be sexually assaulted, [REDACTED] told Officer Cannedy that it was "movie night," and some of her friends were coming over to her apartment. Officer Cannedy told [REDACTED] to call her friends and tell them to come over twenty minutes later. [REDACTED] then told Officer Cannedy that her boyfriend was also on his way home and would be there any minute.

Officer Cannedy said something to the effect, "Are you scared?" and "You don't think I'm attractive, do you?" [REDACTED] just wanting Officer Cannedy to leave, said, "No, no. That's not it. I'll call you, I'll call you." Officer Cannedy asked, "You'll call me?" [REDACTED] said yes. Moments later, [REDACTED] was able to move away from Officer Cannedy and walk towards the door. Officer Cannedy followed, then left the apartment.

Affiant later discovered, through a mutual friend of [REDACTED] that Officer Cannedy may have been involved in other inappropriate activities involving another female. That person's name was [REDACTED]

Once affiant was able to contact [REDACTED] an interview was scheduled. Affiant asked [REDACTED] to explain what had transpired between her and the officer.

Burke told affiant that her ex-boyfriend, [REDACTED] had met [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] and that the two of them were acquaintances. According to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] about an incident that she had been involved in with a San Leandro police officer. [REDACTED] said the incident involved the officer signing off a fix-it ticket for [REDACTED] around 2300 hours. The officer then allegedly fondled [REDACTED] while he was at her residence.

When [REDACTED] heard [REDACTED] account of the incident, he recalled a similar incident involving his ex-girlfriend, [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] and asked her the name of the officer that harassed her in 2005. [REDACTED] only remembered the officer's first name, which was "Greg." [REDACTED] subsequently told [REDACTED] at which time they realized the officer's first name in the separate incidents was the same. [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] if she would be willing to talk to the police about what happened and she said yes. [REDACTED] then forwarded [REDACTED] information to me.

Affiant asked [REDACTED] how many times she'd been contacted by this officer, whom she referred to as Greg. [REDACTED] told me that she'd had been in contact with Greg on three separate occasions, then her roommate saw Greg once after that.

I asked [REDACTED] to describe the first time she came in contact with Greg. She told affiant the following:

Sometime in 2005 ([REDACTED] could not remember the date), [REDACTED] had just parked her [REDACTED] (Ca. license [REDACTED]) on [REDACTED] just south of her residence on [REDACTED]. All [REDACTED] could remember, in regards to time of day, was that it was daytime. A police officer knocked on her door and when she answered, the officer asked [REDACTED] if the [REDACTED] on belonged to her. [REDACTED] told him it did. [REDACTED] said the officer referred to her by her name, even though the two of them had never met. [REDACTED] figured that the officer obtained her name off of her vehicle registration. The officer, who subsequently furnished [REDACTED] with a San Leandro Police Department Trading Card, warned [REDACTED] about parking her car in a red zone. On the back of the trading card, the officer had written a cell phone number. [REDACTED] walked out to her car and noticed that it was only in the red zone by inches. Although the officer didn't ask her to move it, [REDACTED] did move it after the officer left. [REDACTED] didn't think that there was anything suspicious about the officer's contacting her for a parking situation.

The second time [REDACTED] saw Greg, she had just returned from Eden Hospital. Her son, [REDACTED], who was eleven years old at the time, had injured himself earlier in the day and they didn't get home until approximately 2330 hours.

[REDACTED] drove up in front of her residence and parked her car facing southbound on [REDACTED] along the west curb. [REDACTED] said that as she parked her car, a police officer drove up, north in the southbound lanes of [REDACTED], stopping his car "nose to nose" with [REDACTED] car. This maneuver startled [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] said she recognized Greg as the officer who was in the police car. Greg, still seated in the driver's seat, said, "Hey, how you guys doing?" Once [REDACTED] told Greg about the trip to the hospital, Greg told them a story about how he hurt himself when he was younger and the fact that he'd received forty stitches in his chest as a result. [REDACTED] said Greg also made reference to her being a single parent, even though she'd never discussed that with him.

During their conversation, Greg told [REDACTED] that the cell phone number he'd provided the first time they'd met was for personal conversation or if [REDACTED] had any problems.

The third time [REDACTED] had contact with Greg was in the early morning hours, unknown date. [REDACTED] had just got off of work at her second job, the [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] used westbound Interstate 580 as her route to get home to San Leandro. [REDACTED] was driving her [REDACTED], California license [REDACTED] at the time.

Around 0030 hours, just as she was preparing to take the Benedict Drive exit, [REDACTED] saw emergency lights behind her. [REDACTED] not wanting to pull her car over on the freeway, continued onto the off-ramp with the police car following. [REDACTED] said she wanted to stop her car in an area that was well lit, so she turned north onto Benedict Drive, then northwest over the Grand Avenue overpass. After the stop sign at Sybil Avenue, [REDACTED] turned west onto Sybil Avenue, then north onto Evergreen Avenue, where she pulled her car over to the curb.

The officer in the police car behind her got on the public address system and said, "Get out of the car." [REDACTED] following the officer's directions, got out of the car, leaving the engine running. While out of the car, the officer said, "Why didn't you pull over?" The officer had the patrol car's spot light illuminating [REDACTED] car, so she was initially unable to see him. The officer ordered [REDACTED] to turn around. Affiant asked [REDACTED] if the officer wanted her to turn away from him, or make a complete 360 degree turn. [REDACTED] told affiant she turned all the way around.

The officer started to walk towards her and when he got close enough to [REDACTED] she recognized him as Greg, the same officer she'd had contact with the two previous occasions.

Greg asked [REDACTED] "What are you doing out so late?" [REDACTED] told Greg that she was coming home from work at which time he asked her, "Where do you work dressed like that?" [REDACTED] had earlier told me at the time of the stop, she was wearing a white tank top and blue Capri pants.

[REDACTED] asked Greg if she could get back in her car and he said no. [REDACTED] asked Greg why she was pulled over and he told her that he wanted to talk to her. Affiant asked [REDACTED] if Greg asked her for her driver's license, registration or proof of insurance at any time during their encounter and she said no.

[REDACTED] said Greg walked up to her open driver door as they talked. [REDACTED] was up against the "V" of the door as Greg had his left hand on the open door and his right hand against one of her windows. According to [REDACTED] Greg told her that she had a "beautiful body" and that she had "big breasts." [REDACTED] said she was feeling very uncomfortable while Greg made these comments to her. [REDACTED] sat on the driver seat of her car, at which time Greg rolled her driver door window down. [REDACTED] closed the door and Greg continued talking to her through the open window.

One evening, in 2002 or 2003, [REDACTED] was out with friends at the [REDACTED] in San Leandro. Officer Cannedy entered the restaurant, in uniform, to use the restroom. When Officer Cannedy saw [REDACTED] he engaged her in conversation. During their conversation, Officer Cannedy asked her if she was okay to drive home, since she'd been drinking. [REDACTED] told Officer Cannedy that she was with friends and would be fine. Officer Cannedy gave [REDACTED] one of his business cards with his cellular phone number written on the back. Officer Cannedy told [REDACTED] that he was concerned and wanted her to call him when she got home safely. At some point during their conversation, [REDACTED] told Officer Cannedy that she lived in the area of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] was en route to her apartment, approximately 2300 to 2330 hours, when she called Officer Cannedy's cellular phone to tell him she'd arrived safely. Officer Cannedy's cellular phone went to voice mail, so she left him the message.

When [REDACTED] arrived at her apartment, she decided to go to bed. [REDACTED] changed into pajamas and went to bed.

Approximately 0030 hours, about an hour after she arrived home, [REDACTED] cellular phone rang. Due to the late hour, [REDACTED] didn't answer it. Her phone rang again, minutes later, [REDACTED] decided to answer the phone the second time. It was Officer Cannedy on the other end.

Officer Cannedy said he was calling to make sure she'd arrived home safely. [REDACTED] said that Officer Cannedy was talkative and at some point during their conversation, he asked [REDACTED] "Which unit is yours?" [REDACTED] remembered it being Christmas time and she had a red bow mounted to her front door.

Officer Cannedy asked [REDACTED] "Is yours the one with the red bow?" [REDACTED] indicated she was shocked to hear Officer Cannedy ask that, and she asked him where he was. Officer Cannedy told her he was at her front door. Officer Cannedy then said, "Just come to the front door. I want to make sure you're alright."

[REDACTED] said that her outer screen door was unlocked and when she opened her interior front door, Officer Cannedy was standing in the threshold holding open screen door. At the time, Officer Cannedy was not in police uniform. [REDACTED] said she thought Officer Cannedy may have been wearing jeans and a sweatshirt. Due to the time, [REDACTED] figured Officer Cannedy's shift must have ended around midnight.

[REDACTED] said she told Officer Cannedy that she was fine. At some point, Officer Cannedy asked her if he could have a hug. [REDACTED] was confused as to why Officer Cannedy wanted a hug, but she felt if she agreed, she'd be able to convince him to leave.

Officer Cannedy hugged [REDACTED] while standing in the threshold of her apartment. While hugging [REDACTED] Officer Cannedy leaned over and began kissing [REDACTED] neck. [REDACTED] tried to push Officer Cannedy away, however he continued hugging her, refusing to let go. Officer Cannedy guided the two of them inside [REDACTED] apartment, against her will.

Once inside [REDACTED] apartment, Officer Cannedy continued kissing her neck, then placed one of his hands on her groin area, rubbing back and forth.

In a forceful manner, [REDACTED] pushed Officer Cannedy away from her and told him to leave. Officer Cannedy immediately began apologizing to [REDACTED]. Officer Cannedy made a comment to [REDACTED] similar to, "I thought you felt the same way about me."

[REDACTED] said that she never gave Officer Cannedy the impression that she was attracted to him. [REDACTED] told Officer Cannedy that she didn't have relationships with married men. Officer Cannedy told [REDACTED] that he and his wife had "an agreement." When [REDACTED] asked about Officer Cannedy's agreement, he explained that he played baseball or softball and that was just part of what he did. [REDACTED] was finally able to convince Officer Cannedy to leave.

Greg told [REDACTED] that his wife wasn't giving him what he needed and that he wanted someone who would. [REDACTED] told Greg that she wasn't that person. [REDACTED] also told Greg at some point that he "needed to go to church."

At some point during their contact, Greg, through the open window, placed his hand on the back of [REDACTED] neck and stroked her hair. Greg leaned through the open window and tried to kiss [REDACTED] neck, however she pulled away. Greg moved [REDACTED] head and neck closer to him, making it possible for him to kiss her neck. [REDACTED] started to roll the driver door window up at which time Greg said, "I didn't mean to scare you off."

[REDACTED] said that she was stopped for approximately thirty minutes. Affiant asked her why she didn't just drive away and she told affiant that there was a car parked very close to the front of her car and the patrol car was parked near the rear of her car. She also said that she didn't want to get into trouble for "resisting." [REDACTED] also said that she was scared to tell Greg not to touch her. [REDACTED] said that she did not invite Greg to touch her.

[REDACTED] was not issued a citation once their contact was over.

Greg told [REDACTED] that he would follow her home, but she told him that wouldn't be necessary. As [REDACTED] drove west on [REDACTED], Greg followed in the police car. Once [REDACTED] got to the intersection of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], she turned south onto [REDACTED] and Greg continued on in another direction. At the time, [REDACTED] had two friends and their three children living with her. When [REDACTED] returned home, she told her friends about what happened. Her friends' names were [REDACTED] and her husband [REDACTED]. Their children were ages 8, 5 and 4.

The morning following the car stop incident, approximately 0600 to 0730 hours, someone knocked on [REDACTED] door. [REDACTED] and her son were still asleep, so [REDACTED] answered the door. When she answered the door, there was a white male standing there, who asked, "Is [REDACTED] there?" [REDACTED] told the man, "No. She's still sleeping." The man said, "Tell her I came by." [REDACTED] asked, "Who are you?" The man simply answered, "Greg." [REDACTED] described the man's clothing as dark loose sweat-type pants and a black turtleneck-type shirt.

[REDACTED] immediately went back to [REDACTED] bedroom and woke her up. [REDACTED] remembering the story from earlier in the morning, told [REDACTED] she thought the same officer had just come by looking for her in street clothes. [REDACTED] did not see the man [REDACTED] spoke with. LT. DeCoulade and affiant showed a photo line-up including OFC Cannedy's photo. Identified OFC. While investigating these allegations, affiant learned about another incident involving Officer Cannedy and an employee of the Alameda County District Attorney's Office. Affiant learned of this incident from D.A. Inspector Chris Lux. Inspector Lux told affiant that this incident occurred "years earlier." Inspector Lux also told me that the D.A.'s Office employee in question was [REDACTED]. Once affiant learned of this, an interview was scheduled with [REDACTED] cannedy as the person who came to her front porch asking for

[REDACTED] told affiant the following:

[REDACTED] had been employed by the Alameda County District Attorney's Office for approximately seven years. She had lived at [REDACTED] since 2002 or 2003.

[REDACTED] was familiar with Officer Cannedy from his appearances at the District Attorney's Office for subpoenas. Officer Cannedy also worked as the D.A. Liaison for a substantial period of time. The D.A. Liaison's responsibilities included bringing out the In-Custody cases from San Leandro Police Department. During this time, Officer Cannedy would have made daily trips to the Hayward Office for the purpose of delivering such cases.

With Officer Cannedy's frequent visits to the D.A.'s Office, [REDACTED] learned certain details about his personal life, such as the fact that he had a wife and two children.

The next day, Officer Cannedy called [REDACTED] to once again apologize for his actions. [REDACTED] told him his actions were unacceptable and inappropriate.

[REDACTED] said that Officer Cannedy's behavior scared her. When affiant asked [REDACTED] if she ever called the police to report the assault, she said she thought she could handle it herself. She also said she was afraid no one would believe her. [REDACTED] was also fairly new at the D.A.'s Office at the time and she said she didn't want to be unapproachable with other law enforcement personnel.

During this investigation, Officer Cannedy was positively identified – through photograph line-ups – by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] as the officer who assaulted them.

During this investigation, affiant was approached by two members of the San Leandro Police Department, individually, regarding Officer Cannedy. Sergeant Michael Sobek and Officer Cathy Pickard both told affiant that they'd heard from other San Leandro Police Department personnel that Officer Cannedy had, in the past, placed condoms inside of his uniform shirt pockets prior to beginning his work assignment(s). Neither officer, however, was able to provide affiant with the name of personnel who'd seen this occur.

Affiant knows through training and experience that officers that work for the San Leandro Police Department have access to various programs such as the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications (C.L.E.T.S.); National Crimes Information Center (N.C.I.C.); Automated Warrant System (A.W.S.) as well as the California Department of Motor Vehicles (D.M.V.). These programs make it possible for officers to gather information such as addresses, motor vehicle registration information, etc., for individuals.

Through San Leandro Police Department Administrative Services Division, affiant confirmed that Officer Cannedy's locker was number 30 in the Men's Locker Room.

Affiant also knows through training and experience that officers will sometimes keep paperwork bearing such information in their lockers, which are located in the locker rooms of the San Leandro Police Department.

Officers also keep personal items inside their lockers, as well as their duty uniforms and other equipment.

I pray that a Search Warrant be issued based upon the aforementioned facts, for the seizure of said property, or any part thereof, between the hours of 7:00 A.M. and 10:00 P.M., good cause being shown thereof, and the same be brought before this Magistrate or retained subject to the order of the court, or of any court in which the offense(s) in respect to which the property of things taken, triable, pursuant to Section 1536 of the Penal Code,

I certify (declare) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Re: Criminal Investigation of Police Officer Greg Cannedy

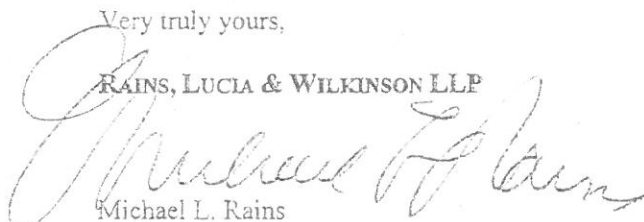

Dear Lt. DeCoulode:

I wish to take the opportunity of this letter to confirm a telephonic message I left for you. I represent Officer Greg Cannedy in connection with a criminal investigation being conducted by the Police Department. I have advised you by way of telephone and confirmed by way of this letter that, as Officer Cannedy's lawyer in this matter, I have recommended that he decline to participate in a criminal interview concerning this allegation. Officer Cannedy has indicated that he will follow my advice and will, accordingly, decline to be interviewed by the criminal investigators in this case.

As always, your courtesy and cooperation in this and other matters is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,
